Murder Victim Buried, Saturday

MRS. CHAS. SEITZ, JR., BURIED IN ADRIAN; HUSBAND AWAITS EXAMINATION

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the Collins Funeral Home for Mrs. Donna Jean Seitz, 24, who, police say, was shot and killed, Christmas night, by her husband, Charles E. Seitz, jr., 28. The Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the Friends church, officiated, and burial was in Lenawee Hills Cemetery, Adrian.

Mr. Seitz, who was held at the county jail in default of $20,000 bail, following arraignment on a murder charge, is to appear today in Justice John Lowe's court at Adrian for examination. He will be represented by Attorney Paul Betz. Rex Martin, Lenawee prosecutor, will appear for the People. Seitz, at his arraignment last week, stood mute and a not guilty plea was entered.

The fatal shooting took place in the Seitz home, 106 Muscody street, about 11 p.m., December 25, after the Seitz and their three small children had spent the afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Seitz, North Ottawa street, at a Christmas party. Returning home, they entertained company in the evening.

About 11 o'clock, according to Seitz's confession to Prosecutor Martin, the couple quarreled and Mrs. Seitz told her husband that she intended to divorce him, and to take the house and the children. She ordered him to get out and to stay out, Seitz said. He told the prosecutor that he went into a bedroom, changed his clothing, picked up a deer rifle and fired at his wife. The bullet struck her in the chest, and death was almost instantaneous. The Seitz's three youngsters, aged five and four years, and seven months, were asleep in the house at the time.

Seitz first told neighbors that he had been away and when he returned home he found his wife dead. He asked them to call police. Later, police say, he confessed to the slaying, and admitted that he threw the gun in the River Raisin near the cement bridge on E. Chicago boulevard. The gun later was recovered by state police.

He told officers that he and his wife had quarreled for several months. He said that he did not remember the shooting too clearly, or exactly how many shots were fired.

Mrs. Seitz was born October 20, 1927, in Adrian. She was a daughter of Russell Starkey of Tecumseh, and Mrs. Alta Becker Starkey Hendrickson of Adrian.

At the funeral Saturday, Robert, George and Raymond Seitz, Eugene Skinner, Elwood Bougn and Melvin Murphy were pallbearers. Friends and relatives attended from Adrian, Blissfield, Holloway, Monroe, Britton, Birdsall and Tecumseh.

Korean Corporal Sends Yule Message

SENDS MESSAGE IN VERSE FROM THE FRONT LINES IN FIGHTING AREA

A holiday letter and verse entitled, "A Korean Christmas Carol," composed by Corp. Junior Estep, a member of a fighter squadron in Korea, has been received by Ronald S. Pocklington of Ridgeway. Corp. Estep formerly lived in the Pocklington home, and for a time was employed by the Kroger company here.

Corp. Estep's verse reads as follows:

'Twas the night before Christmas, and all through the tent, was the odor of fuel oil, the stove pipe was bent. The shoe paks were hung by the oil stove with care, in hopes that they issue each man a new pair. The weary G. I.'s were sacked out in their beds, and visions of sugar babes danced in their heads. When up on the ridge line there rose such a clatter, a Chinese machine gun had started to chatter. I rushed to my rifle and threw back the bolt, the rest of my tentmates awoke with a jolt. Outside we could hear our platoon Sergeant Kelly: Come Yancey, come Clancey, come Connors and Watson, Up Miller, up Schriller, up Baker and Dodson. We tumbled outside in the swirl of confusion, so cold each man could have used a transfusion. Get up on that hill top and silence that Red, and don't come back 'till you're sure that he's dead. Then putting his thumb in front of his nose, Sergeant Kelly took leave of us shivering Joes But we all heard him say in a voice soft and light, "Merry Christmas to all, may you live through the night."

County Free Of Mishaps Over New Year's Holiday

Although driving was considered extremely hazardous, Monday evening, due to the pea-soup fog that settled over this section of the state during the day, state and local police and the sheriff's department reported not a single personal injury accident on New Year's eve or over the holiday.

Visibility was zero most of Monday afternoon and early in the evening. However, about 9 p.m., the fog lifted and it was as "clear as a bell" for about three hours. About midnight the fog settled again but raised during the early morning hours.

Although Lenawee county escaped without serious personal injury accidents over the New Year's holiday, the nation did not fare as well. A complication of accident reports showed nearly 600 persons killed in the country.

Warns Of Parking Cars On Streets During Storms

Parking of automobiles or other vehicles on streets inside the corporate limits of Tecumseh, between the hours of 1 a.m. and 6 a.m., during any snowfall, has been forbidden, Clyde Eckler, village engineer, warned today. Cars found parked on the streets during those hours will be towed away, and the owners will be forced to pay the towing charges before they receive their cars.

The "no parking" order was issued to make it easier for the street department to remove snow from the streets. During recent storms, snowplows have been hampered in their work because of the many parked cars on streets in the residential areas.

Mr. Eckler urged the public to cooperate with the street department in the snow removal by seeing to it that cars are not left on the streets later than one o'clock in the morning.

MARCH OF DIMES KICKOFF. Three-year-old Margaret Rose Oxley, who was stricken with polio 18 months ago, has a big smile for Governor G. Mennen Williams as he makes the first contribution to the 1952 March of Dimes. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has exhausted its resources paying the cost of medical care and treatment of polio victims. During 1951 the organization sent more than $800,000 to Michigan chapters, in addition to money raised locally, to pay polio bills.

SLIGHT INCREASE IN SUBSCRIPTION PRICE

Because of advancing postal rates, and the general inflationary trend in material costs, The Herald, effective January 1, 1952, announced an increase in subscription rates. The new rate is $3.00 per year, payable in advance, to subscribers living outside Lenawee county. In Lenawee county, the rate remains unchanged at $2.00 a year.

Driver Education Program Is Launched By M.S.C.

As the nation awaited news of its one millionth traffic death in December, Michigan State College took a big step toward doing something about the mounting highway death toll.

The college established the nation's first professorship in driver education and named Leslie R. Silvernale of the Continuing Education Service to fill the post. Prof. Silvernale was safety education supervisor of the Cleveland, O., public schools for 14 years.

The Michigan Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee has given the college $10,000 with which to finance a broad new driver education program aimed at reaching both high school students and adults.

To reach Michigan's 330 high school drivers of education, M. S. C. will offer special courses in their own hometowns and workshops and educational conferences on the East Lansing campus.

To prepare future teachers, present teachers and other adults, a credit course will be offered in the college's division of education.

This program is another step on the part of M. S. C. to develop an over-all safety education program. A truck driver training course has been in operation for a year; and more than 1,600 school bus drivers have won proficiency certificates through M. S. C. training.

M. S. C. President John A. Hannah said the program's aim is "to alleviate the tragic loss of life and property damage resulting from the misuse of the automobile."

"In view of the many fatalities which are occurring on the streets and highways, plus the new demands placed on our rolling stock as a result of the present emergency, we believe now is the time for us to launch this program," he added.

Penny Postcard Is Now 2 Cents

INCREASE IN PRICE IS EXPECTED TO BOOST GOVERNMENT REVENUE $10 MILLION

Folk accustomed to the use of the penny postcard found out, yesterday, that inflation had struck that item, sold by the government, too. Penny post cards now cost two cents. They're the same old card except that the stamp is red and the portrait is of Benjamin Franklin.

Penny postcards are a big item in postal revenue, nationwide. Locally, the sale, according to the postoffice here, is also heavy. But henceforth, it will cost only a penny more to mail a letter than it does a postcard, and this may somewhat discourage the card's use.

This is not the first time the Government has tried the 2-cent card. The last attempt was in 1925, when Congress raised the postal rate for souvenir and private mailing cards from 1 to 2 cents.

It was expected that the Postoffice Department would get as much as $10,000,000 a year in increased revenue. The plan was a sore disappointment.

The first year there was a $6,000,000 decrease in revenue. The rate increase was repealed quickly.

With the exception of the higher rate, the new 2-cent card's only difference is the red-colored rectangular stamp. The card is the same size as the present, 3¼x5½ inches.

The portrait of Franklin, which replaces that of Jefferson, faces to the left, and appear in an oval enclosure slightly to the right of the center of the stamp.

The denomination numeral "2" and the word, "cents," is arranged vertically, to the left of the por-

Through fingerprints ten persons wanted as fugitives from justice were identified. In handling 517 sets of fingerprints in connection with applications for licenses to carry concealed weapons, it was revealed that 60 applicants had criminal records.

Postal Rates Jump Sharply

PUBLIC GENERALLY TO FEEL INCREASES PUT INTO USE ON JANUARY 1

Increases became effective January 1, in several classifications of postal rates and service fees.

In addition to the increase on postcards, with which everyone is more or less familiar, rates also went up on special delivery, registered, insured and COD mail.

Postcards, formerly one cent each, double in price. When sold in quantities of 50 or more, there will also be an additional charge of ten percent of the total value.

Special delivery fees for first class mail are raised from 15c to 20c, up to two pounds; from 2 to 10 pounds, from 25c to 35c, and over ten pounds, from 35c to 50c. This embraces all classes of mail, including air mail. The fee for special delivery on second, third and fourth class matter is raised proportionately.

Registered mail having no intrinistic value now costs 30c; that containing matter worth from 1c to $5 has been raised from 25c to 40c, and so on up the scale. Return receipts for registered mail jump from 5c to 7c.

Fees for insured mail (third and fourth-class matter), are not increased until they reach the $50 to $100 bracket, when they go up five cents, from 25c to 30c. No return receipts may be obtained for this type of mail insured for a value under $5.

C.O.D. charges now skip the 1c to $2.50 bracket and go directly from 1c to $5, at a charge of 30c.

Postoffice To Have 'New Look'

NEW LOCK BOXES AND SERVICE WINDOWS WILL BE READY IN MARCH OR APRIL

Tecumseh's new postoffice on East Logan street will have a further "new look" soon after the first of March, F. E. N. Thatcher, acting postmaster, thinks. He has been advised that the new lock boxes and the partitions separating the lobby from the postoffice proper have been shipped, and he expects that they will be installed not later than April 1.

When the new boxes are ready and the new front is installed, the office will take on an entirely different appearance. The postmaster's private office will be in the southeast corner of the building. There will be 440 lock boxes—at present there are 220—and the public will be serviced by one money order window and two parcel post and stamp windows.

Mr. Thatcher stressed the need for the new equipment by pointing to the volume of business that the office did during the period from December 1 to December 24—twenty working days. During that period nearly $6,400 worth of stamps were sold, the largest single day's sales amounting to $806.65. A total of 174,956 letters and cards were cancelled in the outgoing mail and, as one employee put it, heaven only knows how many incoming cards and letters were handled, to say nothing of parcel post. On the heaviest day, stamps on 18,000 cards and letters were cancelled and dispatched.

Thatcher said that the office was caught up on its deliveries soon after noon on December 24, but when the late afternoon mail arrived it was necessary for some employees to work that night and a part of Christmas morning, making deliveries. Tecumseh Products Co., offered the use of three trucks and drivers to assist with deliveries, but the use of the trucks was not necessary. However, Thatcher expressed appreciation to Products for the thoughtful gesture.

The first home game after the holiday will be played here on Tuesday evening, January 8, against Blissfield. The reserve game starts at 7 p.m., and the varsity game at 8 o'clock.

Tecumseh has been very successful thus far in the cage season. The Indians have chalked up three wins in a row, against Clinton, Hudson and Morenci.

Father Gets Jail Term For Striking Baby Son

Chester E. Hensen, 23, of Tecumseh, was sentenced to spend 15 days in the county jail and to pay a fine and costs amounting to $58.60 when he was arraigned in Justice John Howe's court at Adrian, last Thursday, charged with assault and battery. Hensen admitted that he struck and injured his three-months-old son, Greg.

The arrest was made by Clinton state police after a Tecumseh physician reported that the child had been hospitalized for 14 days. The infant suffered a brain concussion and broken ribs. The doctor said that he became suspicious when the father would not say how the child was injured.

The baby was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital early in December and released on December 17. The child's ribs already had started to heal, indicating that the injury occurred sometime before hospital entrance.

State police said that an investigation showed that the baby was hurt about November 1 while the father was "baby sitting." Trooper Harold Morrison of the Clinton post said that Hensen dropped the child while caring for him. When he started to cry, after the fall, Hensen struck him, the trooper said. Morrison signed the complaint against the father.

The Year 1952 Is A Significant Year

The year of 1952 is nearly three days old. Three hundred and sixty-three days remain—1952 is a leap year.

Whether we realize it or not, when we opened the door on the New Year we entered, perhaps, one of the most significant years in all American history.

On a national basis, we will have many decisions to make. Most important, of course, will be the November presidential election, when we will decide whether we will continue with the "Fair Deal" government, manned by strange bedfellows.

We shall also have to decide whether America is going to yield to continued inflationary pressures that can only end in wheel-barrow currency and economic collapse.

We doubt that we can continue the "police effort" in Korea on its present basis for another full year. Undoubtedly, during 1952, we will have to decide whether we should get out of Korea or face the fact that we are in as desparate a war as the country has ever faced.

Americans, too, will have to decide whether they like socialism—kid-glove communism; whether "freedom" is just a pretty word, or whether it is something important enough to put before soft living.

Promptly, the President will tell the country about its condition as he sees it. He will do this in his state-of-the-nation message to Congress. There are rumors that Mr. Truman will seek re-election. Because, like all of us, he is human, he will throw as kindly a light as he can on his stewardship, and, because he is also a politician—and a good one—we can foresee words of cheer and optimism.

Summed up in a single paragraph—and putting it rather bluntly—we'd say that during 1952 we may be forced to decide whether our country can be saved from its socialistic trend. We might not have the chance again.

If there are to be changes made in the national picture, if we are to shake-off a socialistic trend as was done in England, these changes must start in the grass-roots areas of our country—perhaps in Tecumseh and in Lenawee county.

In six and a half years our national government has spent more money than in all of the years of its existance prior to the Truman administration. There is no need to blame the President, entirely, for this condition. Congress, made up of representatives of ALL the people, approved the spending. It may, therefore, be necessary for us to screen more carefully the men we send to Congress to represent us.

To believe that we can continue such reckless spending is, in our opinion, silly. We are feeling the results now of our staggering national debt, but the pressure is light compared to the future. Every day, as the hands of the clock spin around, we spend or obligate ourselves for more millions—millions that have not yet been taken from the pockets of the taxpayers.

Washington, today, speaks as lightly of a billion dollars as it did of a million dollars under, let us say, the Wilson administration.

It might be well, therefore, in this year of 1952, for us, here at home, to take stock of our future, politically and economically.

When we learn, through the newspapers, that another tax is to be levied and that more and more billions are to be spent, most of us, today, do little more than shrug our shoulders. How long can we continue such an attitude?

Are we going through the year of 1952 making more and more demands upon our already too paternalistic government? How much more must be added to our cradle-to-the-grave philosophy before we, as a people, are satisfied?

Will we elect members of Congress on the basis of promises of "more and easier security," or will we do a little thinking as individuals, about our own and our nation's economy?

Until we, in these grass-roots areas, start to think about our own future and the future of our nation as it affects us, no changes will be made in the present kid-glove form of communism. In this year of 1952 we will have ten months to think about many of these things before the November election. And at the election we can express our considered judgment through our votes.

Less than fifty per cent of the eligible voters cast their ballots four years ago when Mr. Truman was elected President. Here in free America we speak of majority rule, but today we are being governed by an administration that was elected by a minority.

No one can be blamed but the voters, themselves.

Memory Of The Flowers Lives Ever After . . .

Perhaps it is because they remind of happy days of the life that has just passed. It may bring to memory days in the garden, or a happy event of which flowers are so often a part.

For many reasons, flowers serve their highest ultimate purpose in bringing beauty to the memory of the funeral.

How To Get More Milk

From That Cow Of Yours..

If you half-feed your chickens, egg production is mighty low. The same is true of the milk yield from your cows — though not so quickly noticeable.

Many have yet to learn how much the feeding of Hayden's 34% Dairy Balancer can increase milk production and profit. Whether you keep a herd or a single cow — try it — use it. Hayden's 34% Dairy Balancer will pay you well.

Gen. MacArthur Will Speak To Legislature

General of the Army Douglas MacArthur has accepted an invitation to address the Michigan legislature as a joint session in the House of Representatives chamber, State Capitol, on Thursday, May 15, it was announced by Rep. William Broomfield of Royal Oak, chairman of a legislative committee on arrangements.

The address is planned for 8 p. m. with radio and television broadcasts.

General MacArthur, accompanied by Mrs. MacArthur and members of his staff, will arrive by chartered four-motor airplane shortly before noon at the Capitol City airport.

With an honor escort provided by Michigan State Police, the general will proceed to the Kellogg Center for Continuing Education, East Lansing. A reception and "Welcome to Michigan Luncheon" will be held in the Center ballroom under joint auspices of the legislative committee and the Michigan Press Association, Inc., on behalf of its all-daily and 306 weekly newspaper members.

"The general and his staff will be guests of the people of Michigan from the time they depart from New York City until they return," said Representative Broomfield as spokesman for the legislative committee. "All arrangements are being made without cost to taxpayers, as the committee has no appropriation. The newspapers through their state association have offered to help defray expenses by turning over all proceeds from the welcoming luncheon.

"Michigan State College will be host to the general and his party during their stay at Kellogg Center.

"On the second day of the general's visit to Michigan he will go to Detroit. Detroit arrangements are to be in charge of Simon D Den Uyl, president of the Michigan Colleges Foundation and president of the Bohn Aluminum Company.

Members of the joint legislative committee comprise the following: Rep. William Broomfield, chairman; Rep. George M. VanPuersem, Zeeland; Rep. Robert M. Montgomery, Lansing; Sen. Haskell L. Nichols, Jackson; and Sen. Harry F. Hittle, Lansing.

"Complete details of the general's two-day visit to Michigan are to be worked out in the near future by the legislative committee, assisted by Mr. Den Uyl of Detroit and Gene Alleman of E. L., secretary-manager of the Michigan Press Association, Inc.

MSC Father-Son Team Will Graduate In June

Here's a tip to college students. If your father wants to know what you're doing at college, follow the lead of Robert Schwei, Michigan State senior from Iron Mountain, Mich.—take him to college with you.

John J. Schwei, 54-year-old school teacher and principal, is back at M.S.C. after a 31-year absence, getting a master's degree in education. Son Bob is majoring in business administration, aiming for an insurance career. Both will receive degrees this June.

In his first educational stint at Michigan State, John "Jack" Schwei was a college football star, getting letters as an end in 1918, 1919 and 1920. He was also on the track team.

Prior to returning to M.S.C. with his son this fall, Schwei taught school in Kingsford and Iron Mountain and was principal of the Niagara, Wis., high school for six years.

Father and son say they like it very much at M.S.C., but back at home, Mrs. Schwei says: "It's kind of lonesome without the men around."

JUNIOR SIZE ATOMIC BLAST . . . These soldier observers are getting an eyefull of the junior-size nuclear blast in the latest atomic test in which the army participated. The atomic energy commission would not say how the blast was set off, whether dropped from a high-flying plane or set off on the ground. But the army expressed satisfaction in the results of the tests, held in Nevada. This explosion is believed to have started a new series of tests in the development of nuclear weapons for warfare. The huge mushroom was just a wind-swept cloud in less than one hour following the blast.

trait. Across the top of the stamp, in a shaped panel, appears the words, "United States," and across the bottom, "postal card" in white faced Gothic lettering. The name "Franklin," on a ribbon at the bottom of the portrait completes the design.

This is the 78th year that the postcard has been in use in the United States. It was introduced in 1873, when U. S. Grant was President.

The first card, 3x5 1/8 inches bore the profile bust of the Goddess of Liberty.

The postcard is not an American innovation. It was introduced to Great Britain in 1870 by Prime Minister W. E. Gladstone, after being used first in Vienna, in 1869.

The first year the card was circulated in this country, 60,000,000 cards were printed. Now the Post office Department issues more than 2,000,000,000 cards annually.

STRETCHING THE REDFIN . . . United States navy workmen are pulling apart sections of the hull of the U.S.S. Redfin, the undersea craft being lengthened at the U.S. naval shipyard in Philadelphia, Pa. A new middle section is in preparation to be fitted into the gap left by the workmen to make room for some vital new war equipment which is so top secret that naval officials will not disclose what is the function of the equipment in sea warfare. However, certain officials have been authorized to state that the submarine, when repairs are completed, will become an entirely new type of underseas weapon, never used in war before.

Highway Toll Shows Decline In October

Upward trends in Michigan traffic deaths, injuries and accidents halted in October. It was the first month this year that there was a simultaneous reduction in all three as compared with the same month of last year.

According to the State Police monthly statistical report, 152 persons were killed and 4,136 injured in 13,792 accidents. Deaths were down 22, or 13 per cent. under 174, injuries decreased 378, or eight per cent, under 4,514 and accidents were reduced 1,046, or seven per cent, under 14,838.

All of the fatality decrease occurred in rural areas and more than offset an increase in urban deaths. The decline, however, failed to bring the toll below the monthly average of 147 deaths for October over the last five years.

Michigan's traffic toll for the first ten months of 1951 includes 1,352 deaths, 40,100 injuries and 139,812 accidents. Deaths were up 55, or four per cent, over 1,297 for the same period last year. Injuries increased 3,310, or nine per cent, over 36,790 and accidents gained 14,669, or 12 per cent, over 125,143.

The national traffic death toll for the same period was 30,300, seven per cent above the 28,200 deaths for the first ten months of 1950. The one millionth American traffic fatality since records were started is expected about December 21.

Undoubtedly 1951 will be Michigan's worst year from the standpoint of the combined total of traffic injuries and deaths and the total number of accidents.

Travel in September, the latest month available, was 1.9 billion miles, a decrease of one per cent under the same month in 1950. Mileage for the first nine months of this year was up eight per cent, 17.8 billion as compared to 16.5 billion. The death rate per 100 million miles of travel was down two per cent, 6.67 as compared to 6.79.

JOHN DEERE DEALER to ENTERTAIN FARMERS and THEIR FAMILIES

JOHN DEERE DAY IS

"GALAHAD JONES"

WITH RICHARD CRANE, MARJORIE LORD, ELIZABETH PATTERSON, AND JONATHAN HALE

A full length feature picture, "Galahad Jones," will highlight the parade of entertainment to be staged for farmers and their families who attend the 16th annual John Deere Day show as guests of Hoyt Whelan Co. on Tuesday, Jan. 8. at the Strand Theatre.

"Galahad Jones" centers around a farmer's son, recently graduated from law school, who thwarts the efforts of a big-time crook to profit from his political connections. It is a present-day problem picture with a moral and plenty of laughs for good entertainment.

Richard Crane, playing the part of "Galahad Jones' is ably supported by Marjorie Lord, Elizabeth Patterson, Jonathan Hale, Ed Brophy, and four other Hollywood personalities.

Five other new pictures are included in the fast-moving program, according to Mr. Fay Whelan. One of the films, "The Big Payoff," features Tom Gordon, head of the memorable Gordon clan, who has been so popular in previous John Deere Day pictures. Another picture, "Oddities in Farming," is patterned after last year's popular film of the same name. "What's New for '52" will acquaint those in attendance with new John Deere implements and is sure to prove of interest to every farmer and his family. "The March of Harvest Time" and "Voices of Experience"—the two movies that complete the program, deal with subjects close to the heart of every farmer.

Admission will be by ticket and farmers who have not yet received theirs may obtain them by calling in person at the Whelan store in Tecumseh. Farmers are urged by Mr. Whelan to get their tickets early. The show starts at 10:30.

There also will be a mill demonstration, weather permitting.

Better still, call for an appointment now, the Department said.

Seitz Is Held In $30,000 Bail

ALLEGED LOCAL MURDER IS BOUND OVER TO JANUARY TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT

Charged with the Christmas night murder of his wife, Donna Jean, 26, Charles E. Seitz, jr., 28, was bound over to the January term of the Lenawee county circuit court, following an examination in Justice John Lowe's court in Adrian, Thursday. Bail, which previously had been set at $20,000, was increased to $30,000, and he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

Seitz is charged with shooting and killing instantly, his wife, in their home at 106 Muscody street here, at about 11 p.m., December 25. The murder is alleged to have occurred following a quarrel, and while the Seitz's three small children were asleep in an adjoining bedroom.

Seitz, according to state police, sheriff's deputies and local police who investigated the case, first denied the shooting. His first story who to the effect that he found his wife dead, when he returned to his home on Christmas night. He went to the home of William Pangburn, nearby, and asked that they call the police. He was arrested in his own home.

Police, however, reconstructed the story this way. They say that Seitz and his wife quarreled, that he shot her with a deer rifle, and then threw the gun into the River Raisin. The weapon later was recovered.

Seitz maintained his innocence for several hours and then, according to officers, confessed the shooting. He admitted the quarrel and said that his wife ordered him to leave the house, saying that she intended to divorce him and to take the custody of their children.

In Thursday's examination, the People were represented by Prosecutor Rex Martin and Seitz by Attorney Paul Betz. Witnesses called were Mr. Pangburn, Trooper Morris Tubbs of the state police at Clinton, and Chief of Police M. E. Clark. Seitz was not asked to testify.

15 Mill Tax Is Set By Council

ONE MILL INCREASE WILL CARE FOR BUILDING OF SEWAGE DISPOSAL PLANT

A one mill hike in the village of Tecumseh's tax rate was authorized on Monday evening when the Council approved its budget for the year of 1952. The new rate is 15 mills, or $15 per $1,000 assessed valuation, and will become effective in July when village taxes are due and payable.

The $1 per $1,000 rate increase, is was explained, allows for payment of principal and interest on the $285,000 worth of sewage disposal bonds, approved by voters in special election in November. At the time of the election, Council feared that a rate hike of $1.50 per $1,000 would be necessary. However, after studying the budget, and by practicing economy, the trustees felt that the $1.00 raise would be sufficient.

The 15 mill rate, Council anticipates, will raise $52,218 in real estate taxes, and $24,729 in personal taxes, an increase of about $7,000 over a year ago. Other revenunes, including returned state taxes, will bring the total operating budget up to $110,447.

Village finances at the present time are in good shape, it was explained. Tecumseh had a cash balance of a little more than $64,000 at the beginning of the year, and current expenses are running about $9,000 monthly. Barring unforseen expense, Council was of the opinion that a hike of more than $1.00 per thousand of assessed value this year was unnecessary.

Most other business before Council on Monday was routine. A plot of land near Tecumseh Recreation was leased for $12 a year for parking purposes. The Kroger company was approved for a new SDM license. Current bills were audited and ordered paid, and reports of committee and department heads were read and placed on file.

Graham of Concord, former vice president of the General Motors Corp., will be the speaker.

League Leaders

The Tecumseh high school cagers took undisputed, top-ranking honors in the LCAA, Tuesday evening, by defeating Blissfield on the local court, by a score of 47 to 30. It was a neck-and-neck contest during the first two quarters, and at the half the score was tied at 19 points. In the second and third stanzas, however, the Sugar Boys were unable to cope with the Indians' speed, and Coach Duvall's men ran up another 28 markers.

A capacity crowd witnessed the event. The balcony of the gym was filled to overflowing, and it became necessary to stop the sale of tickets before the first quarter was ended.

Friday night, the Indians play Addison on the local court, and next Tuesday, January 15, they meet Summerfield here. Friday, January 18, Morenci comes here for a game, and the last home game of the season is on February 1, with Hudson.

MANNHEIM RESIDENT SAYS HIS PEOPLE ARE NOT DEVILS AS HITLER REPRESENTED

German Student's Dad Says Thanks" For American Understanding

Helmuth S. Clausnitzer, father of Joachim Clausnitzer, German born Rotary exchange student who is living in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hamaker here, expresses his appreciation for his son's advantages of studying in America, in a letter to the Tecumseh Rotary Club.

Mr. Clausnitzer is a resident of Mannheim, Germany. His son came here last fall, as one of a group of 75 students, brought to this Rotary district under a student-study program. The boy will return to Germany next summer, after a year in America, and two semesters in the Tecumseh public schools.

Mr. Clausnitzer's letter follows:

Christmas, which exceeds the boundaries of peoples and joins us all together, is ample reason for this letter.

As Joachim's father, who under your sponsorship has been able to spend a year in the States, I thank you. However, I must also thank you as a German who warmly welcomes every effort to further understanding between peoples. And the mutual acquaintanceship among people is the initial requirement for our so much desired pacification of the world.

People are by no means very different; they all desire their meager love and existence; they all have longing towards a little fortune and affection for security and peace. The more we know about each other, the more the unholy hate of peoples against peoples dies, and the more we get to know each other, the more we learn to respect our differences and to cherish our similarities. By your action in taking German boys and girls to your country for a year, you have contributed a valuable part to the material understanding of peoples.

We Germans are certainly not the Devils which the world made of us under Hitler, and the American people are not represented among the soldiers who first served as occupational troops and who today in retrospect must really be ashamed of their erstwhile behavior towards a starved and bled out people. The hate period of the Morganthau Plan is long forgotten and we thank the American people for the help which has allowed us to even begin reconstruction.

The American people, secure on their continent, have a rather difficult time understanding the limited conditions of Europe out of which have arisen the need for continual protection. And this applies particularly to the Germans since we are squeezed into middle Europe. Basically, we love our work, peace, wives, children, and abhor military camps in the same way as other peoples. Since the unfortunate cold war, which Russia has waged clear to West Germany, the constant danger of Bolshevism threatens us, whose beast-

Eberhardt Buys Business Here

WADE L. JONES AGENCY IS SOLD TO BRITTON INSURANCE MAN

Elmer W. Eberhardt of Britton, today announced that he had purchased the Wade L. Jones Insurancy Agency in Tecumseh, taking possession last Monday. To enter business for himself, Mr. Eberhardt resigned his position as assistant cashier of the United Savings Bank of Tecumseh, with which institution he had been associated for eight years.

Mr. Eberhardt is well known in Tecumseh and Britton and in Lenawee county. He has been in the insurance business in Britton for about 15 years, he is treasurer of Ridgeway township, and a member of the Lenawee County School Board.

In announcing the purchase of the Jones agency, Eberhardt said that he would continue to operate the business under the Jones name, and that the offices would remain in the Sage building on West Chicago boulevard. He will continue to represent the same companies, and all renewals will be written promptly, as has been the practice in the past.

The Jones agency was started by the late Wade L. Jones many years ago. Following Mr. Jones' death, November 25, 1950, his widow, Mrs. Ruby Jones, continued the business, selling to Eberhardt. Mrs. Jones will assist the new owner in the offices here.

Eberhardt and his family reside in Britton. He will continue to live there, he said. He will operate the Britton insurance agency independly from the Tecumseh agency. Later, Eberhardt said, he may move to Tecumseh.

Seek To Organize New Grade School Band Here

Forty new recruits for the new grade school band is the objective of a campaign now under way in the Central school, according to Robert Peck, elementary music teacher.

"All parents desire their children to play some musical instrument and the school offers the best opportunity for them to do so," Mr. Peck said. "Participation in a band contributes to the health of its members, develops mental activity and body control, makes worthy use of leisure time, makes better citizens, and develops character.

"Unfortunately, not every child is naturally adapted to playing a musical instrument. In order to determine those best suited to participate, scientific tests have been given to determine the inherent musical ability of the children in the fifth and sixth grades. Arrangements have been made whereby instruments may be rented for a period of three months to make sure the children will succeed before further investment is made. Parents whose children successfully pass the test will be notified," Peck said.

Lessons will be furnished by the school. Peck feels this is the logical time for children to start, and that it will be only a matter of months before they will be playing real band music and participating in music functions. This method of starting children on musical instruments is being widely used by schools throughout the country with great success.

I will be at the United Savings Bank each Saturday until March 1, 1952, for collection of township taxes, dog taxes and Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance. Will also accept payment by check or money order, mailed to my residence 21 W. Brown street, Tecumseh. Lawrence Mohr, twp. treas. Adv. 3-52

Disposal Plant Waits Priority

VILLAGE WILL ATTEMPT TO DO BUILDING ITSELF; HINTS POSSIBLE SAVING

The Village of Tecumseh will attempt to build its new $285,000 sewage disposal plant, ordered by the Michigan Stream Control Commission, without the aid of a general contractor, E. C. Heilman, chairman of the Council's sewer committee, said today. Mr. Heilman's announcement followed a meeting on Tuesday afternoon with engineers, and the tentative hiring of a superintendent-engineer to oversee the construction work, once it has started.

"It is a little too early to make a definite statement," Mr. Heilman said, "but I am of the opinion that we can build the plant, according to specifications, and without the aid of a general contractor, and make a saving of several thousands to the taxpayers of Tecumseh. Our inquiries thus far indicate such a saving, and we intend to save every dollar that we can."

Council's decision to build the plant itself, rather than hiring it done, came following the receipt of bids for the work, all of which were $50,000 or more in excess of the $285,000 estimate and bond issue, floated for the work. The bonds have been sold, the money reinvested, and they are "paying their way," pending a Council decision.

We're Still a One-Traffic-Light Town

In spite of the fact that the Village of Tecumseh, in the past 15 years, has more than doubled its population and, between the years of 1940 and 1950, according to U. S. Census figures, made the most rapid growth of any community in Lenawee county, it also remains a fact that Tecumseh is still a one-traffic-light town, the same as it was 25 years ago. Appeals from the Council for additional traffic control signals seem to fall on deaf ears in both the State Police and State Highway Departments, and no one, locally, seems to have what it takes to learn the reason why.

Months and months ago the Council and the Police Department requested that a traffic survey be made here, looking toward the installation of more control signals. Such a survey was made and, as we understand it, one more light was to be installed at the corner of Chicago Boulevard and Maumee street. For some yet unexplained reason, the light there has not been installed and, our guess is that unless some additional pressure is brought to bear, it will be additional months before any action is taken.

We can see the need for a light at the Boulevard-Maumee intersection. Heavy incoming and outgoing traffic to the Tecumseh Products Company's plant makes the corner a hazardous one at certain periods of the day. If the state believed that the light was necessary, months and months ago, why has it not been installed?

We have said before, and we say it again, that traffic control lights should be installed at the intersection of the Boulevard and Pearl street, and at the intersection of Evans and Logan streets. Both of these intersections are dangerous. Traffic from Pearl street is forced to wait for as much as five to seven minutes at a time to enter Boulevard traffic, at certain periods of the day, and pedestrians have still more difficulty than motorists. The danger at this intersection is further increased by the fact that on one corner there is a gasoline filling station, and on one of the other corners there is a garage.

We also believe that a traffic light at the Pearl-Boulevard intersection would serve another purpose. Eastbound traffic, on a down-hill street, would be slowed down by the light before it enters the business section. Eastbound traffic now moves into the business district entirely too fast.

The Logan-Evans street intersection has been the scene of several accidents and there will be more accidents there unless a control light is installed.

Now that the postoffice is located on Logan street, traffic across the intersection is much heavier. Logan street also carries a heavy amount of traffic both to Central School and to the new high school on Maumee street. Foot traffic at the intersection is as heavy as motor traffic, and the game of tag that is sometimes played at this corner between cars and pedestrians is both tiring and dangerous.

We realize that both Chicago Boulevard, (M-50-52), and Evans street, (M-52), are state trunk lines, and that the village cannot install the needed lights without the approval of the State Police and the State Highway Departments. We are not silly enough to believe, however, that the Village Council and the local police department could not force the installation of the lights, if there was a genuine desire on their part for them.

It should not be necessary for a serious accident, costing the life of a man, woman or child, to occur, before proper steps are taken. The Council and the police may say that they have requested a survey, looking toward signal installation, that a survey has been made, and that they, as a result of such a request, have done their bit. That is an easy way to shift the responsibility from local shoulders to the shoulders of two state departments. That is what is happening now on the Boulevard-Maumee street light. It has been ordered installed, but no one is "on the ball" to see that it is done.

We have noticed that when we really want things to happen in government there are ways and means of causing them to happen. When those in authority really want to get things done, usually they are accomplished.

In the final analysis, it is the desire that counts. If we take a half-hearted attitude, we generally get half-hearted results.

We sincerely hope that it will not be necessary for someone to lose his life before more serious thought is given to the control of traffic at these dangerous intersections. Passing the blame from local shoulders to state shoulders will not bring back life.

We believe that we, here in Tecumseh, know our needs regarding traffic control, far better than do those who sit behind desks at Lansing. The decision should be made locally.

Memory Of The Flowers Lives Ever After . . .

Perhaps it is because they remind of happy days of the life that has just passed. It may bring to memory days in the garden, or a happy event of which flowers are so often a part.

For many reasons, flowers serve their highest ultimate purpose in bringing beauty to the memory of the funeral.

iality you cannot begin to comprehend since you have never experienced it.

Our entire pattern of living belongs to that of the West where we seek, with all our hearts, federation. We expect this from the West and therefore from the United States and the tension between East and West will be dissolved peacefully. To this unity of the West must be added the understanding of one another of the Western peoples and thereby the dissolution of their animosities. These things are being accomplished through your action, and for this I thank you.

I wish you further success in your efforts, a peaceful Christmas Holiday, and I wish you all a Happy New Year.

Disposal Plant

Inquiries into costs thus far, Heilman said, indicate that the village can save upwards of $40,000 by doing its own contracting. On one phase of the plant alone, he said, a saving of more than $30,000 is indicated. The engineer, tentatively hired to superintend the work, recently completed a similar plant in a Michigan city.

"We are marking time now," Heilman said, "pending the receipt of priorities from the government for steel and other critical materials. Once we have the priorities, we will move ahead, and we hope to have the plant finished within the year. As soon as the priorities come, the new superintendent will get on the job, and sub-contracts will be awarded."

Heilman said that if the federal government refuses priorities for the materials at this time, then the entire plant will have to wait until such time as the "freeze" is lifted.

CHURCH ELECTS

A voters meeting of the congregation of Grace Lutheran church was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Bert Filter, elected as president; Oscar Bryan re-elected as financial secretary, and George Heeman as trustee. Otto Teske was elected deacon to succeed George Bailey.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

It's Slim's For An "Honest" Meal

Most people thought Slim Benson would probably go broke when he first started his system of letting customers figure out their own checks over at his big diner on the highway.

Slim trusts them to pay for as much as they eat—you simply tell Sally, his cashier, the amount of your bill. It works, too. Take the other day when Buck Harris told Sally his bill was 35¢.

Now I was right there with Buck and I knew all he had was coffee and pie which comes to a quarter. "How come thirty-five cents?" I asked Buck. "Had an extra cup of java the other day, Joe, and forgot all about it—'til now," he says.

From where I sit, most people are basically honest — and that goes for their opinions, too, even though they may be different than our own. I like a glass of beer with my dinner; you may prefer something else . . . but we all ought to be allowed to "figure it out" ourselves.

Tecumseh School District No. 5, lying immediately south and west of Tecumseh and including Tecumseh Acres Subdivision, will vote on Tuesday, February 5, on a proposal to become annexed to Tecumseh School District No. 7, which area includes the Villgae of Tecumseh. Tecumseh Has Its Fiery Sweaters, Too

Tecumseh has its fiery sweaters, too.

Chief of Police M. E. Clark reported today that the local police and fire departments had discovered at least two of the fiery garments in this village, and they have reason to believe that there are others. The garments already located were sold to individuals by salesmen here, last May.

One of the garments was taken to the fire station here for a test. It consumed itself in seconds, after ignited. "It burned like a gasoline-soaked rag," a fireman said.

Police have samples of the sweaters, as does the fire department. If any one in Tecumseh believes that he has one of the inflammable sweaters, he may take it to either the police or the firemen for identification.

Police officers throughout the nation are combing their communities for the fiery garments which already have caused severe burns, particularly in the east, in Detroit and in New York. They are sold principally by house-to-house salesmen and are very attractive in appearance, it was said. They are made from a brushed rayon substance which burns very readily

Phone Company Asks Rate Hike

NEW INCREASE WOULD UP COST OF BOTH BUSINESS AND RESIDENCE TELEPHONES

E. G. Greene, district manager of Michigan Associated Telephone Company here, announced today that application would be filed with the Michigan Public Service Commission on January 22, 1952, for authority to reprice the company's services. The new rates the company has applied for authority to make effective in the Tecumseh and Holloway Exchange Areas will increase charges for residence telephones from 70 cents to $1.00 and business telephones from 85 cents to $1.25 per month.

Mr. Greene said "the repricing of the company's services has become necessary as a result of mounting operating costs." He explained that these mounting costs principally were the increases in wages the company had negotiated with the employees union, the A. F. of L., in August 1950 and in the summer of 1951, and also the increases in income taxes brought about by the rise in effective rate on corporate income from 45% to 52%.

"Taxes now take 52 cents of every additional dollar we collect over and above our operating expenses," Mr. Greene stated. "While the new rates proposed will increase the cost of the average telephone about 3.6 cents per day, 1.9 cents of that will be federal income tax. This tax is a proper and legal business expense."

He clarified the tax question by explaining that the company is not now, nor does it expect to be, subject to the payment of excess

Elton Smoke Will Face Circuit Court, Tuesday

Elton Smoke, 45, of Wolf Lake, charged with the murder of his wife and his wife's niece, Mrs. Gertrude Roberts, in the Roberts home here on West Pottawatamie street, August 28, will go on trial Tuesday, January 22, in the Lenawee county circuit court. Since the murder and his release from University hospital, Smoke has been a prisoner at the county jail.

The complaint charges that Smoke first shot his wife, then her niece, and then turned the gun on himself. Mrs. Roberts died before her arrival at the hospital. Mrs. Smoke died a few days later in University hospital. Smoke, suffering from head injuries, was a patient for several weeks.

The shooting, according to police, grew out of difficulties between the Smokes. Mrs. Smoke was seeking a divorce and was staying at her niece's home, awaiting the hearing.

4-H Club Marks 50th Birthday

COMMEMORATIVE STAMP ISSUE HIGH LIGHTS OBSERVANCE; HAYDENS PARTICIPATE

The 4-H Club - Head - Heart - Hand - Health - probably had a quiet start on January 15, 1902. But there were many in attendance at the golden anniversary observance at Springfield, Ohio, last Tuesday where the "First Day of Issue" of the U.S. 4-H Club commemorative stamp was observed.

Simple ceremony attended the start of the selling of this issue. Assistant Postmaster General O. E. Pearson was on hand to present the first sheets to National 4-H Club leaders. Representatives of Hayden Flour Mills of Tecumseh were present in Springfield to post several thousand first-day cancellations to residents of Lenawee county. Beautifully engraved envelopes were prepared in advance and mailed on Tuesday as mementos of the occassion.

In Tecumseh, the Hayden organization presented a specially prepared sheet of commemorative interest to Kenneth Escott, RR 1. Clinton, who is a 4-H Club leader in the Tecumseh area. Escott's group has this year showed stock at the Detroit Stock Show, and the Adrian Fair, where they took honors for the Grand Champion Barrow.

These envelopes mailed by Haydens are in the words of stamp collectors "philatelic gems," and will doubtless be much in demand. It has been announced by W. M. Beardsley, general manager of Haydens that a small stock of these are on hand at their office, and that a copy will be given to any 4-H Club member who has not already received one.

A Bad And Dangerous Practice

At the intersection of Chicago Boulevard and Evans street the other forenoon we watched fourteen automobiles make left turns. Only two drivers out of the fourteen gave pedestrians, who were crossing the street with so-called red light protection, an opportunity to do so in an orderly fashion. One of the drivers even had the nerve to sound his horn in an effort to halt the flow of pedestrian traffic and permit him to accomplish an illegal act. We watched the horn-blowing driver and, to our amazement, he parked his car within 50 feet of the intersection, got out and began to chat informally with friends on the sidewalk.

In all probability the horn-blower did not and still does not realize that what he did was illegal. In all probability he didn't even realize that he had sounded his horn in an effort to scatter foot traffic. There are some very, very courteous folk in the parlor who, believe it or not, lose all of their manners, once they are behind a steering wheel.

We have been watching the left-turn traffic at the Boulevard intersection for some time. If we are any judge of safety, we'd say that at certain periods of the day pedestrians at that crossing have about as much assurance of not being hit by a left-turn car as a flock of chickens on a country road. The fact is, we believe, that the accident rate at the intersection would be high were it not for the fear that folk on foot have of being run down by automobiles and trucks.

Tecumseh's police department is very alert to most motor car violations. Parking meters are checked, double parking is watched carefully, and wrong-way parking is forbidden. There are a multitude of other do's and don'ts, all of which can bring violation tickets.

We'd like to see the police add the left-turn violation to their list of traffic checks. For our money, it's far more dangerous to swing your car into pedestrians who are attempting to cross the street with red light protection, than it is to do some other things for which tickets are issued.

Perhaps a dozen or two traffic tickets to thoughtless, discourteous drivers would end what is growing into a very dangerous practice. Pedestrains have just as much right to cross the street as motor cars. After all, a pedestrian is usually someone who has found a place to park his automobile.

No Headlines on 1951's Big Story

Newspapers and magazines, since the turn of the new year, have reviewed and headlined some of the big stories of 1951. The most significant story, however, has not rated a headline. That story is the tireless manner in which our free press has hammered home day after day, chapter after chapter, shocking facts about the incompetence and corruption of countless public officials to say nothing of the grand schemes of bureaucratic spenders of tax funds to socialize and control industry, workers and consumers. Never in the history of this country has a free press stood more solidly between private citizens and oppression. We all owe it a permanent debt of gratitude for the manner in which it has ferreted out weaknesses, dogma, and whitewash in matters ranging all the way from foreign policy to government administration.

Few people realize the scope of the American press. It is as vast as it is unique. It consists of highly efficient wire services, several hundred metropolitan publications, many of whose names are by-words in the home, plus more than eleven thousand country daily and weekly newspapers owned and operated by thousands of editors who fully realize that back of all our political, international, labor, tax, industrial and inflation problems stand simple principles we must adhere to in order to make our country tick. They know that to enjoy the liberties our forefathers fought for, we must save the system which they built to guarantee them. A major item of good news is the fact that such editors in every corner of the land have risen with unprecedented vigor to challenge the threat to personal freedom and national survival that faces the nation from within.

That this threat is real and imminent should be ominously evident to all. More federal taxes have been collected from the American people in the last seven years than in all preceding years since the founding of the nation—some $260,000,000,000 as against only $250,000,000,000 since 1789 through June 30, 1945, which includes, of course, the years of World Wars I and II. The increase in government spending has far outstripped the growth and the productive capacity of our country. It has resulted in corruption, bureaucracy, depreciating money and regulation wholly incompatible with a free nation and a free press.

Because our country enjoys free speech and a free press the outcome should not be in doubt. The people have the means to know what is going on. Their knowledge can be a source of unbeatable strength, in the future as it has been in the past.

Parent-Teacher Group Hears More About Schools

The Tecumseh Parent-Teachers Association held its regular meeting Thursday evening in the study hall of the high school, concluding the discussion on, "Understanding the Educational Program of Our Schools."

During the business meeting Mrs. Ronald Harris made an appeal to those who have not yet signed a pledge card to donate blood for the Korean campaign, to phone Mrs. L. W. Larsen, 311, for information. The Bloodmobile unit will be at the Legion Home on Monday, January 21, from 2 to 8 p.m.

The membership contest awards were presented to Miss Alice Seger's class, first grade with 39 members and to Mrs. Irene Boltz, 6th grade. The Association also voted to purchase towels for the P.T.A. hostesses. The next meeting will be February 14 with an interesting program and movies planned.

Earl Greene, elementary principal, told of the reading and spelling system used and explained the sound recognition method. He was assisted by Mrs. Gordon Garlick for the first and second grades; Mrs. Sam Sisson, the third and fourth grades; and Wayne F. Kaiser for the fifth and sixth grades. Parents can assist the children by creating an interest in their reading, it was pointed out.

Robert Peck, elementary music instructor, explained a campaign to organize a grade school band. Tests are being given to determine the musical knowledge of fifth and sixth grade students and arrangements have been made for the rental of instruments for a three-months trial period, before purchase. Parents will be notified at a later date when students have passed their test.

After the meeting and program refreshments were served by the room mothers of the 7th and 8th grades with Mrs. W. D. Hite as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Raymond Puffer, Mrs. James Barton and Mrs. John C. Cameron.

Britton Voters Consider Municipal Water Plant

A favorable vote on the proposal to bond the Village of Britton for $88,000 for the building of a new municipal water plant was forecast on Wednesday as voters went to the polls to decide the issue. There are 274 registered voters in the village, and by 10 a.m., 30 votes had been cast.

The project would be financed by the issuance of revenue bonds, payable from the income of the system. Users would pay $3 monthly for the service. Decreased fire rates and improved sanitary conditions are the arguments in favor of the program.

A public meeting explaining the proposal was held with engineers present, last week. It is understood that the plan is favored by the state health department.

IRA ASHLEY, WIFE MARRIED 50 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ashley were the guests of honor at the Baptist church, Tuesday evening, when 125 friends and relatives gathered to help them celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. As the guests entered the church, Mrs. Llewellyn Sisson, Mrs. Ellis Honeycutt, Marcia Bashore and Mrs. B. O. Bashore presened them with miniature wedding bells Mrs. Kenton Hunt played traditional wedding music before the program.

The welcome to the bridal party and guests was given by the Rev. B. O. Bashore. Fred Dickinson, accompanied by Mrs. Dickinson, sang "O Promise Me," and "Always." Mrs. Fred Sheldon gave a reading, "Fifty Years Ago." Mrs. Lyle Grigg and Mrs. Harley Mc-[illegible] in costume of 50 years ago, sang, "Put On Your Old Grey Bonnett." A tribute in verse, written by Mrs. Eva Nemire of Adrian, was read. Mrs. Nemire was unable to attend. The guests formed a huge circle around the bridal party and sang, "Bless Be the Tie That Binds." F. E. N. Thatcher, acting postmaster, presented a gift in behalf of the postal employees, and another presentation was made by the Rural Mail Carriers Association. The Rev. Mr. Bashore presented a gift from the church.

After a social hour, refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with yellow daffodils, yellow chrysanthemums, gold foliage and lighted candles in golden holders.

Mrs. Floyd Bryan acted as general chairman. She and Mrs. Kenneth Davison made two decorated bridal cakes, topped with miniature brides and grooms. Mrs. Leon VanValkenburg served the cake and was assisted by members of the Good Cheer Class. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ashley and two children of Adrian were present and their daughter was at the guest book.

Rotary Club Hears More About Local School Needs

James McDowell, superintendent of schools, continued his discussion of Tecumseh's school problems, in another talk before members of the Rotary club, Tuesday evening, following dinner at the Country Club. Mr. McDowell launched his talk a week ago, but was forced to cut it short, due to a lack of time.

Tuesday, McDowell presented in detail the many problems of housing that face Tecumseh School Districts Nos. 7 and 5, and pointed out that steps must be taken at once, if these districts are to house and educate their youngsters. Unless some additional school facilities are made available by next September, he said that two or three classes of elementary children must meet in the library or in churches.

The Tecumseh board is now considering the addition of five rooms to the new high school, and the building of a seven-room grade school on North Union street, and later another elementary building on South Adrian street. District No. 5 will vote next month on a proposal to become annexed to District 7.

Board Studies

and estimates ready for the board's study within six weeks. As soon as a definite program can be formulated, it is expected that some proposal, probably with a bonding issue, will be submitted to electors.

Tecumseh's new high school, although only two years old, already is outgrown. Approximately five more rooms, plus a gymnasium, are needed there to care for the education of the children, already in the elementary grades. The board also anticipates a sharp upturn in elementary enrolment, and the need for a new seven-room school, located on property recently acquired on North Union street, seems imperative. This school should go under construction within the next year, it is said.

The board also contemplates the eventual building of another school in the vicinity of Tecumseh Acres on South Adrian street. This building would serve elementary children from the southwest area of the district, as well as those in District No. 5, which district is now planning to join District 7.

Due to the anticipated increase in enrollment next year in the elementary school, Mr. McDowell already has indicated that one or more classes may be forced to meet at the library or in a church during the school year of 1952-53.

and 7:30 o'clock as a signal. Already twelve mothers of polio victims and close friends have agreed to help with the porch light parade.

It is hoped that Tecumseh will be most generous in its giving as two of the four cases in Lenawee county last year were Tecumseh residents. The county Polio chapter pays all of the patients' expenses from the time the case is diagnosed as polio until no further treatment is necessary.

Mr. Ahleman has appointed Mrs. T. Rentschler and Mrs. Harold Reynolds, both of whom are past presidents of the Lenawee County Federation of Women's Clubs, as co-chairmen of the women's activities in the county. They will work through their respective organizations.

Mrs. Virgil Tucker was hostess to the Child Study Club, Monday evening, with 21 members and guests in attendance. Mrs. M. R. Blanden presided at the business meeting. Night School high school on Monday evenings beginning at 7:30 with the exception of the gym classes which will be held on Tuesday evenings in the Central schools. These classes will be one and a half hours long, starting at 7 and 8:30.

If there is a demand for courses not already included in the program, and if there is sufficient interest and a suitable instructor can be obtained, they will be offered, the school announced. Students interested in certain courses are urged to try to interest as many of their friends as they can because a class of 10 is considered a minimum.

The agricultural department of the school is offering a class which consists of a young farmer group, made up of people interested in becoming established in full or part-time farming. This class meets Thursday evenings from 8 tc 9:30, for 15 weeks through the winter and continues through the rest of the year by visits from the teacher for "on the farm" instruction.

Folk interested in any of the adult education classes may obtain more information by calling Ben Standen at Tecumseh phone 542R.

School District

School District No. 5 does not operate a school of its own at the present time. Instead, all of the children of the district, 99 of them this year, are being sent to the Tecumseh No. 7 school on a tuition-paying basis. Next year, there will be 25 more students from District 5 to come to the local school. This heavy growth is now taxing the physical facilities of District No. 7, and plans for expansion are being made.

It was explained that if the electors of District No. 5 approve the annexation, then the board of the district must petition he board of Disrict No. 7, asking that the districts be joined. The District No 7 board has the authority, without submitting the plan to the voters to say yes or no. It is understood that the local board has informally approved of the merger.

The Michigan Department of Public Instruction has approved both the election and the merger.

Tecumseh Keeps

Duvall, however, felt sure enough of victory to use his second string team a part of the time.

It was an entirely different story, last Friday night, when the Indians met Addison on the local court. That game was a battle in every quarter, but Tecumseh came through on the long end of a 45 to 47 score. Many times during the contest the Indians were threatened by the visitors, but they managed to retain the lead at the final whistle.

Next week Friday, the Indians travel to Clinton for a game and on Friday, February 1, they meet Hudson on the local court.

Miss Mary Jane Dermyer Bride of Jack R. Gibson

The First Presbyterian church here was the scene of a lovely candlelight wedding, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, when Miss Mary Jane Dermyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron P. Dermyer of Tecumseh, became the bride of Jack R. Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gibson of Clinton. The Rev. Vaughn Whited of the Clinton Methodist church, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with hampers of white gladoli, chrysanthemums and palms.

Richard Weger of Clinton played the traditional wedding music and accompanied the Misses Marlys and Evelyn Arnold as they sang, "With This Ring I Thee Wed," and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly lace over nylon tulle, the peplum falling into a long train. The illusion neckline was outlined with lace applique and brilliants. She carried a white Bible, and a white orchid and stephanotis tied with a shower of white ribbon.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Ted Sisson and bridesmaids were the Misses Jolene Barron, Eris Bailey and Beverly McLaury. The attendants wore ballerina length gowns fashioned with lace and nylon tulle, trimmed in lace applique and brilliants. The matron of honor wore emerald green and the other attendants wore mint green. Barbara Jane Herman of Clinton was flower girl and wore a coral lace satin colonial dress. She carried a dainty colonial corsage in coral and white backed by pale green. The attendants wore muffs of matching lace with a nylon ruffle, faced with a cresant arrangement of sweetheart roses tied with silver ribbons.

James Moore assisted Mr. Gibson as best man. The ushers were Daniel Dermyer, Ted Sisson and Bill LaComp.

Mrs. Dermyer chose a forest green crepe dress with black accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Gibson, a rose irridescent taffeta gown enhanced with black accessories. Both mothers wore orchids.

A reception was held in the Fellowship Center of the church for 225 guests immediately following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson, Gus Smith and Mrs. John Hoelzer were host and hostesses. The Golden Rule Division was in charge of the reception. The Misses Pauline Bagshaw and Shirley Teske served the traditional bridal cake which centered the table. Miss Shirley Smith was at the guest book and Mrs. Fay Whelan and Mrs. Gus Smith poured. The gifts were in charge of Janet Hoelzer, Margaret and Beverly Champanois.

For traveling, Mrs. Gibson changed to an aqua knit suit with brown accessories, and wore the orchid from her corsage. She is a graduate of Tecumseh high school and is employed in the offices of Philco. Mr. Gibson is a graduate of Clinton high school and is employed in the office of the Clinton Machine Company. After a trip through the south, the couple will reside in Clinton.

profits tax. He also said that federal excise taxes, which are not included in the company's service rates, must be collected on any additional charges made for services rendered.

Mr. Greene said the company serves more telephones today than ever before and pointed out that with the greater number of telephones that can be called, the service becomes more valuable.

"While these telephones have brought added revenue," he said, "it has not kept pace with the increase in invested capital for plant improvement and expansion purposes which has jumped 140% in the past five years. The earnings on the investment of the company have been so reduced by the factors mentioned, and by other items including increased costs of materials and supplies, that the company has no alternative but to reprice its services."

Mr. Greene remarked that the return on invested capital had declined to the point where at present charges for service, 4.12% was the expected 1952 return. He continued that this return is far below that required to meet the company's obligations to persons who have invested their money in facilities the company now operates.

"With a budget of $3,400,000 for expansion and improvement in 1952," he said, "adequate earnings are essential to assure the company's securing from outside sources the money needed to carry out this program."

Dist. 5 Voters Meet, Thursday

PLAN FOR ANNEXATION TO DISTRICT NO. 7 AND COMING ELECTION EXPLAINED

Voters of School District No. 5, which district is proposing annexation to School District No. 7, (District 7 includes the Village of Tecumseh), will hold a mass meeting on Thursday, January 31, in the new high school, starting at 8 p.m., to discuss the issues. The meeting has been called by the school board of District 5, according to Faye VanValkenburg, a member of the board.

The election, at which time the voters will decide on the annexation proposal, will be held on Tuesday, February 5, at the Tecumseh Farm Equipment Company's offices, Occidental and Chicago Roads. The hours of voting will be from 1 to 6 p.m. Any person eligible to vote in a regular school election may cast a ballot in the special election.

It was reported today that there is some confusion in District No. 5, electors there believing that should the district vote to annex to District No. 7 it would make the area a part of the Village of Tecumseh. Such is not the case. School districts and village limits are two separate and distinct areas, and have nothing to do with one another. It was pointed out that District No. 7, the Tecumseh district, lies partly outside and partly inside the Village of Tecumseh.

If a majority of the voters of District No. 5 approve the proposed annexation to District 7, then the board of District 5 petitions the board of District 7

Disposal Plant Waits U.S. O'K

COUNCIL IS READY TO AWARD FIRST TWO CONTRACTS FOR CONSTRUCTION

The Council of the Village of Tecumseh is willing to keep its promise to the Stream Control Commission of Michigan and build a new sewage disposal plant here but — first the federal government must approve.

The Washington government comes into the picture because critical materials are involved, and there is no need to proceed with the building of the plant unless these materials are available. To be made available, Washington must give the village priority to purchase them. This priority has been requested, but it is not yet been received.

And so, until the government's approval is forthcoming, Tecumseh continues to mark time and to reinvest $285,000 in cash which it received a few weeks ago from the sale of bonds, authorized by voters in October to build the new plant. The interest rate on the investment, council members said, is paying the interest on the

Smoke Enters Guilty Plea

ADMITS MURDER OF HIS WIFE IN SURPRISE MOVE IN CIRCUIT COURT, TUESDAY

Elton Smoke, 45-year-old Wolf Lake resident and Tecumseh factory worker, who was to have gone on trial Tuesday morning in the circuit court at Adrian for the murder of his estranged wife, Frances, 45, last August 28, admitted his guilt to Judge G. Arthur Rathbun as the court prepared to select a jury to hear his case. Through his counsel, Bourns & Bird, Smoke withdrew his former not guilty plea, and the jury was dismissed. The court then proceeded to hear testimony to determine the degree of the crime. Such procedure is mandatory under Michigan law when a defendant pleads guilty to a homicide charge.

Two charges of murder had been lodged against Smoke. The first one, and the one on which he was about to stand trial, charged that he shot Mrs. Smoke in the home of her niece, Mrs. Gerald Roberts, W. Pottawatamie street,

Polio Campaign Under Way Here

PORCH LIGHT DRIVE, BENEFIT DANCE AND OTHER FEATURES ARE INCLUDED

A porch light parade, a polio dance, and the usual solicitation of funds in business and industrial areas will highlight Tecumseh's March of Dimes and Dollars program here this year, Mrs. George Quick, general chairman of the campaign locally, has announced.

The machinery for the soliciting of funds here is now practically set up and Mrs. Quick, in a statement today, said that she was pleased with the cooperation she is receiving. Organizations and individuals alike, she said, are assisting in the drive which, it was pointed out, is "applied Christianity and not charity."

Providing funds is the community's way of spreading a mantle of care, according to Robert Reece, state director for the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis. Families of polio victims are stepping forward and offering their services in the campaign, nationwide. The Lenawee Chapter is paying for the care of 15 polio cases, four of which developed during 1951. Of the four cases, two were in Tecumseh.

Mrs. Frank Daehne, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, are co-chairmen of the Mothers' March of Dimes and Dollars program locally on Thursday evening, January 31, between the Night School Needs Students

REGISTRATION IN ALL DEPARTMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED NEXT MONDAY EVE

The Adult Night School, sponsored by the Board of Education of Tecumseh, was organized on Monday evening of this week and while enrollment was smaller than a year ago, there is considerable interest in the project, it was announced. Some classes are still three or four members short of the organizational minimum and, for that reason, officials are urging that further registrations be made.

Persons interested in the school and who, for one reason or another, failed to register on Monday, should do so next Monday evening, January 28, at the high school. That will be the last date for registration, it was explained.

The classes in need of further enrollment are: shorthand, meeting between the hours of 6:30 and 7:30; typing, meeting from 7:30 to 8:30; bookkeeping, meeting from 8:30 to 10; chorus, meeting from 8:30 to 10; women's gym, meeting from 7 to 8:30. Two or three more members are needed in each of these classes to assure their continuance. Persons already enrolled are urged to attempt to interest others in the work to assure continuance.

The class in general shop and upholstering, meeting from 7 to 8:30 has more than the minimum number enrolled but new members are welcome.

All night school classes meet on Monday evenings at the new high school except the women's gym class, which meets on Tuesday evenings at the Central School gymnasium.

Downtown Alley Closed To Trucks

TRUCK TRAFFIC INTO ALLEY WEST OF HERALD OFFICE FORBIDDEN BY COUNCIL

The village council, in session Monday evening, voted to close the alley west of The Herald offices and east of the Strand Theatre, to truck traffic. The order becomes effective immediately.

Council's action was taken because of the danger of trucks entering the alley from the street. Last week, a heavy semi-truck and trailer damaged an ornamental lamp post near the alley, endangering the lives of five small children on the sidewalk. A fire hydrant near the alley intersection has been struck several times, and a few months ago a lamp post there was wrecked.

Traffic out of the alley onto Chicago boulevard has been forbidden by previous council order. Now, the alley may be used for in-traffic only by cars and pedestrians.

Purchase of 50 parking meter mechanisms and heads for use in local standards were authorized at a cost not exceeding $2,500. A 90-day trailer permit was issued to Oscar Meads at 603 S. Pearl street. Standard Oil company was authorized to replace two storage tanks at its bulk station on W. Patterson street. Ira Ashley and A. W. Porter were named as members of the board of review.

The village clerk was authorized to obtain bids on a new car for police. Purchase of a chip spreader for the street department, at a cost of $1,057.35, was approved.

Current bills were audited and ordered paid in the amount of $5,011.46, and reports of the several committee and department heads were read and placed on file.

Britton Votes Water System

ELECTORS FAVOR BUILDING OF PLANT AT COST OF $88,000; USERS TO PAY BILL

Electors in the Village of Britton, last Saturday voted by nearly a four-to-one majority in favor of the construction of a municipal waterworks system at a cost estimated at $88,000. A total of 182 votes were registered and of that number 143 favored the plan and 38 opposed it.

The plan to build a municipal water system in the village has been under council consideration for some time. Finally, the council decided to submit the proposal to the voters after engineers had estimated the cost of the project at approximately $88,000. This would include the building of a 75,000 water storage tank, the cost of laying the necessary mains and the purchase of pumps. The estimated cost to users would be $3 monthly, it is believed.

Last week's vote was taken by the council as more or less of a trial "balloon" to see how sentiment in the village was crystalizing. Plans for the project already have been drafted, and approval has been given by the state department of health. Later, the council may submit a revenue bond issue for the building of a plant.

BLOODMOBILE FINDS THERE'S NO DONOR SHORTAGE IN THIS COMMUNITY

Tecumseh Residents Swell Blood Bank By 108 Pints, Monday

Lenawee County's Red Cross Blood Bank received 108 pints of blood Monday from Tecumseh area residents.

Collected by the State Department of Health and the American Red Cross, the blood will be used in county hospitals, including Herrick Memorial Hospital, and for servicemen in Korea as needed by the armed forces.

Tecumseh's contribution, the largest obtained here since World War II, represents an accumulation of 235 hours of volunteer work by 38 people.

Underwood-Orr Post of the American Legion gave all-out help to the blood bank drive. They donated use of their hall as a collecting station. The Legion Auxiliary provided food and staffed a canteen to serve sandwiches, orange juice and coffee to donors. A committee of eleven women was headed by Mrs. Otto Baaske. In addition, 18 Legion members credited blood donations to the organization.

Mrs. Vincent Haight and Mrs. L. W. Larsen, members of the county Red Cross board, were general co-chairmen. They were assisted by a committee from the Presbyterian Men's Club made up of Ogland Lay, James Gabler, Robert Ries and Harold Clark.

Six registered nurses, nine nurses aides and six registrars also donated their work.

The state health department's mobile unit, which is touring Lenawee county this week, was made up of a physician, four nurses and an orderly.

Thanks are due, according to Mrs. Larsen and Mrs. Haight, not only to the 108 people who gave their blood. There were 48 others processed during the day who, by careful screening, had to be turned away. In addition, approximately 75 others volunteered but could not be given appointments because of lack of time.

Tentative plans are for the mobile unit to return to Tecumseh in May. The co-chairmen expressed hope that those who could not be scheduled on Monday will volunteer for the next collection.

Tresco, Inc., took top honors among the local business organization and clubs that helped enlist donors. One hundred per cent of their employees, who were physically able, signed donor cards.

Other cooperating organizations were the Child Study Club, Odd Fellows, Tecumseh Public Schools, Tecumseh Products Co., Ottawa Machine Products, Masonic Lodge, Bruce Foundry Co., Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, Conservation League, V.F.W., Eastern Star, Presbyterian Men's Club, Exchange and Rotary Clubs.

Indians Wait Clinton Scalp

TECUMSEH CAGERS CONFIDENT OF FRIDAY VICTORY; HAVE WON 8 IN ROW

With eight victories tucked under their belts, the Tecumseh high school cagers are looking forward confidently to victory when they travel to Clinton tomorrw night to play their ninth game in the L. C. A. A., schedule.

"Clinton should give up very little trouble," one of the Indian fans said today. "Of course, our team can't be too confident, that is dangerous. But, by all of the laws of average, we should win."

The Indians clipped off another scalp last Friday night by defeating Morenci on the local court by a score of 38 to 43. It was a rather close contest, there were many fouls, but despite an apparent handicap, Coach Duvall's men came through to victory.

The next home game of the season will be played on Friday evening, February 1, at 8 o'clock on the local court. Hudson will be the opponent. The Indians have previously defeated this team, and anticipate little trouble in handling them in a second contest.

Today, the Indians are the undisputed champions in the LCAA They have won every game thus far in the season.

Rotary Hears Of City Gov't

CITY MANAGER AND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OFFICER SPEAK AT DINNER MEETING

The advantages of an alert Chamber of Commerce and a community operated under city form of government were discussed by two speakers at the regular dinner meeting of the Rotary Club, Tuesday evening, at the Country Club. The program was provided by the Rev. B. O. Bashore and the speakers were Jim Cohoon of Flint and Royce Downey of Fenton.

A community gets no more out of a Chamber of Commerce than it puts into it, Mr. Cohoon told his listeners. He is a member of the board of the Junior Chamber of Flint, and recently was named Michigan's outstanding young man in Junior Chamber work. He told of the advantages of such an organization from the standpoint of industry and business, but he warned that cooperation of the membership is necessary to assure success. "George" cannot do it all, he said, and while the community wagon may be hitched to a star, there needs to be those who will push as well as ride, if the goal is to be attained.

Mr. Downey, city manager at Fenton, discussed the advantages of changing local government from village to city form. He pointed out that Tecumseh is now operating under a state-granted charter, first approved in 1859 and last amended in 1896. Times have changed in the last 56 years, he said, and it is now difficult and clumsy to function efficiently under laws more than half a century old.

"Business men know," Downey said, "that they can't operate their businesses today as they did 50 years ago, and that also is true of government."

TWO FIRE ALARMS

The Tecumseh fire department answered two calls, Monday. At 2 p.m., an alarm came from the Bruce Foundry & Manufacturing Co., South Evans street, where sparks from a chimney endangered the roof. Damage was minor. At 8:15 p.m., firemen went to the Ralph Wilson home, southeast of Tipton. There sparks from a chimney endangered the house. The fire was quickly extinguished and the loss was negligible.

NEW SEMESTER BEGINS

Except for the calendar, it is business as usual in the Tecumseh public schools. But the calendar, on Monday, said that the first semester of the school year was over, and the second semester was under way. Students and teachers, however, will not get a break in the schedule until April, when spring vacation begins.

Here Is A Way To Reduce Taxes

As the March 15 deadline for the payment of federal income taxes nears, the principal topic of conversation seems to be taxes, spelled with a capital T. And while everybody is talking about taxes, like the weather, nobody seems to be doing anything to control them. Each year taxes increase, and each year the taxpayers wonder when the ceiling will be reached.

At various times, proposals have been made for placing reasonable limits on the amount of taxes that can be levied on the American people by the federal government. A plan that merits consideration was introduced last September by Congressman Chauncey W. Reed of Illinois, ranking minority member of the House Judiciary Committee. It takes the form of a "Joint Resolution Proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the United States Relative to Taxes on Incomes, Inheritances and Gifts." To become law, it must be approved by a two-thirds vote of both Houses, and then ratified by three-fourths of the states.

The heart of Mr. Reed's proposal is to fix the maximum total rate of all taxes, duties and excises on income at 25 per cent. There are but two exceptions, both of which are obviously necessary in these discordant times. First, by a three-fourths majority, Congress may raise the maximum rate to 40 per cent for periods, either successive or otherwise, not exceeding one year each. Second, in the event of a war which creates a national emergency so grave as to necessitate such action to avoid national disaster, Congress could entirely suspend the limitation on taxes, also by a three-fourths vote. All of this would apply to business as well as individuals.

Mr. Reed's amendment would also deprive Congress of the power to impose death and gift taxes, leaving this means to taxation exclusively to the states, where competition would tend to keep the rates within reasonable bounds.

The only way to cut the cost of government is to take some of the money away from the bureaucrats and department heads and all the rest of the power-hungry politicians. Business and professional men of Tecumseh who attended a joint meeting of the Rotary and Exchange Clubs here a few weeks ago, heard Cong. Paul Shafer of Battle Creek make a similar statement. He urged that a ceiling be placed on taxation, declaring that unless this is done there is a definite threat to America's economy.

This ceiling can be established only when the basic law of the land makes taxation beyond a certain level impossible. Mr. Reed's carefully conceived proposal would achieve this, and at the same time take care of a real emergency. It is difficult to see how anyone who honestly favors efficient, economical government could logically oppose it.

Whether Mr. Reed's percentage figures are correct is something that the experts need to study. Certainly they are high enough, maybe they are too high. However, this much is true, excessive taxation can destroy a nation from within. We are at the danger point now. Joe Stalin is as well informed on this fact as we are. We think that the Reed amendment, or something similar to it, is an excellent solution to one of our gravest domestic problems.

Our Congratulations, Mr. Michener

Last Thursday evening at the Eagles' Club in Adrian, some 350 men and women from Lenawee County and a few guests from outside assembled at a dinner-program to honor retired Congressman Earl C. Michener, who for thirty years represented the Second Congressional District in the national Congress. Mr. Michener was and is a Republican, but do not let it be said that all of the folk who attended the congratulatory dinner were Republicans. There were Democrats there, too.

Mr. Michener may be a Republican, and of course he was elected and reelected as such, but never let it be said that he did not represent ALL of the folk of his district, Republicans and Democrats alike. And in the 30 years that he served his District as its Representative in Congress, voters of both parties supported him, admired him, and would have been happy to have continued their support had he chosen to continue in office.

Mr. Michener won many honors in the more than a quarter of a century that he spent in Congress. He was chairman of the Judiciary Committee, one of the most powerful groups in Washington. He was the trusted confident of many Presidents.

But greater than any honors that he won in Washington is the respect in which his district holds him in his retirement. He served long, honestly and well. Could more be said about any man?

Michigan Is Lax In Registration of Births

One out of every hundred of today's babies born in Michigan does not have a birth certificate, according to Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner.

This fact was brought to light by a survey of Michigan birth registrations, completed this month, as part of a nationwide survey—second of its kind in history—conducted by the United States Public Health Service and State health departments in cooperation with the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce.

Twenty-six states and the Territory of Hawaii had better records than Michigan, Dr. Heustis said.

The Michigan Department of Health is now studying the results on a county-by-county basis to find out why birth certificates were not filed and to take positive action to see that all births are registered. "Nothing less than 100 per cent registration is satisfactory," he declared.

In Michigan, 35,107 birth certificates were matched with Census records of babies born during the first three months of 1950. When the first survey was made in 1940, it was found that 97.8 per cent of newborn babies in the state were registered, as compared with 98.7 per cent in 1950.

Dr. Heustis pointed out there is hardly a situation in life—social, legal or economic—in which evidence furnished by an accurate registration of births may prove to be of great value, not only to the individual but also to the public at large.

BRITTON

Plans for the polio drive were formulated at the recent meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt. A big community benefit party will be held Jan. 29 in the school gymnasium. The chairmen appointed were: Mrs. Ed Rodgers, rural; Mrs. Earl Pennington, Ridgeway; Mrs. Leland Bush, Macon township; Alexander Nelson, school; Mrs. Fred Bryan, Britton village, and William Kuster, business section.

Last Tuesday the Britton Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Effie Gibson. A cooperative luncheon was served at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Mable Moore, president, presided at the business session. Twenty-two members answered roll call and two guests were present. Mrs. Mildred Wiggins was chosen the Club Woman of the Year. The program "Highlights of Our Club" was presented by Mrs. Doris Forsyth as chairman and assisting were Mrs. Jennie Theeke, Mrs. Flora Exelby and Mrs. Edith Ferman. Mrs. Lisle Pickford of Adrian, the county federation president was a guest.

The regular P.T.A. meeting was held Monday evening in the school gymnasium. After a short business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Harold Prielipp, the program proceeded with the Blue Bird and Camp Fire Girls and Boy Scouts entertaining the group.

Siena Students Prepare Meal Planning Booklet

As a practical experiment in nutrition, the meal planning class of Siena Heights College is compiling a booklet to assist the experienced homemaker in preparing nutritional meals for her family.

This booklet, Moderate Cost Menus, is carefully organized with present day food prices in mind. Food values and individual needs as well as cost, appearance, availability, and satiety are emphasized so that the inexperienced and aspiring homemaker may learn more about adequacy and balance.

Special family meals and children's menus are featured each month. Holidays are given careful and special consideration.

Because of the many requests for salad recipes, A Salad a Day is being reedited and once more 250 salad favorites and more than 50 salad dressings are ready to be tried and tasted.

In offering these booklets, the young student dieticians have kept in mind not only the salad's contribution to the meal in improving its flavor and appearance, but its supply of valuable minerals and vitamines — its place in the middle of the teeter-totter balancing the day's menu.

Constance Adent, sociology senior, is acting as chairman of the distributing committee.

SURE IS TRUE FOR '52
WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK
WILL BUILD THEM

"We did it Again!"

That's the jubilant news that comes from Flint to every Buick dealer—and here we pass the thrilling story on to you. It sure is true for '52 that better automobiles are being built—and Buick is building them. Read the good word and you'll agree.

LET'S pare this down to plain statements of fact and let them speak for themselves:

The dynamic darling pictured here is the 1952 ROADMASTER.

It has the mightiest engine in Buick history.

It has the biggest brakes of any postwar Buick.

It is the quietest car that Buick ever built.

It has the richest fabrics and smartest tailoring that ever graced a Buick's interior.

It has the greatest trunk space since spare tires moved off the front fenders.

It has the most superb ride in Buick history.

It has the finest carburetor that Buick research has ever devised.

And with all its new power, it delivers more miles per gallon.

But that is not all.

For those who wish it, there is a brand-new version of power steering that works like a helping hand—gives you the same sure feel of control you have always known in straight-away driving—yet takes less than one-fifth the effort needed to turn the ordinary wheel standing at curbside.

Sure, we're putting our best foot forward when we talk about ROADMASTER.

But you'll find a host of notable features in SUPERS and SPECIALS too—plenty to make them, as always, the standout buys in their fields—for ride, for comfort, for style, for room, and for power.

Come in—look this triumphant trio over—and you'll know why every Buick dealer from coast to coast is going around with a smile on his face.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Dist. 5 Voters

to become annexed. If the board of District 7 formally approves, the annexation can be immediately accomplished. It is understood that the board of District 7, unofficially, has approved the annexation, as has the State Department of Public Instruction and the county superintendent of schools. Milton Porter, county superintendent, will attend the voters mass meeting here, next Thursday evening.

Mr. VanValkenburg, discussing the annexation proposal, said that the board of District 5 favors the plan. He also said that he did not believe that the proposal would meet serious objection in the approaching election.

At the present time, School District No. 5, which includes the Tecumseh Acres area and runs west to Billington's Corners, does not operate its own schools. Instead, all of the children of the district are being sent to the Tecumseh public schools, (District 7), on a tuition-paying basis. This year, 99 pupils from District 5 are attending school here, and next year, the census figures show, there will be an additional 25 children. The heavy growth of the District 5 area is taxing the capacity of the physical facilities of District 7 and the boards of education in both district now desire to know what the future holds. The board of District 7 already is planning to expand the elementary school facilities by building one or two grade schools, and a five room addition to the new high school.

As soon as the board of District 7 knows what steps the electors of District 5 desire to take as to the future education of their children, the local board will be better able to formulate plans for the future. Tentative plans locally call for the building of a seven-room elementary school on recently acquired property on No. Union street, and another similar school on South Adrian street, on property to be acquired. Both of these buildings would be in addition to the high school expansion.

Architects and engineers are now studying the expansion program and will submit estimates and plans to the board of District 7 within the next six weeks.

hours of 6:30 and 7:30. These women are organizing the town into blocks with chairmen and workers out of their membership. They will call at homes during the "porch light parade" and collect contributions. Persons who have not previously given to the campaign, and who desire to do so, should "turn on their porch lights" during the "parade" one week from tonight.

As soon as one cannister has been filled with dimes and dollars, it is replaced with another. The Rotary and Exchange Clubs are formulating plans for a community dance, proceeds to go to the polio fund. Fraternal and women's organizations are making contributions from their treasuries or are planning benefits such as card parties, bake sales, paper and scrap drives or box socials.

Donor checks should be made payable to "March of Dimes" and may be left with Mrs. Quick at Wright's Drug Store. The books of the Lenawee Chapter are open for public inspection at any time at the offices in Adrian, it was announced. Paul Ahleman is chairman of the Lenawee chapter.

here, last fall. The second count charges that he also turned the gun on Mrs. Roberts, fatally injuring her. Mrs. Roberts died before her arrival at Herrick hospital. Mrs. Smoke died September 13 in Univesity hospital, Ann Arbor. Smoke also turned the gun on himself, but he recovered quickly after hospitalization. He had since been held at the county jail in default of $45,000 bail.

Rex Martin, prosecuting attorney, contends that Smoke is guilty of premediated murder. He said the people would show that Smoke went to the home of his wife's niece with the intent to kill her. He gained admittance to the house without knocking, first shot his wife, then turned the gun on Mrs. Roberts and then on himself.

Witnesses called Tuesday included Norbert O'Hara, 21, a neighbor of the Roberts, and the first one to arrive at the Roberts' home after the shooting. Other witnesses were to be called.

Smoke still faces the charge of murder in connection with the death of Mrs. Roberts, and his trial in this case is scheduled for next week.

History of Man's Eating Implements Is Outlined by Wayne U. Professor

Arranging a modern place-setting in the Wayne University Home Economics laboratory is Polly Ann Coates of Grand Rapids, a student. The smaller picture shows a sketch made in the 11th century of an early fork, the two prongs of which correspond with man's thumb and forefinger.

Hands served as the principal eating tools from the Stone Age to the 11th century. Then began the refinements that today are summarized in our table-etiquette books.

Dr. George Lechler, assistant professor of history at Wayne University and author of many archaeological studies, has traced the evolution of the knife, fork, and spoon. These implements are modeled for the most part after man's own hands, the most practical eating tools known, even though today they are not always considered the most "polite".

Both spoon and knife were known to man almost from the moment he began to use tools. The knife in those days was, of course, nothing more than a flint flake, and was devised as a thrusting and cutting instrument in imitation of the human fingernail. The spoon was a crude scoop with a stumpy handle, made in one piece from wood or clay to resemble a cupped human hand.

The idea for this early spoon probably came to man's mind when he scooped up water when drinking from streams. Archaeologists have discovered spoons estimated to be about 10,000 years old.

The fork is a comparative newcomer to the field. The first fork of which a record exists in Europe was used in Italy in 1023 A.D. It had only two prongs, probably being modeled with the idea that refined persons ate with only two digits, the forefinger and the thumb. The notion was just beginning to take root, in the 11th century, that separating the hands from food in eating was a sign of gentility. Later forks were made with five prongs, as are many today, to represent the entire human hand.

Dr. Lechler estimates 1600 A.D. as the time when the average European family began to use knives, forks, and spoons regularly.

Folk Over 50 Enjoy Luncheon And Program

The Temple Dependable Class members were hostesses again last Thursday when more than fifty men and women from Tecumseh, Ridgeway, and Britton, attended a potluck luncheon at the Tecumseh Methodist church, held for people who are fifty years of age and older. The centerpieces for the tables were reminiscent of other days—such as a china craker jar, a china spoon tray, and a coffee mill. Much of the food was served in fine old-fashioned china and glassware.

Following the luncheon the Rev. Ronald Brunger directed the assembly singing of songs found in the "Knapsacks." A guessing contest of pictures of the members taken in childhood was conducted by Miss Lillian Cannon with prizes awarded to Mrs. H. H. Loveland and Mrs. Bert Gray. Miss Anne Carson told the old story of "How a City Boy Spent the Summer with Country Relatives" with participation from the assembly. Mrs. T. Rentschler conducted a quiz revealing that several of the group had attended the early World Fairs. Mrs. Bert Kopka gave more of her humorous readings and told how she became interested in that as a hobby. Mrs. George Wittrup exhibited her hobby of figurine painting and Elmer Pocklington distributed samples of his homemade candy which has been a hobby for thirty-five years.

The old fashioned stereoptican and modern viewmaster for the showing of slides were shown for comparison.

The group will meet again on the third Thursday in February with Mrs. Lyman Curtiss and Mrs. Fred Rector as a committee.

bonds, so the village has nothing to worry about, financially.

At a council meeting earlier this month, Council rejected some of the bids of contractors for the construction of the plant. The bids were anywhere from $50,000 to $150,000 higher than the engineers' estimates. Council now plans to have the work done locally, without a general contractor, and to sublet contracts for work that it cannot do with village equipment and manpower.

The bids of two contractors who would participate with the village in the locally-operated program are now ready to be signed—awaiting the government's approval for priority. These bids total about $40,000.

It is estimated that the disposal plant and the necessary interceptor sewers can be built in a year or less, once the project has been started.

OUR POINT IS
If You Want A BUSINESS
Instead Of A JOB
JOIN THE UNITED TEAM !

The UNITED FARM AGENCY, one of America's leading farm-selling organizations for more than a quarter-century, wants to engage in some straight-from-the-shoulder talk about YOUR FUTURE.

UNITED is interested in appointing an exclusive representative in your territory. YOU may be the man we want.

The more than 225 UINTED men operating in their home communities throughout the midwest and west are prosperous, hard-working community leaders — happy with the good business which UNITED has helped them build. Many earn in excess of $10,000 yearly. A UNITED FARM AGENCY appointment affords YOU that same opportunity. There is no limit to your earnings.

UNITED does not want any "hot shots." We do not care what your educational background is. You don't need real estate experience. If you are honest, straightforward, unafraid of work, and sincerely interested in creating a pleasant and profitable business of your own, then we are interested in talking with you. If we prove acceptable to one another, then UNITED will teach you how to list, show and sell farms, will back you with 27 years of good will, the nation's largest program of farm and country real estate advertising, the famous UNITED catalog which last year was distributed free to a quarter of a million interested buyers, and with direct field supervision under qualified, experienced District Managers.
To qualify, you need only:

- Live on or near a main highway
- Enjoy the respect and confidence of your community
- Own and drive an automobile
- Devote full time to the work

We say again, if you want a BUSINESS instead of a Job, write today for full details. There is no obligation. Your inquiry will be held in strict confidence.

Shortage Of Houses Delay Defense Pickup

Washington—Housing shortages in dozens of America's biggest cities have interrupted the mass migration of workers from farms to defense factories that started with the Korean war 17 months ago.

Government statistics indicated today that thousands of men and women are pulling up stakes in the big war production centers and heading home because they can't find adequate housing for themselves and their families.

Many more farm and small town dwellers are staying home for the same reason. The lure of big defense wages isn't big enough to overcome their fear of having to swap established homes for trailer camps, shacks and other temporary housing in over-crowded industrial centers.

The job of housing new workers needed in the $100,000,000,000 rearmament program, however, is not nearly so difficult right now as in World War II, when an army of migratory families, largely from the rural South and Southwest, hit the roads northward to the old-line industrial cities and west to California.

It has been estimated roughly that 40,000,000 people changed jobs during the war years and that perhaps half of them changed homes in the process. The population of California, which built up a massive aircraft industry during the last war, jumped more than 53 per cent from 6,907,000 in 1940 to more than 10,580,000 in the 1950 census.

With a few outstanding exceptions, California cities have been getting by thus far in the mobilization program with native help.

Presbyterian Women Plan Redecoration of Manse

The Presbyterian Woman's Association met in the Fellowship Center last week with Mrs. Frank Smith presiding. Annual reports were given and Mrs. Albert Bagshaw was installed as corresponding secretary replacing Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, resigned. Mrs. Dickinson was presented with a gift by Mrs. Smith. Mrs. C. Ray Puffer was chairman of the program on "Resolutions," in which eight members participated, each giving her resolution in keeping with the life she follows: Mrs. M. R. Blanden, as mother and homemaker; Mrs. Ray Sluyter, businesswoman; Mrs. Mervyn Boltz, teacher; Mrs. Albert Williams, Sunday school teacher; Mrs. Richard Moiles, one who lives alone; Mrs. Hilda Will, nurse; Miss Edith Ingersoll, club woman; Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, jr., as woman trustee of the church.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Ed Got Red In His Own "Hot Water"

Big Ed started a "Pay-Your-Bill" campaign last week and ended up with a slightly red face. Ed's been our Water Commissioner for ten years, and for ten years now he's been getting riled up over slow payments of bills.

So, he finally decided to do something drastic about it. Last week he sent notices that if the slackers didn't pay up by Friday, he'd shut off their water.

Naturally, some still didn't square accounts. Ed ordered their water turned off, and 14 homes went without all week end—the Commissioner's among them. Seems Ed forgot to pay his bill.

From where I sit, Ed's mistake is one we all make at times. We are too quick to accuse others while forgetting our own faults. Lots of us do it, for instance, over a difference in taste for a soft drink or a friendly glass of beer. Let's respect each other's preferences and we'll all stay out of "hot water."

523 New Houses Have Been Built Here Since 1940

SURVEY REVEALS THAT NEW CONSTRUCTION IN 11 YEARS IS OVER $5,000,000

Conservatively, Tecumseh has built more than $5,000,000 worth of new dwellings since 1940.

A survey, conducted this week by Glenn H. Kohler, local realtor, shows that since 1940 and to date, 523 new houses have been built here. While many of the houses cost well above the $15,000 and $20,000 bracket, the most of them have been built at a cost ranging from $8,500 to $12,000. Considering $10,000 as a fair average, the new dwellings represent an overall investment approxiating five and a quarter million dollars.

"In making the survey," Mr. Kohler said, "we did not consider houses that had been remodeled, or houses that have been made into two and three family apartments. All that we counted were new houses."

The survey shows that the most rapid growth in Tecumseh was made in Herrick park where 107 new dwellings have been built. The second largest growth was in Tecumseh Acres with 103 houses. In Indian Acres, 43 new houses were built and the North Union street area accounted for 37 more.

Smoke Awaits His Sentence

LOCAL LABORER, CHARGED WITH MURDER, DETAINED IN DEFAULT OF $45,000 BAIL

Detained in default of $45,000 bail, Elton Smoke, 45-year-old Wolf Lake resident and local factory worker, is being held at the county jail awaiting the sentence of the circuit court, after he had pleaded guilty to slaying his wife, Frances, here, August 28.

Smoke entered the guilty plea last week and, after taking considerable testimony, Judge G. Arthur Rathbun held that Smoke was guilty of murder in the first degree. Michigan law provides that persons guilty of first degree murder shall be punished "by solitary confinement at hard labor in the state prison for life."

New Fords For 1952 To Go On Display, Friday

Featuring Coachcraft bodies and more powerful engines, the new Ford cars for 1952 will go on display at Butler Motor Sales in Tecumseh, Friday morning. Ford this year is making a total of 18 models in three new lines.

Ford's styling identity is preserved in the low-wide lines of the hood and front end of the new cars, centering around a triple-spinner, air-scoop grille arrangement. The new cars have curved one-piece windshields and rear windows, and their body lines sweep backward from extended headlights along the hood and higher fender line of the jet-tube taillight sections.

Both six and V-8 type engines are offered. A choice of three transmissions, center rear fill gasoline fueling, and suspended-type power pivot clutch and brake pedals are among the new features.

"Ford, because its tooling program was far advanced before the Korean crisis developed, has been able to bring out the only completely new car in its field this year," Charles O. Butler said today in making the announcement.

Mr. Butler said that both the new Ford cars and trucks for '52 would arrive here sometime today, and that everything was in readiness at his showrooms for the formal showing of the car, beginning on Friday morning.

The entire proceeds went to the March of Dimes. Also, a profit of $18 was reported from the maintenance dinner. The auxiliary voted to purchase a life membership in the National Home at Eaton Rapids for Mrs. Daehne and to serve the 15-Year-Club dinner, Thursday, February 21. The members also volunteered to assist with the Porch Light Parade for the March of Dimes, Thursday.

Porch Light Parade, Tonight

FIFTY WOMEN PARTICIPATE IN CAMPAIGN TO RAISE FUNDS TO FIGHT POLIO

Everything is in readiness for the Mothers' March on Polio this evening when an army of 50 local women will participate in the "Porch Light Parade," to be conducted between 6:30 and 7:30 o'clock. Anyone wishing to contribute to the March of Dimes during the specified hours is asked to turn on his porch light as a signal for a worker to ring the doorbell. Persons who do not have porch lights are urged to place a lighted candle in a window. Tecumseh's participation in this "Porch Light Parade" is a part of a national campaign for funds.

The public is learning readily that giving to the polio fund is christianity and not charity, Mrs. George Quick, chairman of the campaign here, said today in making the announcement.

Mrs. Frank Daehne, president of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, and Mrs. Charles Osburn, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, are co-chairmen of tonight's event. They have sought workers for all of the streets in Tecumseh, while Mrs. Louis Richards has charge of Tecumseh Acres, and Mrs. John Cameron in Herrick Park. Mrs. Everett Everlove will call at the homes on Burt street and north

Hearing Dates On Phone Rates

COMMISSION SETS FEBRUARY 5 FOR INQUIRY INTO PROPOSED COST INCREASE

Dates for hearings on the Michigan Associated Telephone Company's proposed rate increase have been announced by the state public service commission at Lansing. The company will formally present its case Feb. 5 and all others interested will be given opportunity to speak Feb. 6.

The company filed a petition last week asking for a $1,100,000 annual rate increase. It cited failure of a rate boost granted a year ago to meet the planned return as one reason for the request. Company attorneys also said a new increase was necessary because of increasing operating expenses, construction costs and federal income tax rates.

Affected by the requested increases are the company's exchanges at Tecumseh, Holloway, Blissfield and Riga. The petition asks increases in Blissfield, Tecumseh and Riga of from 70 cents to $1 in month residence bills and from 85 cents to $1.25 in business phone rates. The Holloway increases range from $1.40 to $2.50 for residence service and from $2.75 to $5.40 for business telephones.

Seitz Offers Insanity Plea

DEFENSE FILES NOTICE OF INTENT WITH COURT; TRIAL MAY BEGIN TODAY

Charles Seitz, jr., 28-year-old local plumber who is being held at the county jail, accused of the fatal shooting of his wife, Donna Jean, in their home here, Christmas night, will plead insanity when he goes on trial, possibly today, in Circuit Judge G. Arthur Rathbun's court at Adrian. Notice of the insanity defense, which is required by law, has been filed with the court by Seitz's attorneys, Paul T. Betz and Lawrence J. Hammond.

There was some question in court circles this morning as to whether or not the Seitz case could be called today. A previous trial before the court may not be completed in time to permit it. However, it was said that if there was a delay Seitz would go on trial on Friday.

SCHOOL DIST. 5 DIRECTOR EXPLAINS PROPOSED ANNEXATION PROGRAM

Electors Meet Tonight, Vote Tuesday on Merger With Dist. 7

Faye A. VanValkenburg, a director of School Distrcit No. 5, which district is proposing annexation to Tecumseh School District No. 7, says that he believes such a step to be "a good bargain," in the face of rising tuition costs, decreased state aid money and an increase in pupils in his district.

The annexation issue will come to a vote of the people in District No. 5 at a special election to be held on Tuesday, February 5. Voting will be from 1 to 6 p.m., in the offices of the Tecumseh Farm Equipment Co., Chicago and Occidental Roads. Any person eligible to vote in a school election may vote.

To further explain the issues involved, the board of District No. 5 has called a public mass meeting of interested parties, to be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the new high school building here. Members of the board of District 5 will be present, and questions proposed by those attending the meeting will be answered.

If the plan to annex District No. 5 to District No. 7, (the latter is the Tecumseh school district), wins the voters' approval, then the board of District No. 5 must petition the board of District 7 for such an act. The District 7 board has unofficially agreed to such a plan and, if approval is given formally, that is all that is needed to carry out the merger. The proposal already has been approved by the State Department of Public Instruction and the County Superintendent of Schools.

That voters in the area may have a somewhat clearer picture of the program, Mr. Van Valkenburg has written a communication to The Herald, explaining some of the points at issue. The Herald herewith prints the communication in its entirety:

Next Tuesday, February 5, 1952, the residents of Tecumseh School District No. 5 are to vote on an issue that is of vital interest to all concerned. In short, we must decide whether to annex with the Tecumseh Village schools, or to build a school of our own. There is no middle course. We have been informed by the Tecumseh School Board that the present arrangement can not be continued after the present year because of the large number of pupils we will have of school age next September. As a member of the school board of District No. 5, I would like to point out a few pertinent facts as to the advantages to be gained by a favorable vote on this proposal.

The first question asked by most interested parties is, "Won t it cost us a lot more, and won't taxes be a lot higher?" The answer is "yes," if we are comparing the tax we will pay next year if we annex with the tax we paid last year, or years previous. The answer is "no" if we are comparing the tax we will pay by annexing and the tax we will pay if we build for ourselves. I might also state here that the taxpayer in District No. 5 must not use his present tax rate of 12 mills, which he is paying this year, in his comparison, because we find that we are going to be about $3,000 short of meeting our transportation and tuition costs. In other words, we should have collected about 18 mills instead of the 12 mills we are col-

Politics, 1952 Style, Are Interesting

Will Truman run again for the Presidency? Is Kefauver thinking about being elected in 1952 or 1956? Can Taft win over Eisenhower at the Republican convention? Should Eisenhower become the G.O.P. nominee, where does he stand on domestic and international issues?

Those are some of the questions that are buzzing around in the minds of American voters as they hear more and more about politics in this presidential election year. In all probability, sentiment has not sufficiently crystalized for anyone to make a clear cut statement to the effect that this or that candidate will be an easy victor. There are, however, a number of folk in this area who four or eight years ago, frankly said that they intended to support Truman or Roosevelt, and who now are saying that they believe a change in administration would be a good thing.

On the Republican side of the political ledger, Senator Taft of Ohio seems to be winning many new friends. He is frank in his statements, determined in his bid for the White House, and openly discusses both domestic and international problems. Taft, it seems, is willing to let the chips fall where they will — he is as fearless as he is certain that his policies are sound — and, win or lose, the world knows, and the American people know just where he stands.

Gen. Eisenhower's announcement that he is a Republican presidential possibility contained no surprises. He said, in substance, that he will not presently resign his post or leave Europe, that he will not campaign — but that he will accept the G.O.P. nomination if it is offered to him. His statement was not as much as his supporters would like, but it is about all they had expected, and the Eisenhower organization, under the direction of Senator Lodge, is pressing hard on the throttle. They know they have a great deal of hard work to do in a very short time if they are to put their candidate over, in the face of the great strength that has been shown by Taft.

In the meantime, the General's views on public questions are now of major importance. It has been said that little is known of what he thinks save in the field of foreign and military policy, where he is a strong internationalist who holds that the security and perhaps the very survival of the United States as a free nation depends in great part upon building an impregnable defense against communism in Western Europe. Actually, however, during the period when he headed Columbia University, he made a number of speeches and statements which show that, generally speaking, he is a conservative in the old Midwestern tradition. The day after the announcement, the Associated Press went back into the files and came up with a number of revealing quotations, some of which follow:

In a speech at Houston he asked, "How long can we keep up deficit spending without surrendering some of the things in which we believe?" and added, "Personal security is not going to be achieved on a bankrupt economy." He expressed the same idea in different words in Fort Worth when he said, "How far can a government go in taxing away property rights and still not leave the government master of the people instead of their servant?"

On another occasion, he observed, "If all Americans want is security, they can go to prison. They'll have enough to eat, a bed and a roof over their head. But if an American wants to preserve his dignity and his equality as a human being, he must not bow his neck to any dictatorial government."

It is clear that he is a believer in sound economy. Thus, speaking at Denver, he said, "We must have efficiency and economy in all government expenditures. It would do no good to defend our liberties against communist aggression and lose them to our own greed, blindness, ignorance or shiftless reliance on bureaucracy and the Federal treasury." And on still another occasion he put the issue this way: "The central theme of our times is that of freedom against regimentation."

These quotations seem to accurately indicate the Eisenhower philosophy on domestic government. The question is whether his backers can overtake and pass Taft. With the General out of the country, his supporters are at a distinct disadvantage. If he is to win the nomination, he must come up with some early primary victories.

Mr. Truman, of course, if he should choose to run, would receive the approval of the Democratic convention. The question is, could he win if he were nominated?

We can remember, when Mr. Roosevelt won over Mr. Hoover, that the people voted not so much for Roosevelt but against Hoover. There is an undercurrent of resentment against the Truman administration at this time.

Will history repeat itself?

We Cannot Be An Unbeliever . . .

. . . in our profession. For the end of life, like the beginning, is the work of the hand of God.

That is why we say that the end of life need not be less beautiful. We try to convey beauty and dignity in every service for the departed and for those remaining to carry on life in this world.

UNITED is interested in appointing an exclusive representative in your territory. YOU may be the man we want.

If we prove acceptable to one another, then UNITED will teach you how to list, show and sell farms, will back you with 27 years of good will, the nation's largest program of farm and country real estate advertising, the famous UNITED catalog which last year was distributed free to a quarter of a million interested buyers, and with direct field supervision under qualified, experienced District Managers.

To qualify, you need only:

* Live on or near a main highway
* Enjoy the respect and confidence of your community
* Own and drive an automobile
* Devote full time to the work

We say again, if you want a BUSINESS instead of a Job, write today for full details. There is no obligation. Your inquiry will be held in strict confidence.

MOUNTAIN CANYON SIGHTED IN ATLANTIC

New York—Columbia University natural scientists have discovered a huge underseas mountain and massive sea-bottom canyons almost as big as Grand Canyon.

The university discloses that a six-week ocean expedition last summer found a mile-high mountain off the Maine coast. It extends over five miles of ocean floor at a point where the Atlantic is 2½ miles deep.

FLOOD OF NEW CARS PERPLEXES PARIS

Paris—Paris Police Chief Henri Beylot says that traffic in the French capital has increased by 25 per cent compared with last year. And 300 new cars are being put on the roads every day, he added.

"We are just about at our wits' end as to how to solve the traffic problem," said M. Beylot.

"Paris is still to a certain extent a medieval city—and American cars seem to get longer and longer for no reason at all."

Dependability depends on many things — in fact on everything we do of service to our patrons. We take time to do things right. We pay for and get best quality in every item we carry. Our patrons benefit thereby.

"Out of thin air" comes the HIGHEST HORSEPOWER in Buick history

NOTE FROM YOUR BUICK DEALER:
Presented here is the story of a great new engine development, as told by the men who did the job. We reprint the story here in its entirety — as we couldn't beat it if we tried.

No, we didn't have to build a new engine.

We took Buick's valve-in-head Fireball Engine—which makes the most of high compression. We drew on 12 patient years of Buick carburetion research.

And we came up with more might, more miles, from gas—right out of thin air, in more ways than one.

When you talk about "miles per gallon" you think of fuel, because that's what you buy.

But air's free—and for every gallon of gasoline, a busy engine can gulp more than 8,000 gallons of air.

The problem is to deliver air in the right proportions, throughout the full range of speeds at which you drive.

A carburetor—big enough to supply the air needed at full throttle—can be wasteful in stop-and-go driving. A carburetor sized for thrift in city traffic literally smothers your engine when you really give it the gun.

So Buick engineers developed the Airpower carburetor — a four-barrel automatic — and here's how it works.

Loafing along, two barrels are working, two stay closed. And you get a low-speed thrift and smoothness that's out of this world.

As you pick up speed, the "stand-bys" come into play—feeding not just more gas, but more air too—so you keep getting maximum power from each drop of fuel.

You have 170 effortless horsepower when you need it—a tremendous reserve ready to go into instant action at the nudge of your toe.

You have the satisfaction of knowing that you get this power with a frugal use of gas. At 40 you use less gas than you formerly used at 30.

* * * *

That's the story of Airpower carburetion in facts and figures straight from the factory.

But statistics can't tell you the breath-taking joy of heading for new horizons in a great-powered new ROADMASTER.

When can you do that? Better come in soon. Lots of other folks are flocking into our showroom these days to see the greatest array of new Buicks we've had in years.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Sure is true for '52

When better automobiles are built BUICK will build them

Each chairman is to report to the fire station, personally, as soon as their block has been canvassed. The results of the Mothers' March will be tabulated immediately and the report sent to the headquarters of the Lenawee Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in Adrian.

People who will not be at home during the porchlight parade may leave their contributions with the local chairman, Mrs. Quick, or they may use the canisters in the business places, placed there by the volunteer firemen.

The Rotary and Exchange Clubs are sponsoring a benefit dance, to be held on February 23. Several organizations already have sent in their contributions, and there are many benefit parties scheduled for the future.

The Polio Drive will continue in Lenawee county until February 15. Paul Ahleman, chairman of the chapter, says that many cases of polio cost between $400 and $700 monthly, while some are still more and others less, depending upon treatment needed. In cases where there is some form of insurance to cover part of the expense, the Polio Fund picks up where the insurance plan leaves off.

Indians Ready To Scalp Hudson

TECUMSEH CAGERS CHALK UP NINTH STRAIGHT WIN OVER CLINTON, 63 to 34

With nine consecutive wins to their credit, Tecumseh high school cagers will stage their final practice tonight, preparatory to meeting the Hudson high team on the local court, Friday evening at eight. Thus far, the Indians have been undefeated in LCAA starts this season, but there are still five games to be played before the card is finished.

Playing Clinton last Friday evening, the Indians ran up a lop-sided score of 63 to 34 before the final whistle. The score at half-time was 25 to 23 and it looked as though the contest might be close. However, after the third period the score was 39 to 27 and in the final stanza the Duvall-coached team walked away from their opponents.

The Clinton reserves, however, turned in a different set of figures, winning from the Indian's second string by a 52 to 31 score.

The Hudson contest tomorrow evening is expected to be a bit tough for Tecumseh, but—barring over-confidence, the Indians are picked as victors. Hudson won another contest last Friday evening from Addison, upsetting previous forecasts by a score of 39 to 22.

The real toughie of the season will be played a week from tomorrow evening at Blissfield when the Indians tangle with the Sugar Boys. Thus far, Blissfield cagers have dropped only one game — to Tecumseh — and they are out for a win that will give them a tie for first place league honors.

Should Tecumseh win tomorrow night and again next week Friday at Blissfield, officials say that there should be nothing in their way for a clean-cut victory and LCAA pennant honors. Remaining games after Blissfield are: February 15, Pittsford here; Feb. 22, Addison, there; Feb. 29, Summerfield, there.

Local cage games are attracting record breaking crowds this season. Tomorrow evening, the Indians will appear in brand new nylon uniforms, in orange and black, purchased by the school. Tecumseh Products Co., and Tresco have given the team new orange and black sweat suits.

Scout Group

Scout or Explorer ratings or both were discussed, and many questions were answered.

Carson House, Richard Butler and Harlan Boyes, V.F.W., committeemen, presented the new post with an American flag and $25 for necessary equipment.

Future meetings will be held on Wednesday evenings, at 7 o'clock at the Scout Cabin except, the first Wednesday of each month when the meeting will be held at the Packard home, because the cabin will be used by another group. The Explorers held an investiture service at the Cabin, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Application blanks for Explorer memberships (boys 14 years or older) and Explorer manuals may be obtained at post meetings or at the Packard residence, 511 So. Evans street.

Friday night, all Explorers attended the Tecumseh-Clinton basketball game in Clinton with Mrs. Richard Butler and Francis Packard taking the group. The group is also making plans to attend the Blissfield game in a body, next week Friday evening.

The rapid rate of new building here explains, vividly, why Tecumseh lead all other communities in Lenawee county in growth between the years of 1940 and 1950, according to the U. S. Census. In that 10-year period, Tecumseh grew from a town of 2,921 to one of 4,006, inside the corporate limits. Added growth in the fringe areas surrounding the village amounted to about 1,000, giving the greater-Tecumseh area an estimated population of well over 5,000.

Since 1950, it is estimated that the growth has been normal and steady and that Tecumseh's "greater" population is now around the 6,000 mark.

Here is what U. S. Census figures showed numerically and percentagewise about Lenawee's six largest communities as to growth between April 1, 1940 and April 1, 1950:

	1950	1940	Pct. of Change
Tecumseh	4,006	2,921	37.1
Adrian	18,402	14,230	29.3
Clinton	1,335	1,126	18.6

they will affect the community, generally.

The Chamber's annual election of directors and officers will follow Monday's meeting, Mr. Wright said. The election is accomplished by mail balloting. Four members of the board must be elected. The terms of Mrs. George French, Leon P. Williamson and K. D. Hall expire, and E. C. Heilman has tendered his resignation. Mr. Heilman, who is a member of the village council and chairman of that body's sewer committee, said that the press of village business forced his action. Tecumseh is now launching the building of a $285,000 sewage disposal plant and Heilman is devoting much of his time to that project.

After the election, the new board will meet, probably the latter part of February, and choose officers. The new board also faces another problem, the selection of a secretary to replace Ronald Harris, who resigned the first of the year.

The Chamber's offices in the Sage building are functioning, the board having named Mrs. Ruby Jones to assist with the work until a new secretary has been chosen.

Smoke Awaits

When Judge Rathbun will impose sentence on Smoke is not known. However, it probably will be within the next few days.

Smoke was charged with killing his wife in the home of her niece, Mrs. Gerald Roberts on W. Pottawatamie street. Mrs. Smoke was staying at her niece's home, pending the outcome of a divorce suit against her husband. The People claimed that Smoke visited the home, entered without knocking, shot his wife, then fired on Mrs. Roberts and then turned the gun on himself. Mrs. Roberts died before being admitted to Herrick hospital. Smoke and his wife were removed to University hospital where she died a few days later. Smoke recovered quickly from his injuries.

Slide-rule Weather Is Forecast By Denverite

Denver—Dr. Irving P. Krick of Denver, the west's big rainmaker as head of the Water Resources Development Corporation, said he has invented a stick for forecasting weather.

The device is something like a slide rule except that instead of figures it contains clouds pictures.

To make a forecast, you glance at the sky, match the clouds you see with one of the seven pictures on the stick. A sliding rack is moved to outline the cloud of your choice.

Look for direction of smoke and cloud movement and decide from which direction the wind is blowing.

You are now prepared to forecast. On the other side of the stick there is a panel opposite the sliding frame with the cloud picture. Match the two and then read the index.

The panels in the back of the stick are adjusted both for geographical areas and season.

Many Captives Of Allies Do Not Wish To Go Home

Tokyo—Although no decision has been reached on an exchange of war prisoners at the Panmunjom truce negotiations in Korea, it already is apparent that both sides are in somewhat of a dilemma over their respective prisoner holdings.

The problem from the standpoint of the United Nations revolves around the fact that many of the thousands now held do not want to go back into Communist territory.

The Communists, on the other hand, are faced with a problem in that they unofficially claim they are holding only about 4,000 of the 11,00 listed by the United Nations as missing.

Thus far, no Allied spokesman has said officially, how many prisoners the United Nations command believes the Communists are holding.

A Communist newspaperman has confirmed that many captives had succumbed to wounds. He said that if there had been any possibility of providing medical aid immediately, the number of prisoners alive now would have been much larger.

"However," he said, "the one-third figure is more or less comparable to other wars."

The United Nations command, meanwhile, estimates it holds 150,000 Korean and 18,000 Chinese prisoners. The South Korean Defense Ministry gives higher figures: 170,103 prisoners, including 20,983 Chinese and 671 women.

The majority of the Koreans are not Communists, but fought on the Communist side because they were impressed into the Communist army. Even some of the Chinese have been reported eager to join the Chinese Nationalists rather return to Communist control.

A part of the problem was pointed up Dec. 14 by Clarence Rhee, information chief of the South Korean Government.

Mr. Rhee said about 60,000 of the Korean prisoners held were South Koreans who had been forced into the North Korean Army during the invasion in 1950.

VALENTINE DANCE

The Westminster League of the Presbyterian church is sponsoring a Valentine Dance on Friday, February 8, at the Central school gym. The Products Chieftains will play for the dance from 9 until 1. Mrs. James Gabler is general chairman. Lunch will be served by the committee in charge. The League sponsored a similar dance three years ago.

Seitz Offer

The young Tecumseh plumber is charged with shooting his wife, following a quarrel, and while their three young children were asleep in a nearby bedroom. Seitz told officers that the affair took place after an argument in which his wife ordered him to leave home.

Seitz first denied the shooting, telling police that he found his wife dead when he returned home. The following morning a deer rifle, the fatal weapon, was found in the River Raisin here, where Seitz is alleged to have thrown it. Later, he confessed the slaying.

Pending trial, Seitz is being held at the county jail in default of $30,000 bail.

Justice Douglas Scores Loans To Federal Nations

Atlantic City—United States Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas said that loans to feudal system governments are helping to spread communism.

Mr. Justice Douglas, speaking before the annual meeting of the United Jewish Appeal, said he has "been alarmed and distressed at the way we have been wasting our inheritance by mass spending of money abroad."

"'Stop communism' has been our goal, and none can quarrel with that," he said. "But we have thought that dollars could do it.

"The growth of communism is due to the existence in large areas of the world of feudal systems. A feudal system begat communism in Russia and a feudal system in any country will beget communism.

"When we as a nation loan money to a feudal country, we prop up that system, give it strength and vitality and perpetuate the causes that breed communism."

Mr. Justice Douglas pointed out that there are exceptions, such as Premier Mossadegh of Iran. We can afford to support others "as honest and liberal and progressive" because they will be instruments for abolishing feudal systems," he said.

Lift Credit Controls On Cars From '42 And Older

Washington — The government has lifted credit controls from 1942 and older model used cars—about 40 per cent of the cars in use — effective Jan. 2.

Hereafter you can buy such cars for whatever down payment and time terms you can get from dealers and finance companies.

The Federal Reserve Board's regulation "W," intended to curb credit which increases inflation, had required a one-third down payment and full payment within 18 months.

The board, in announcing removal of this requirement, said actual trade practice on prewar cars sales has been to require even stiffer terms than those provided by regulation "W."

Thus removal of the restriction is likely to have little effect on credit terms, the board said. The regulation was lifted chiefly on the theory that controls should be removed where they are no longer needed.

The Reserve Board also removed its credit regulations on certain types of lease or rental arrangements on new commercial or industrial buildings, effective Dec. 31.

The board's regulation "X" on real estate credit had required 50 per cent cash payment in leasing arrangements which have the effect of purchases, provide options to purchase, or apply lease payments to a purchase price.

This regulation is continued on new residential buildings, but is lifted on nonresidential construction. A board expert estimated less than 10 per cent of commercial and industrial construction has come under the regulation.

front of the Tecumseh Farm Equipment Co., and then hit a parked car owned by Harold Smith, jr., of Onsted. The Smith car was only slightly damaged but Hoffman's car was badly wrecked.

Cars driven by Opal Grubb and Vera Steel, both of Tecumseh, collided at the corner of Chicago boulevard and Ottawa street about noon, Tuesday. Police said that the Steel car struck the left front of the Grubb car, swinging it around and causing it to overturn. Vera Steel was given a summons for failing to stop at a stop street. No one was hurt.

Joseph Nortley, 31, Rt. 1, Tecumseh, escaped injury at 11:30 p.m. last week Wednesday night when his car went out of control on M-52, about a mile south of Billington's Corners. The accident happened when Nortley attempted to go around a stalled car, Clinton state police said.

Police gave Nortley a summons for failing to have his car under control and driving at an excessive rate of speed for road conditions.

Methodist Women Plan Get-Acquainted Meetings

Mrs. Robert Bonner, president of the Woman's Society, entertained fifteen potential hostesses, one guest, and the Rev. Ronald Brunger at a briefing luncheon in the Social Room of the Methodist church last Friday noon. Following the luncheon, the Rev. Mr. Brunger emphasized the importance of the Woman's Society in the life of the church. Mrs. Bonner then explained the progressive visitation program which was designed by the Women's Division of Christian Service and is being used successfully throughout the nation.

Each woman present will entertain in her home within the next two weeks six or seven women, who are members of the Methodist church or who are potential members, for the purpose of becoming better acquainted. Therefore, all of the women interested in the Methodist church will have been invited to one of these homes. It is hoped that the women will find time to respond to the invitation.

The following women will be hostesses: Mrs. Jennie Temple, Mrs. Ellsworth Collins, Mrs. T. Rentschler, Mrs. Lenore West, Mrs. R. J. McCoy, Mrs. E. E. Duvall, Mrs. Willis Porter, Mrs. J. F. Elliott, Mrs. Clarence Beach, Mrs. Edna Codling, Mrs. James Perrin, Mrs. W. G. Waldron, Mrs. Edward F. Leighton, Mrs. Paul Snyder, Mrs. Owen Partridge, Mrs. Victor Peterson, Mrs. Luther Wood, and Mrs. George Wittrup.

Electors Meet

lecting if we pay our bills. One may ask, "Why is this?" And the only answer is—"more pupils, higher tuition costs, and a decrease in state aid monies."

Now let us consider what it would cost to construct our own school. The best way to do this is to go to a district where a similar school has just been completed. Palmyra has just completed a four-room school at a cost of about $82,000. The site was donated and they have practically all their furnishings from their old school building. We have no site and do not possess even a black-board eraser. The state law says you can bond for school building purposes for an amount equal to 10% of the assessed valuation. If our valuation next year reaches $700,000 we could bond for $70,000 which would be far from adequate. Also, a school must be centrally located which would mean a location somewhere in the vicinity of the Occidental Road and M-50, and no bus service could be furnished because of the added cost. There are several other factors that would have to be considered if the district decided to builld, but I do not believe it necessary to point them out at this time.

Now what will be the situation if we vote favorably on the annexation proposal next Tuesday? First of all, we become a part of District No. 7 and turn over to them our assets, consisting of one two-year-old school bus and all money collected or collectible by our district. This would amount to about $8,500.00 in cash. The Tecumseh Village schools then would assume our $10,700 tuition bill and operate the school bus giving the same service as is being given at present. Being a part of that District, we would pay the same tax as they do next year which would amount to 21.9 mills, which will be the last assessment on the present bond issue. I consider it a good bargain when a party offers you a share in an investment merely by sharing one payment out of five.

We are well aware that Tecumseh District No. 7 is faced with a building program in their elementary grades, but with the added valuation attained by this annexation proposal, the two districts combined can solve the issue much easier than can either one alone.

I would suggest that if one has any questions he would like answered, he attend the informal meeting at the High School on Thursday night, January 31, 1952, at 8:00 p.m.

Cordially yours,
F. A. Van Valkenburg, Director
School District No. 5

Lower Draft Standards Will Net Greater Army

Washington—Draft officials will begin checking 4-F ranks this month to find rejected registrants who can be inducted under the lower standards of the new draft law.

Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey said some 300,000 men previously rejected for mental reasons will be called for reexamination. The first group of 25,000 will get their orders for rechecks next month.

Meanwhile, a move to let youths inducted under a proposed six-month Universal Military Training program split their training into two consecutive summer periods was reporting gaining strength in the House.

Representative Olin E. Teague (D) of Texas said he believes that 30 to 40 of the younger congressmen, many of them World War II veterans like himself, are ready to support the split-training plan. He said the arrangement would minimize interference of UMT with college work.

The mental reexaminations will result from a provision in the draft law passed last summer lowering from 70 to 65 the minimum mental score necessary to qualify for military service.

Of the 1,828,000 men examined since July, 1950, about 822,600 — or 45 per cent — have been rejected. About 300,000 of these were turned down solely because they flunked the mental induction tests.

A Selective Service spokesman said no estimate is available as to the number of mental 4-F's who may be found acceptable upon reexamination. Congressional experts estimated earlier this year, however, that the reduced mental standards would enable draft officials to induct about 150,000 men who had been rejected.

Split UMT work has been considered and rejected by a five-man National Security Training Commission established by Congress to draw up specific plans for a six-month training program for all 18-year-olds.

In setting up the commission, Congress committed itself to the principle of UMT and agreed to consider the commission's recommendations within 45 days after the new session starts Jan. 8.

More Inflation Likely In 1952

HOWEVER, SOME SHORTAGES ARE FORECAST BY GENERAL ELECTRIC HEAD

New York—General electric is gearing its production to both guns and butter, Ralph J. Cordiner, president of the nation's largest electric company said at a press conference here.

Despite increased national defense demands, and a vital shortage of materials, Mr. Cordiner indicated that the firm hopes in 1952 to manufacture 75 per cent of the refrigerators, ironers, washing machines, radios, and other products it made in 1951.

Defense production, he said, would be about 30 to 35 per cent of the company's total capacity during the coming year. In 1951 output of war goods amounted to 20 to 25 per cent.

The GE head expressed considerable concern over inflationary factors and said that it is up to the American people to put more resistance against the trend toward higher wages and higher prices and that unless they did so he could see no end to the spiral within the foreseeable future.

Mr. Cordiner took a sober view of many of the factors confronting business today, such as the problems in civilian goods production, wages and prices, taxes, and inflation. The executive was emphatic in his belief that the outlook for more or less inflation depended upon the trend of wages. He felt that wage increases would be granted to the steelworkers, and that this in turn would mean higher prices and more inflation.

The executive made it clear it was his feeling that a stop to increased wages was the key to the situation. He said that the wage-price spiral would not be changed at the Washington level, and that resistance to rising prices at the retail counter was not the answer, and then added that the American people must aim their resistance at the trend toward higher wage grants and consequently higher prices.

While Mr. Cordiner felt that there were many issues clouding the present business picture, he was optimistic generally about prospects. He said that business volume would be off slightly in the last quarter of this year compared with 1950 which was a record peacetime period. He added that the company also was doing a larger volume of defense work upon which profit margins are restricted. This meant, he said, that the profits upon the amount of commercial business transacted by the firm.

In support of his feeling of optimism, Mr. Cordiner said that General Electric would not be spending $1,000,000,000 for expansion over a 10-year period that began in 1946 unless the firm was fundamentally hopeful about the long-term future. He felt, however, that there would have to be some "adjustments" if and when defense production tapered off.

INDUSTRIES ARE BUSY WITH HEALTH PROBLEMS

Michigan industries spent nearly two million dollars in the last twelve months to protect the health of workers in their plants by carrying out recommendations of the State Health Department's Division of Industrial Health.

Industrial health engineers report this represents 80 per cent compliance with their recommendations. They estimate nearly half a million workers were benefited by the improvements.

Most of the corrections involved ventilation, with industries spending over a million dollars to install and operate systems for controlling air contamination.

The Division's engineers completed surveys or studies during the year in 1,562 plants.

Says Tecumseh Faces Challenge

PRODUCTS' PRESIDENT TALKS TO C. OF C.; FOUR BOARD MEMBERS NAMED

Tecumseh faces a terrific challenge, a challenge that if it was met, completely, could mean a community of 35,000 people, Ray W. Herrick, president of Tecumseh Products Co., told members of the Chamber of Commerce, and the Rotary and Exchange Clubs, Monday evening, when those organizations assembled in a general meeting in the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian church. It was the annual meeting of the Chamber, and 117 persons were in attendance. Four new directors were named to the board, and annual reports were given.

"I am not telling you that Tecumseh is going to be a town of 35,000 people, but I am saying that it could be that large if Products company decided to solidify its position and manufactured, here in Tecumseh, all of the things that it now buys and assembles.

"Frankly, we are thinking along those lines, and it is not unusual that we should think that way. Think back to the automobile manufacturers when, in years past, they bought parts, built here and there, and then assembled them in Detroit—the automotive center. What has happened during the past years? The auto industry has solidified its position. Manufacturers now make in Detroit many of the things they formerly purchased elsewhere.

"We are spending hundreds of thousands of dollars annually for freight on products that we buy that are made elsewhere and are shipped to us. We also are paying some manufacturer a profit for making these things. Think what we could save, think of how we could cut our selling costs, if we decided to build the things we need right here in Tecumseh."

Mr. Herrick then went on to review some of the things that his company might build. These included motors, forgings, stampings, etc., etc. Payrolls would double and triple, he said, as employment increased. New buildings would be needed, and an expanded Tecum-

$854 Is Added To Polio Fund

PORCH LIGHT PARADE HERE, LAST THURSDAY EVENING, COMPLETE SUCCESS

Tecumseh's "Porch Light Parade," known to some as the Mothers' March on Polio, netted $854, last Thursday evening, it was announced today. The affair was a complete success, Mrs. Geo. Quick, local chairman of the Polio drive, declared. A few people, it was said, forgot to turn on their porch lights, indicating that they desired to give, and made their contributions on Friday. Permission was given to count such gifts in the Parade fund.

Mrs. Frank Daehne and Mrs. Charles Osburn, co-chairmen of the March, announced an addition to the list already published of women who assisted with the campaign. This includes: Mrs. Gibbs Barber, Mrs. Loren Campbell, Mrs. Gerald Driscoll, Mrs. Gerald Dunn, Mrs. Gale Hooten, Mrs. Purnell Osburn, Mrs. Raymond Pask, Mrs. Dale Reitz, Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. Ned Rosacrans, Mrs. Joseph Russell, Mrs. Franklin Shea, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Grenval Spangler, Mrs. Dale Tingley, Mrs. Hilda Will, Mrs. Richard Witt, and Mrs. Applegate of Britton. State Ask For Bids On New Section Of M-50

Bids for the construction of a new section of M-50 in Ridgeway township will be taken by the State Highway Department in Lansing on February 20. A 22-foot concrete pavement will be laid from the east village limits of Britton to the Lenawee-Monroe county line, a distance of 2.64 miles. The bid includes the same type of construction for M-50 continuing from the county line, 5.144 miles into Monroe county, to a point where M-50 joins US-223. Completion date is set as November 1.

New work is being placed under contract with cancellation clauses, stating that projects will be canceled at once if the CIO is successful in its efforts to stop collection of the increase in state gasoline tax.

Tecumseh Gets $3,058 In Weight And Gas Taxes

Vouchers for the distribution of $22,209,237 collected in weight and gas taxes for the fourth quarter of the calendar year 1951 have been sent to the auditor general's office at Lansing for payment the State Highway Department announced today.

Of the total amount, Lenawee county will receive $107,559.65. Of that amount, Tecumseh will receive $3,058.75. Other nearby communities and the amounts follow: Onsted, $369.20; Clinton, $1,081.69; Britton, $441.68.

School Dist. 5 Votes To Annex

ONLY THREE NEGATIVE VOTES ARE CAST IN ELECTION HELD HERE ON TUESDAY

Only three of the 93 electors of School District No. 5, voting in special election Tuesday afternoon, opposed the proposal that the district be annexed to School District No. 7, the Tecumseh district. District 5 lies immediately west of Tecumseh, west of Billington's corners.

District 5 has, for several years, been sending its pupils to Tecumseh to school, paying tuition and operating a bus. At present, about 100 children are coming here to school, and next year the number will increase about 25. The district does not own a school building.

Since District 7 faces a building program to house its ever-growing enrollment, board officials sought to learn District 5's plans for the future. District 7 felt that it should not enlarge its schools to care for increased enrollment in a district other than its own. On the other hand, District 5 felt that it had insufficient assets to operate its own school.

After discussion, and a mass meeting last Thursday evening which was attended by about 25

Minstrel Show Here, Feb. 8-9

The minstrel this year is being directed by Walt Atwell and Preston Caswell. Musical numbers are under the direction of Robert Peck of the music department of the Tecumseh Public Schools.

All new costumes have been purchased or rented for members of the cast.

The program will include several solo numbers, as well as specialty acts by girl members of the cast. A full two-hours of entertainment is guaranteed.

Tickets will be on sale each evening at the Union hall before the 8 o'clock curtain.

Ford Dealer Discovers Tecumseh Drinks Coffee

If you'd like to know how much coffee is consumed in restaurants in Tecumseh on Fridays, ask Charles O. Butler of Butler Motor Sales.

In connection with the showing of the new Ford for '52, last weekend, Mr. Butler issued courtesy cards to all of the restaurants. He asked them to give a card to each coffee customer they served. On the cards were these words: "Your coffee is free, courtesy of Butler Motor Sales." And then, of course, there was an invitation to see the new car.

Saturday the invoices for the coffee served began to come in to Butler Motor Sales from the restaurants . . . and there were hundreds and hundreds of cards.

"Tecumseh sure drinks coffee," Mr. Butler said. "And Tecumseh sure saw the new Ford, Friday and Saturday. Our records show that on the two days upwards of 2,000 persons visited our showrooms."

And now some of Butler's friends are urging him to include donuts with his coffee at the 1953 showing.

The incident of the Hayden Flour Mills recognizing the 50th Anniversary of the 4-H Clubs by mailing out first day covers of the commemorative stamp was considered newsworthy by The Herald editor. A picture of the presentation of a special sheet of 4-H Clubs stamps by Chet Baker of Hayden's to Kenneth Escott, local 4-H Club leader was printed along with the story (Tecumseh Herald Jan. 17).

Evidently others considered this newsworthy, for there have been several reprints in one form and another. This week, February 2 "STAMPS" magazine, the leading stamp publication with world-wide acceptance used The Tecumseh Herald photo on the front cover, and the highlights of the story as a part of their coverage of the event of the issuance of this stamp. The action of the Hayden Mills in using this alert means of public service is hailed as worthy and exemplary.

Indians Ready For Sugar Boys

WIN AT BLISSFIELD TOMORROW NIGHT WOULD ASSURE LEAGUE SUPREMACY

With the scalps of 10 LCAA members dangling from their belts, the Tecumseh high school Indian cagers are making last minute preparations to journey to Blissfield tomorrow evening for the 11th contest in the county basketball schedule, and one which may give them undefeated, undisputed league supremacy. Scores of local fans are planning to attend the Blissfield game—billed as probably the most exciting contest of the season. The tilt will start at 8 p.m.

Coach Duvall's warriors added the 10th scalp to their collection here last Friday evening when they defeated a stubborn Hudson team by a score of 36 to 35. It was one of the closest contests that the local cagers have played thus far this season.

The Tigers almost clipped the undefeated Indians, threatening to take the lead in the scoring from the time of the first whistle. At half-time the Indians had a 20-16 lead, and in the third quarter Hudson outscored the Duvall-men. But in the final stanze of the contest, the Indians eeked out a one-point margin.

Tecumseh now has played 10 games in the LCAA and has been victorious in each of them. Blissfield is in second place, with eight wins and two losses. Addison is in third place and Clinton is in the cellar.

The Indians' games remaining after Blissfield are: February 15, Pittsford, here; February 22, Addison, there; February 29, Summerfield, there.

Gets 15-Day Jail Term After 2 Traffic Mishaps

Robert Stone, 21, of Stockbridge, drew two fines of $25 each and court costs amounting to $16.80 and, in addition, 15 days in the county jail, when he pleaded guilty on Monday in Justice Van Dusen's court at Clinton to traffic law violation charges.

Stone was arrested by Clinton state police Saturday evening. They charged that his car was involved in an accident about 6 p.m., on Valley Road when it sideswiped a car driven by Muriel Burgett of Rt. 3, Adrian. Stone left the scene of the mishap, police said, without stopping and identifying himself.

At about 7 p.m., police say that his car was involved in an accident in a market parking lot west of Tecumseh. He backed his car into the side of a car owned by G. S. Upell of Britton. Again he did not stop. Police found him in Tecumseh about an hour later and placed him under arrest.

Council Eyes $36,000 Saving

HEILMAN SEES OPPORTUNITY TO SHARPLY CUT BID ON DISPOSAL PLANT

The village council, two months ago, rejected contractors' bids for the building of a new sewage disposal plant here, contending that they exceeded by from $50,000 to $75,000 the estimate of engineers.

Engineers had estimated that the cost of the plant would be $285,000.

This week, the council approved a program whereby the village, itself, will build the plant, subcontracting labor that it cannot do itself, and purchasing, directly, all of the machinery necessary.

Council also approved purchase orders for machinery needed in the disposal plant. The cost was about $42,000. Contractors had estimated that cost at $82,000, E. C. Heilman said, or about $40,000 more. Mr. Heilman is chairman of the council's committee on sewers.

"Of course," Heilman said, "the contractors' price included the setting of the machinery in the plant which, I estimate, will run five or six thousand dollars. I believe that on the item of machinery alone, we will save about $36,000 over the contractors' bids."

Heilman seems certain that the plant can be built within the $285,000 estimate, for which bonds have been issued. He even feels that there may be a slight saving.

The general superintendent of construction will be in Tecumseh on March 3, he said, and work on the plant will start then. Some interceptor sewers may even be started a little earlier. Heilman hopes that the plant can be in operation by November 1.

"We're anxious to save the taxpayers every nickel that we can, and we are shopping around in our purchases. We have priorities for all needed materials," he said.

Seitz Case May Be Given To Jury Today, Friday

Charles Seitz, jr., 28-year-old Tecumseh plumber, will probably learn his fate at the hands of a jury in Circuit Judge G. Arthur Rathbun's court in Adrian, today or Friday. Mr. Seitz is on trial for the Christmas night murder of his wife, Donna, in their home here.

Seitz is charged with shooting his wife, after a family argument. He told police that Mrs. Seitz ordered him to leave home, telling him that she intended to take the property and their three children. He is charged with killing her with a deer rifle while she watched television. Seitz first denied the murder but later confessed. He is pleading insantiy.

You'll Pay More Taxes in 1952

This year, the American people will feel the full weight of the tax bill passed during the last session of Congress. The new and higher levies applied to individual incomes only for the last two months of 1951. In 1952, of course, they will be in effect for the entire twelve months. It is probable that the President will ask that taxes, both individual and corporate, be increased once more—though it is highly unlikely that the present Congress will go along with that, save in the event of a major war.

The burden of taxation has increased at a very swift rate in this country. According to a new booklet on the tax problem issued by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, the cost of government required only seven per cent of the national income in 1890. When World War I broke out, the figure was about the same. By 1940, it had jumped to twenty-two per cent. And now government is taking something like thirty-three and one-third cents of every 100 cents that all of us earn as income.

As the Chamber's booklet says, "For a long time the 'ability to pay' theory has dominated tax discussions. This theory has merit, but unfortunately people have been led to believe that all government expenditures can be paid for by taxes on the 'rich' . . . The popular case for welfare state expenditures is that they will redistribute income from rich to poor. This would indeed be a simple solution to the world's social and economic ills, if only it were true. But even if steeply progressive taxes had no undesirable economic effects, this would be impossible. There simply are no enough rich people."

It is clear, whether we like it or not, that any additional tax increases must fall primarily upon people of very modest means—for the reason that they have most of the money. According to Secretary Snyder, almost 75 per cent of all personal income available for additional taxation is actually in the lowest income bracket—under $2,000. By contrast in the over $50,000-bracket, the income available for additional taxation amounts to less than one-bracket, the income available for additional taxation amounts to less than one-third of one per cent of the total.

Fast as individual income tax rates have risen, corporation rates have risen even faster. The corporation rate was held to a ceiling of 42 per cent in World War II. Now it is 52 per cent. Very steep excess profits taxes come on top of this. The total corporation tax runs as high as 70 per cent. There is not much room for further boosts here if an incentive-economy is to be maintained in this country, and enterprise is to be encouraged to progress.

This illustrates, in a brief form, the tremendous magnitude of the tax problem. The heart of that problem was described in these words of Senator George: "There have been frequent discussions of what the total tax 'take' may be without doing injury to our economy. There is no fixed limit; the limit is to be found only when the tax 'take' destroys the incentive of the people and when it leads to every conceivable effort to evade and to wasteful practices by the taxpayers, themselves."

British Socialism Paying Off

According to an Associated Press dispatch from London, Britain is recruiting jobless Italians to help relieve the manpower shortage in her coal fields. Over a thousand of these imported workers are now in Britain, and many more are wanted.

This is one more of the fruits of Britain's socialization of coal. When the Labor government took over the mines, the workers were sold on the idea that utopia was just around the corner. Disillusionment came swiftly. The miners found that they had traded a boss with whom they could bargain for a dictorial bureaucracy which worked on a "take it or leave it" basis. The promised improvement in working conditions and living standards never materialized—if anything they deteriorated. The result has been a wave of job-quitting and absenteeism, and coal production has suffered alarmingly.

The American miners, by contrast, work for free enterprises. Soft coal miners average about $2.25 an hour. In addition they have many other benefits, including paid vacations.

The record shows, beyond argument that in socialistic and communistic countries the worker always takes a beating. Only in a free economy is labor strong and well paid.

We Cannot Be An Unbeliever . . .

. . . in our profession. For the end of life, like the beginning, is the work of the hand of God.

That is why we say that the end of life need not be less beautiful. We try to convey beauty and dignity in every service for the departed and for those remaining to carry on life in this world.

UM Announces Nurse Program

FOUR YEAR COURSE ESTABLISHED, LEADING TO BACHELOR OF SCIENCE DEGREE

ANN ARBOR—A new four-year basic professional program in nursing, combining general education with professional preparation, has been announced by the University of Michigan School of Nursing.

The new program will lead to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing for all graduates and will of course also qualify them for the state licensing examination, Miss Rhoda Reddig, director of the School, has explained.

First students under the new program will be admitted next September. Students who are in the School of Nursing now will not be affected by the changes.

For some years, the School of Nursing has offered two programs. One of these required three years years and led to a diploma in nursing. The other required five years to complete and led to a college degree. Both of these programs will be replaced by the new one, although one more class will be admitted next September under the old five-year curriculum.

"Better Nursing" is the aim of the new program, which is in line with a national trend in nursing education. The foundation of general education which is included in the revised curriculum is expected to prepare the nurse to understand the economic, social and emotional problems of patients as well as to assist the nurse herself in successful personal living.

Under the new program, high school graduates may be admitted directly to the Univeristy's School of Nursing, or they may take the prescribed courses for the first two semesters in any college and then transfer to the School of Nursing.

This is a four calendar year program, University officers point out, which means that students will attend four summer sessions. However, nursing students will receive from four to seven weeks' vacation each year.

The first professional course in nursing will be given during the first summer session, and throughout the remaining three years, students will take both professional courses and general education courses each year.

The University semester fees for the new program will total $445 for Michigan residents and $1075 for non-Michigan residents. At the beginning of the second semester of the second year, nursing students will be given full maintenance (room, board, and laundry of uniforms).

Long study of the nursing profession and of the proper preparation for it preceded the announcement of this new program by the University of Michigan. A committee of distinguished educators was called in to conduct a preliminary survey and to aid in planning the revised curriculum.

Members of this committee were Eli Ginsberg, professor of economics at Columbia University; Margaret Arnstein, director of the division of nursing resources, United Public Health Service; Ralph Tylar, dean of the division of social sciences, University of Chicago; Ruth Kuehn, dean of the school of nursing, University of Pittsburgh; and Dr. Harold Diehl, dean of the school of medicine, University of Minnesota.

Job-Seeking Students Will Meet At Lansing

Michigan State college at East Lansing will be host Feb. 13-15 to a giant gathering of job-seeking students from Michigan colleges and personnel-seeking officials from some of the nation's largest firms.

Originally designed for M.S.C. students, the annual "Career Carnival" last year included high school students from the Lansing area. This year for the first time the program is going on a state-wide basis, with all Michigan colleges invited to participate. High school students and counselors also are expected to take part.

Believed to be the first such project in the U.S., the event is designed to give students an up-to-date picture of the job outlook in many different fields, largely through informal meetings between students and company representatives. But company representatives also will be looking for outstanding prospects for their own firms' payrolls.

More than 10,000 persons will take part in the three-day session, according to John F. Schlueter, M.S.C. placement director. An estimated 80 companies, most of them operating on a national scale, will send personnal executives to the affair.

Most of the schedule will be devoted to informal meetings between students and prospective employers. Display booths, manned by company officials with ready answers, will be operating during all three days of the carnival.

The company selected 19 retail outlets in 10 states for the initial offering. Traffic Is Big Police Problem

STATE POLICE REPORT FOR 1951 SHOWS THAT OFFICERS HAD BUSY YEAR

Activities of the Michigan State Police reached their highest point in 1951, with the various divisions and bureaus setting new records of performance.

Traffic, of course, continued to be the big problem, and despite all safety efforts, the accident toll established a new mark. Final figures for December are not yet tabulated but it is estimated that for the year there were more than 50,000 casualties — or 1,660 persons killed and 48,548 injured in 171,935 accidents. In 1950 the toll included 1,607 deaths, and 45,734 injured in 161,750 accidents.

During 1951 motor vehicle travel exceeded 23 billion miles, a billion miles more than in 1950. Car and truck registrations increased 124,000 to a new high of more than two and one-half million. The death rate per 100 million miles of travel, however, dropped from 7.30 to 7.12, which was slightly under the 1949 rate of 7.17, the lowest previously recorded in the state.

The State Police made 82,750 arrests during the year and of these 72,500 were for traffic offenses. In 1950 there were 76,981, of which 62,290 were for traffic offenses. Not included in these arrest totals are 5,000 juvenile offenders in 1951 as compared to 3,974 in 1950.

Complaints handled in all matters, including criminal offenses other than traffic, totalled 73,200 as compared to 71,088 in 1950. In addition, 271,000 property inspections and 40,000 liquor inspections were made.

Commissioner Donald S. Leonard, who also served as state civil defense director during World War II and continued in that capacity at the outbreak of the Korean conflict, withdrew from the latter post shortly after the first of the year because increased State Police administrative duties did not permit him to devote enough time to the expanding civil defense and blood-typing program.

The State Police, however, regarded as a front line force in civil defense, made additional preparations to render aid in the event of emergency. A disaster battalion was organized and was given a test run in the mock atomic bombing exercise at Sault Ste. Marie early last spring. The State Police also have the responsibility of alerting the state, or sections of it, in case of an enemy attack.

A new squad—rackets and narcotics—was also organized during the year to combat gambling and the dope traffic.

In December a new in-service training course for municipal and county police in addition to State Police was instituted. Schools in breaking and entering and fingerprint identification are now being held in various sections of the state. It is to be a continuing program, with similar schools being arranged later on other subjects.

As the year drew to a close the State Police were hoping for an increase in their present enlisted strength of 678. With the traffic problem steadily becoming greater and many other law enforcement and criminal investigation duties to be performed, the department has set a goal of 1,250 men which it hopes to attain over a three-year period. Even this size force, however, would still be below national safety standards.

NIEMOELLER GOES TO MOSCOW . . . The Rev. Martin Niemoeller (right), with daughter Herta and Prior Heinrich Gruber, arrives in Berlin en route to Moscow where he was greeted by Archbishop MaCary on behalf of the Russians. There is speculation that his visit may have some bearing on the expectation that the Russians may start releasing a large number of Germans held in the Soviet for various reasons since the end of the war. His wife and daughter went with him.

Medics Study Health Program

HOW TO KEEP WELL AND NOT GET SICK ARE PROBLEMS FACING INSTITUTE

Medical science is now studying the process of maintaining health with the aim of an auto mechanic checking the worn out parts of a motor.

Research centering around the Institute of Industrial Health at the University of Michigan is aimed at finding the changes that occur in a person during the span of life, under stress as well as normal conditions, and what these changes do to the human body.

Dr. Otto T. Mallery, Jr., director of the Institute, explained that the main interest centers around changes that indicate a trend away from health. Armed with this knowledge there may be a chance to prevent the disease by preventing its development.

Periodic health examinations, he pointed out, that would lead to the recognition of such changes could give the medical practitioner advantage of the situation and he could act to maintain a patient's health.

Any motorist would have the mechanical parts of his automobile repaired before he made a trip if he knew in advance what parts were likely to fail and the same token applies to the human body.

The said the sixty-four dollar question in medical science is this —what is there in the human body we can measure today that will give us a clue to what is going to happen tomorrow?

The importance and benefits of maintaining health through periodic health examinations is now recognized by industry, Dr. Mallery said. Money is spent on machines to keep them in operation and, therefore, industry feels it is just as important to keep employees in good health.

Industry is affected by the millions of man-days per year that are lost because of sickness, which amounts to billions of dollars, Dr. Mallery stated. Although medical science has many bridges to cross, knowledge about what goes on as the body grows older is a prime factor in medical aid.

X-rays of lungs and stomach, body chemistry, fluctuations in blood pressure and living habits, such as seating, sleeping, recreation and other factors, are being correlated in order to set up the kind of medical examinations to detect any deviation from the normal.

Dr. Mallery pointed out that other centers are doing similar research. Representatives of the Institute are visiting these centers and exchanging ideas.

"We do not expect to find quick answers," he explained. "It will take time, study and experience to point the way."

seh would be necessary to meet the challenge.

"Those are some of the things that are worrying us, at Products. We are wondering if Tecumseh can meet this challenge. Today, we are employing about 2,500 people. We have a payroll of about $10,000,000 a year. How many of the folk who work for us live here? Just about one-third, or about 900."

Herrick then went on to tell where the employees come from—some from 50 miles away. They commute to and from work, daily.

"We don't want Tecumseh to grow too fast, we realize that the growth must be steady. That is why I am telling you now something about our plans for the future, so that you business men can help us to grow at the same time that you and our community are growing. There was a time when business confined its plans to its own group. That is no longer so. We are a part of this community, we feel a responsibility to the community, and we want you to know and understand something about our business and our problems. We discuss our problems and the trends in busines with our employee, and we want to do the same with the community we call home."

Listing some of the things that he believed should be "musts" in Tecumseh's future, the manufacturer mentioned: Changing Tecumseh's form of government from village to city; an even larger hospital; a new hotel; an expanded business district; better school facilities; steady growth in house construction; improved public utilities; and, most of all, "a spirit of unrest and discontent" on the part of the folk who live here until these accomplishments have been realized.

"You can't be satisfied and continue to progress," Herrick warned. "As soon as you quit striving, as soon as you feel content with your lot, you stop progress. We showed a nice gain in sales last year over the year before, but we are shooting for a larger gain this year. In five years we hope to double our sales."

Earl L. Wickwire, publisher of The Herald and first president of the Chamber of Commerce that was organized four years ago, also spoke. He reviewed the many accomplishments of the Chamber, and pointed out that Tecumseh, since 1940, has made the most rapid growth of any community in Lenawee county. Since 1940, he said, 523 new houses have been built here at a cost estimated at $5,250,000, and payrolls in the decade have nearly doubled.

"Tecumseh has a golden opportunity to expand, to become the home of 7,000 or 8,000 people within the next five or six years, if it meets its challenge," the speaker said. "However, we must not permit our mile stones to become mill stones. We must not become content with our accomplishments."

William A. Wright, president of the Chamber, presided at the meeting and spoke briefly concerning the organization's policy. K. D. Hall, acting in the absence of Ralph Comfort, treasurer, submitted the financial report, showing that all bills have been paid, and the books audited. Fay Whelan reported on the activities of the Treasure Chest, sponsored by retail merchants.

The terms of three members of the board, Mrs. Helen French, K. D. Hall and Leon P. Williamson expired with the year's end. E. C. Heilman tendered his resignation, because of the press of other business. On motion, the by-laws were suspended and the membership voted to name successors. Ten names were submitted and those chosen were R. W. Herrick, Robert H. Moore, C. O. Butler and Earl Wickwire. The board will meet within a few days to elect officers. Members of the board whose terms did not expire are Mr. Wright, Ed Boss, Donald Nixon, Mr. Comfort and Clarence Beach.

It was announced that approximately $3,000 in pledges and cash for 1952 dues already had been received.

The dinner was served by the ladies of the Presbyterian church. The Rev. B. O. Bashore asked the invocation and group singing was led by Mr. Butler with Mrs. Sluyter at the piano.

Methodist "Link Meetings" Are Proving Successful

Under the Progressive Visitation Program in the Tecumseh Methodist church, planned by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, several "links" have been completed. Mrs. R. J. McCoy, Mrs. W. G. Waldron, Mrs. Jennie Temple, Mrs. Floyd Elliott, Mrs. Luther Wood, and Mrs. E. E. Duvall have entertained small groups in their homes for the purpose of becoming better acquainted. Additional "link meetings" will be held during the next week by several hostesses. Mrs. Robert Bonner, tht president, is pleased with the findings of these meetings.

The plan was initiated by the Women's division of Christian Service and is being used in the Methodist churches all over the nation. It is hoped that all Methodist women can take the time to attend the link meeting to which she is invited.

MAC ARTHUR URGES CURBS ON MILITARY

Washington—Gen. Douglas MacArthur cautions that civilian control over the military should be strengthened to prevent "freedom's destruction."

Writing in the American Legion Magazine, he particularly mentioned universal military training as a program over which civilian direction should be paramount.

Congress already has laid the groundwork for UMT. Further legislation needed to put it into effect is scheduled to come before the lawmakers early next year. Policy control of the training would be under the direction of a five-man commission, three of whom must be civilians.

District 7 has indicated that it will permit the annexation, which probably will take place within a month.

"I was surprised at the small vote cast," Faye Van Valkenburg, a member of the District 5 board, said. "However," he continued, "I guess that everyone well understood that it was the only economical move that the district could make." The board had gone on record earlier, favoring annexation.

A-Steam Power Likely In1952

FURTHER HARNESSING OF ATOMIC ENERGY IS EXPECTED VERY SHORTLY

New York—The United States' first atomic power—steam electricity at Arco, Idaho—is expected in the first six months of 1952.

This will come from a new kind of reactor, a pile of concrete-shielded uranium in which atoms split. This reactor is housed in a very ordinary - looking building about the size of a large church.

The building has been completed for a year. The reactor inside it started only recently. There are no details of any sort, because this is one of the most secret reactors ever built, and is the most important.

This is the reactor which will show whether a theory is correct.

Two uranium isotopes are now known — isotopes U-235 and U-238. U-238 is some 140 times as plentiful as U-235. However, U-235 is capable of fission or splitting apart and U-238 is not. In present reactors U-235 is fissioned to produce neutrons, tiny electrically neutral subatomic particles, which convert the U-238 into plutonium, the fissionable material used in the atomic bomb.

In present practice less plutonium is produced than the amount of U-235 needed. However, the theory indicates that it is possible to produce more plutonium and other fissionable materials than the amount of U-235 consumed.

This is what the new reactor has been built to try to do. If it is successful, the world's supply of atomic fuel will be automatically increased more than a hundredfold, for it will then be possible to convert all the U-238 for such a purpose.

If this new reactor fails, the prospects of an atomic age will fade until something besides atom splitting is discovered. Uranium is too scarce to be a world power supply, unless it can breed new fuel in this arco reactor.

There is a special reason for producing power in this small breeder, even though the power will be insignificant. For breeding will be almost useless unless it is done in the great plants which will produce industrial atomic power.

Only the success of plutonium-splitting will assure the world of large amounts of atomic power.

And even then there will be a limit, just as there now is to our coal and oil resources. If breeding succeeds, then the world's raw uranium promises ten times more power than from all the coal and oil. And that's all it promises. If breeding also can make uranium-233, then the atomic power supply can be estimated as maybe 50 times larger than known coal and oil.

That will be enough for our times, but it won't last long in the power requirements of the future.

Two future steps in power already are under preparation in the work and studies of the breeder and the other atomic reactors. One is to take power from some other reaction than atom splitting.

The other is power from the sun. This will not come from concentrating the sun's rays, but from indirect methods. One such method already is in the works, thanks to the aid of the radio-active atoms manufactured in atomic reactors. This is knowledge of how green plants gather hydrogen from water.

If natural science can imitate the cheap and easy way a green plant gets hydrogen, then the seven seas will become almost inexhaustible sources of hydrogen power, made by the aid of the sun.

A little more than 50 miles overhead is perhaps the world's greatest reservoir of electricity. This reservior is the miles and miles of ionized air produced by the sun's rays, and constantly renewed by these rays. The reactor studies are looking for ways to change radioactivity and ionization directly into electricity. These may lead to a means of tapping our overhead sources of electrical sun power.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Experienced Hand Wanted

Cappy Miller's back from visiting relatives and tells about a big snow storm that knocked out the electric power for miles around.

Naturally, the local power company was doing everything possible to restore service but folks kept calling in and one woman gave them a new twist.

"I don't mind not having lights," she grumbled, "but I've got 20 cows in my barn and they all have to be milked by machine. Nobody around here knows how to milk a cow by hand any more."

From where I sit, it's only too easy to forget how to do something—even as simple as milking a cow—if we don't keep at it. And that goes for practicing tolerance, too. Like forgetting our neighbor has a right to decide for himself whether or not to enjoy a temperate glass of beer. If we don't keep the other fellow's point of view in mind we're all liable to get "snowed under" by intolerance.

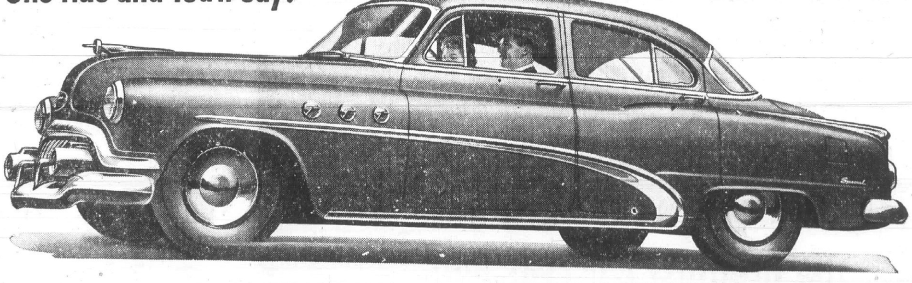
One ride and You'll say:



"That's the Smartest Million Dollars BUICK Ever Spent"

WHEN we tell you that every 1952 Buick rides like a million dollars, we're not just slinging slang—we're talking real money—right-on-the-barrelhead cash.

A million dollars and more were poured into research and testing—design and tools—engineering, production and components—to team up the combination of ride features you'll find on a Buick—and on no other car in the world.

A million dollars and more was the price paid to work out control of end-sway and side-roll on curves—to double-check vertical "throw" with shock absorbers and big soft-acting coil springs for all four wheels—to V-brace the torque-tube keel and X-brace the frame—to cushion body and engine—and to silk out the whole operation with Dynaflow Drive.*

You may not care how the job was done, or what it cost. But we'll lay you this:

You're going to say "thanks a million" to Buick engineers once you get this spirited smoothie under your hands and haunches.

Old familiar roads take on a new smoothness. Gone are the weave and wander, the jitter and jounce that you've felt in lesser cars. You ride with road-hugging assurance and level ease.

All of which only begins to tell you what really great cars these 1952 Buicks turned out to be.

Never before have style and stamina—comfort and character—power, performance and price been brought together with such satisfying skill.

The obvious thing for you to do is come in and look them over. How about taking half an hour off to do that—today?

Property Taxes Small Part Of Village Income

TECUMSEH NEEDS NEARLY $187,000 TO OPERATE DURING THE YEAR OF 1952

Those people who are of the opinion that operating the village of Tecumseh is "small business," that the few thousands of dollars that are paid into its treasury through real estate and personal property taxes are the sole source of Tecumseh's income—those folk are in for a rude awakening if they'll take time to look over the estimated budget for the Village for the year 1952.

Actually, Tecumseh will receive less than half the money it needs to operate the business of the Village this year from real and personal taxes.

Here are the figures: The estimated income from real estate taxes totals $52,218, and from personal property taxes, $24,729, or a total of a little less than $77,000. Actually, the budget calls for a total expenditure of $186,758.80, or more than $100,000 in excess of the two property taxes.

How will the village get the money? From other revenues, from other sources of income. For example, it expects to collect $21,000 in sales tax diversion money; $2,300 from justice court fines and costs; $700 from liquor license fees; $500 from rural fire calls; $300 from permits and licenses; $400 from delinquent taxes; $6,200 from intangible taxes; $500 from gasoline tax refunds; $1,600 from miscellaneous items and outside labor. But the total of all of these items, including the property and personal taxes, amounts to only $110,447, so there still must be other income of about $75,000.

This needed revenue will come from weight and gas taxes, kicked back by the state; curb and gutter taxes; sidewalk taxes; and repairs on M-50-52, again paid by the state, which will total $27,300. In addition, the water department, from all sources, expects a revenue of $39,000, and the income of the sewer department in permits and other items, should total $550. The garbage department also should have an income of about $7,200,

Indians Lose To Sugar Boys

TECUMSEH CAGERS SUFFER FIRST DEFEAT OF SEASON ON BLISSFIELD COURT

With pieces of their own scalps missing after a nip-and-tuck game with Blissfield, last Friday evening, Tecumseh high school Indian cagers—a bit humiliated—prepared to take the floor here tomorrow evening against Pittsford in the twelfth LCAA contest of the season. The varsity game Friday evening will be played at the Central gym, starting at 8 o'clock.

The Sugar Boys tripped Tecumseh in a contest there last Friday, defeating the Indians for the first time this season. The score was 57 to 49.

Tecumseh is still in undisputed first place in the league, with 10 wins and one defeat to its credit. However, Blissfield is still a dangerous contender for pennant honors, with nine victories in 11 starts. Two wins by Tecumseh in the remaining three games of play would give the Indians a clinch on a tie for the title, assuming that Blissfield won all three of its remaining contests.

The Indians still must play Pittsford here tomorrow evening, then meet Addison and Summerfield on their home floors. It is expected that Coach Duvall's men will prove easy victors here, Friday. Difficulties are not expected at Summerfield but at Addison—

TWO LOCAL PATROLMEN TENDER RESIGNATIONS

Patrolmen Robert Groff and Wayne Gilhouse, members of the Tecumseh police force, have tendered their resignations, effective immediately, Chief of Police M. E. Clark announced today.

Chief Clark said that replacements to fill the vacancy had not been selected, and that temporarily, part-time patrolmen would serve.

The other member of the force, besides the chief, is Sgt. Wayne Schulze.

TO RE-ORGANIZE REVENUE BUREAU . . . President Truman, shown conferring with Treasury Secretary John Snyder, recently ordered "sweeping re-organization of the scandal-rocked internal revenue bureau," wiping out the offices of all 64 internal revenue collectors. Mr. Truman directed the treasury secretary to proceed immediately with re-organization of the bureau, where widespread graft and bribery scandals have been bared.

Moore Is Named Head of Chamber

SAYS COOPERATION OF ALL RESIDENTS NEEDED IF TECUMSEH IS TO SUCCEED

The success of the Chamber of Commerce—the success of Tecumseh, itself, if it is to continue to grow and to meet the demands of its aggressive industry—depends upon the cooperation of its residents, Robert H. Moore, newly elected president of the Chamber, declared today.

"In urging cooperation, I do not mean that this is the job of the business and professional men and women of the community, alone. It is the job of every resident of the community. When all of us are so sold on Tecumseh that we are proud that we live here, proud to be a part of the community; when all of us have our shoulders to the wheel, pushing for success, we will have very little to worry about as to our future," Mr. Moore said.

The newly elected president of the Chamber pledged himself to give of his time and effort freely and willingly in setting forth an ambitious program for 1952. However, he pointed out that the task that confronts the organization cannot be accomplished by its officers and its board, alone, but through the cooperation of the membership.

"We must feel that to live in

NO SCHOOL, FRIDAY

The youngsters get a break Friday—there's no school. But the teachers are less fortunate. The reason for the public school recess is to permit teachers to attend the Lenawee County Institute, in Adrian. Insructors from all public schools in the county will be present. Del Crisp, local adult education director, will attend a coordinator's meeting in Lansing, Friday.

I will be at the United Savings Bank each Saturday until March 1, 1952, for collection of township taxes, dog taxes and Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance. Will also accept payment by check or money order, mailed to my residence, 211 W. Brown street, Tecumseh. Lawrence Mohr, twp. treas. Adv. 3-52

Smoke Is Given Life Sentence

SLAYER OF WIFE DRAWS TERM IN JACKSON PRISON; 2ND MURDER COUNT WAITS

Elton Smoke, 45-year-old resident of Wolf Lake and a Tecumseh factory employee, was sentenced to spend the rest of his life in Southern Michigan Prison, Monday. Sentence was imposed by Circuit Judge G. Arthur Rathbun.

Smoke was accused of murdering his estranged wife, Frances, 45, in the home of her niece, Mrs. Gerald Roberts in Tecumseh, last fall. He then turned the gun on Mrs. Roberts, injuring her fatally, and then shot himself in the head. He recovered quickly from his injuries.

In the circuit court on January 24, Smoke was convicted of first degree murder, after pleading guilty to the charge two days earlier. A hearing was held by the court to determine the degree of the crime.

A murder charge is still pending against Smoke, that of killing Mrs. Roberts. Rex Martin, prosecuting attorney, said that this count would probably never be brought James McDowell, superintendent here, said that the transfer would be made within the specified time.

Peoples Party Caucus, Feb. 19

RETIRING OFFICERS, INCLUDING PRESIDENT ELLIOTT, MAY BE RENOMINATED

The Peoples Party, on which ticket President J. Floyd Elliott and three members of the village council were elected two years ago, will hold its pre-election caucus on Tuesday evening, February 19, in the Council Building on South Evans street. The caucus is called for 7:30.

The terms of President Elliott and Trustees E. C. Heilman, J. H. Rohweder and Howard Truesdale expire with the coming election, as do the terms of Robert Kroner, clerk, T. J. Wagner, assessor, and Mrs. Myrna Tingley, treasurer. All present officers were elected on the Peoples ticket.

Although definite statements were not forthcoming today, it is indicated that members of the entire group will permit their names to be resubmitted for nomination, and that they will be candidates to succeed themselves at the March 10 village election.

The three members of the council whose terms do not expire this year are Trustees Carl Fosbender, Charles Mensing and Archie Porter. Their terms of office hold until March of 1953.

The Peoples Party is the only party yet to indicate a caucus in Tecumseh prior to the March election. Unless a caucus is held, only one ticket may be in the field when voters go to the polls next month.

Seitz Is Guilty Of Slaying Wife

CIRCUIT COURT JURY CONVICTS LOCAL PLUMBER OF SECOND DEGREE MURDER

Charles Seitz, jr., 28-year-old local plumber, was convicted of second degree murder by a jury in Circuit Judge G. Arthur Rathbun's court at Adrian, Tuesday evening. He was remanded to the custody of the sheriff to await sentence. Michigan law does not fix a mandatory prison term for second degree murder. The sentence is determined by the court.

The Seitz case had been on trial for nearly 10 days in the circuit court. It was given to the jury about 3 p.m., Tuesday. At about 6 o'clock the jurors went out to dinner and the verdict was returned at 8:10.

Seitz was charged with murdering his wife, Donna Jean, in their home here, Christmas night, after a family argument, and while their

Lenawee Polio Drive Will End On Friday

Lenawee county's campaign to raise funds for the March of Dimes will end officially on Friday, February 15, Mrs. George Quick, Tecumseh chairman, said today. However, there is still time for those who care to contribute to put their money in cannisters, to be found in the stores, or to make a gift directly to the chairman. One or two more benefit parties are scheduled for dates later this month, among them the Rotary-Exchange sponsored dance, February 23 at Legion Memorial Home.

A complete report of the money received from all sources in Tecumseh will be made in the near future, Mrs. Quick said. An additional $10,000 is needed by the Fund in Lenawee, it was said, to meet rising costs in medical care for persons afflicted.

SIX OUT OF EVERY 10 PRODUCTS' PAYCHECKS DO NOT STAY IN TECUMSEH

Survey Reveals 60% Of $10,000,000 Payroll Goes To Other Towns

About six out of every 10 paychecks issued by the Tecumseh Products Company go to employees who do not reside in Tecumseh. Last year, Products' payroll amounted to $10,000,000.

Approximately 900 of Products' 2,500 employees actually live in Tecumseh, a breakdown of the records at the manufacturing plant reveals. Nearly 300 of the employees live in Adrian, more than 100 in each Dundee, Britton, Clinton and Blissfield and there are lesser numbers living in more than a score of other communities, some of them as far distant as Metamora and Berkey, Ohio.

The small number of the members of its "family" who actually live in Tecumseh was revealed by Products' president, Ray W. Herrick, when he spoke last week to the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. At that time, Mr. Herrick declared that should his firm decide to solidify its position and manufacture all of the products it now buys elsewhere, at home, Tecumseh could be a town of 35,000 people. Herrick urged that business men recognize this fact and prepare for a steady growth in Tecumseh.

Two Are Killed In Auto Mishap

THREE OTHERS HURT WHEN CAR AND TRUCK CRASH ON ICY ROAD NEAR ADRIAN

A man and a woman were killed and three others were hurt, late last week Wednesday afternoon, in a car-truck accident at the north city limit of Adrian on M-52.

Killed instantly was Mrs. Della Dangler, 74, of Route 1, Tecumseh, a passenger in a car driven by Ralph E. Dazey, 59, of Route 3, Adrian. Mr. Dazey was fatally injured and died soon after his arrival at Bixby Hospital, Adrian.

The injured are Mrs. Martha Dazey, 54, wife of the driver of the car; Dorothy Dazey, 25, a daughter and one of the passengers; and David Sallows, 35, a passenger in the truck. Walter E. Clark, 51, of Route 1, Adrian, driver of the pick-up truck involved in the crash, escaped without injury.

Mrs. Dazey suffered severe head and face injuries and body bruises. Mr. Sallows also suffered cuts and bruises. Miss Dazey was treated for face cuts and head injuries and was then released. She reentered the hospital again, however, Friday night.

Police said that the Dazey car was going north on North Main street when Mr. Dazey apparently lost control as the vehicle skidded on the icy pavement. The car slid directly into the path of the oncoming pick-up.

At the time of the accident, police said, it was snowing and the highway was wet and slippery.

Both the car and the truck were badly damaged. Mrs. Dangler was thrown from the car to the pavement.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dangler were held from the Tipton Community Church, Sunday afternoon with the Rev. A. Jeschke, pastor of Grace Luheran church, Tecumseh, officiating. The body was first taken to the Green Funeral Home here and on Friday to her farm home, three and a half miles northwest of here. Mrs. Vera Driffill of Tipton was the soloist and burial was in Tipton cemetery. The bearers were Raymond and

School District Annexation Vote Significant

The electors of School District No. 5, by a vote of thirty to one, have asked that their district be annexed to School District No. 7, which includes the Village of Tecumseh.

There are an estimated 400 eligible voters in District No. 5, but only 93 of that number took time to cast their ballots, last week Tuesday. Only three of that number opposed the annexation.

In our opinion, the vote in District No. 5 was significant, in that it indicated a trend in the thinking of the folk who are Tecumseh's neighbors. It showed, it seems, clearly, that the folk who reside in the so-called fringe areas of the Village are coming to realize that Tecumseh is growing up, that it does, as a result of this growth, have distinct advantages to offer and that, after all, a merger of the two school districts was the only sensible solution to an economic problem that faced both districts.

Public schools, we must remember, are a MUST in the American way of life. They are the very foundation of democracy. Constantly we are striving for better schools, and better educated children. All of this costs money but we, as parents, are demanding it, believing that it is our only assurance of freedom. District No. 5 recognized that with an estimated $700,000 assessed valuation it was impossible for the district to build and operate the type of school system its children—next door to Tecumseh—should have and enjoy. They recognized that through a merger of the districts and the pooling of the assets, a much finer school would be possible.

It seems to us that District No. 7, which includes the Village of Tecumseh, had no alternative other than to open its doors to District No. 5. After all, the folk who live in this adjoining district are our neighbors and our friends. They shop here, their children have been and are coming to school here—on a tuition-paying basis. In a sense, all of us are a part of the Tecumseh that is growing up, a Tecumseh that within a few years may expand even farther.

The residents of Tecumseh must remember these things as Tecumseh continues to grow. We must recognize that the larger we get, the more responsibility we must assume. Operating a village of a city is no different than operating a home or a business. A father who has half a dozen children has more problems than the man who has only one child; a community of 5,000 has more to worry about than a town of 2,000.

We cannot control the growth of a healthy, attractive and up-and-coming community any more than we can control the number of children who will be born in the nation in the year 1952. And we shouldn't be able to do it. We should be happy that our community is growing, that it is an attractive place in which to live and to bring up our families, and that it is a good place in which to earn a living.

When the time arrives that Tecumseh does not desire to grow, that it does not care to assume added responsibility; when it feels that it can be self-contained, and can close its doors to its neighbors and friends, then, we think would be a good time to liquidate our assests and move to another community. When you stop progress, you have killed your town.

For nearly four years we have been discussing a program to expand our village limits and to change our form of government from that of a village to a city. We believe that there are distinct advantages to city form of government. The number of villages in Michigan that have changed to city form in the past ten years—and are happy about it—should be sufficient proof.

We also believe that there are advantages in extending the boundaries of the present village, and we also believe that once the folk who live in the fringe areas think it through, they, too, will agree. Five years ago, we doubt that the residents of School District No. 5 would have voted to merge with District No. 7. Last week they voted to do it, 30 to 1.

Tecumseh and its neighbors in the fringe areas should get together and talk about the problems that are common to both of them. They should discuss problems of the future—do some long-range planning.

Enlarging Tecumseh's boundaries will present, to be sure, new and greater problems to the folk who live inside and outside the present Tecumseh. However, we also believe that there are advantages to both groups.

Certainly there is a common ground on which to meet if the proper leadership can be found to do the job.

Power Steering, too!

It looks like a "POWER YEAR"

New Horsepower—new Brake Power—and new Power Steering blossom on Buick's ROADMASTER for 1952

MAYBE you've heard—horsepower has hit a new high on the ROADMASTER.

Brake power has done the same.

But today, we'd like to concentrate on the third member of the power trio—Buick's own version of Power Steering, available on ROADMASTERS at a moderate extra cost.

What is this Power Steering like? It's something like a helping hand, something like a "hydraulic slave"—that relieves you of all steering strain, but lets you keep command.

What we mean is this:

Power Steering is handled by a special hydraulic unit—and engineers can design this unit to take over any amount of steering effort—even to a point where the wheel seems to float in your hand.

But in that case, you'd surrender all control to that hydraulic unit—get no steering "feel" from the wheel.

Now suppose you're telling two agile tons of automobile what to do in traffic. We think you'd like to have it know that you're in command.

And—out on the straightaway—we believe that a part of the joy you get from owning a Buick is the sensation of having something alive and eagerly willing beneath your hands.

So we're glad to announce that Buick engineers didn't spoil this thrill. They've kept the fun of driving, and simply eased the effort.

When you're rolling along smooth and straight, it takes almost no effort to keep any Buick on course. It almost steers itself, as every Buick owner knows.

But—when you want to get away from a curb—back into a parking spot—make a turn—Buick's Power Steering comes into action, saves four-fifths of the effort required with ordinary steering. Power Steering does the extra work.

And—in case you wonder what happens if Power Steering gets out of kilter, the answer is nothing. Your Buick steers just as it always has.

That's why we've been saying, "This is Power Steering as it ought to be."

Come in. Try it out. We think you'll agree.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Sure is true for '52

The 25th Silver Anniversary of Abi Evans chapter, D. A. R., was observed Friday afternoon, at 1 o'clock, with a two-course luncheon served in the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian church by the Westminster Guild. Forty-two members and guests were seated at tables decorated with spring flowers in silver containers and candles in silver holders. The state officers were guests and were presented with white corsages tied with silver ribbons.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Burtsel Claus, regent, presided at the business meeting. The sum of $5 was voted to the Polio Fund. A communication from the new radio chairman was read. She was on station WABJ, Monday afternoon, February 11, at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Hoyt Whelan and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw were named as representatives to the Continental Congress in Washington in April. Pomeroy of Ann Arbor, regent; Mrs. James Farber of Flint, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Earl Mastick of Milford, resigtrar, were introduced and responded with birthday greetings to the chapter.

Thirteen regents have served and three have become state officers. Three pages have been sent to the Continental Congress in Washington. Mrs. Dickinson read numerous congratulations from various members, officers and organizations. Property Taxes and the cemetery department's income is expected to be about $2,200. In adidtion, the parking meter revenue should total about $5,600.

And the village must have this income—nearly $200,000—if it is to operate in the black during the fiscal year of 1952, according to Charles Mensing, chairman of the Council's finance committee. Mr. Mensing has submitted the estimated budget of receipts and expenditures to the Council, preparatory to establishing the tax rate for 1952. Village taxes will be payable in July and, barring unexpected expenses, the rate this year is expected to be $15 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

Why does the Village need of such an amount to carry on the business of Tecumseh? The budget shows that there are dozens and dozens of expenses, many of them, perhaps, never recognized by the average taxpayer.

Of course, top-flight administration costs vary, very little. The president and members of the village council—there are seven all together—get the "large" sum of $600. Stret lights cost $5,000, clerk hire totals about $6,000, the assessor gets $650, and $2,400 goes as the Village's share of maintaining Recreation Center. Then, of course, there's fuel to buy, elections to be held, legal services, audit services, building improvements and many, many other items seldom thought about in the operation of a village.

It is estimated that it will cost partment this year, and $9,140 to $23,325 to operate the police demaintain the fire department.

In the highway department the estimated expense is $55,500. Of this amount is $6,250, the village's share in 1952 of resurfacing Chicago Boulevard within the corporate limits. This work is to be done by the State Highway Department at a cost of $25,000 and the Village is to pay for the expense in four annual installments.

It is expected that the Water Department will cost the village a total of $28,320. With an estimated income of $39,000, this department should show a small profit.

The Sewer Department will need $12,560 against an estimated income of $550. This money is needed to pay salaries, and $8,500 estimated for a storm sewer on Brown street.

It is expected that the Garbage Department will operate at a loss. The cost of this collection service, including payroll, gas, oil and repairs, is $9,100 against an estimated income of $7,200.

The Cemetery Department also will show a loss with estimated expenses of $8,680 against an income of $2,200.

The Parking Meter Fund will show a profit, the estimated expense in that department being $1,000 against an income of $5,600.

The sum of $1,340 is needed to retire bonds and pay interest on bonds outstanding against Herrick Memorial Hospital.

There is $285,000 in the Sewage Disposal Plant fund, realized from the sale of bonds, last October. This plant is to be started soon, and the retirement of the first of the bonds, plus interest, must be taken into consideration. Of course, the village has the $285,000 in cash, so that item does not worry taxpayers, other than amounts needed to meet the bond payments and the interest. Interest and principal payments this year amount to $8,550.05, and the first payment in 1953, $2,618.75. Both of these items are figured into the 1952 budget.

"In this budget we have purposefully kept our estimates of income on a conservative basis, because of the general unsettled economic conditions," the finance company informs the council.

"We feel that significant progress has been made in the financial information submitted to the Council at each meeting since we set up the first village detailed budget last spring. eW think this budget is as comprehensive and accurate as possible, in view of our requirements," Mr. Mensing and his committee concdules.

Moore Is Named

Tecumseh, where standards are high, is a privilege; we must learn to shop FIRST in Tecumseh where stores are well-stocked, and where merchants are anxious to serve; we must learn that to be a citizen of Tecumseh entails cooperation and help," he said.

"We want every man and woman in business in Tecumseh to be a member of the Chamber of Commerce, and to be active in its functions. We want to hold membership meetings at least every other-month. We are open to constructive criticism and suggestions for the benefit of everyone, business man and resident alike. This is our town, the place where all of us earn a living; where we go to church and mingle with our friends and neighbors. It is only logical to conclude, then, that the thing that helps some of us helps all of us. That will be our aim in the coming year," the president concluded.

The board of the Chamber, with four recently elected members, met Monday evening for organization. Mr. Moore, head of the R. S. Moore & Son Co., lumber dealers was chosen as president. C. O. Butler of Butler Motor Sales, was named vice president; Donald Nixon, manager of the Quaker Oats Co., was named as temporary secretary, and Ralph Comfort, owner of the Comfort Brick and Tile Co., was re-elected treasurer. Other members of the board are R. W. Herrick, president of Tecumseh Products Co., Clarence Beach, of Beach's Service, William Wright of the C. A. Wright & Son drug store, Edward Boss of the Tresco Corp., and Earl Wickwire, of The Tecumseh Herald.

It was decided that a full-time secretary would not be chosen immediately to succeed Ronald Harris, who resigned January 1. The Chamber offices will continue in the Sage Building, with Mr. Nixon and possibly an assistant in charge until such time as a new active secretary is elected.

The board discussed many plans for the promotion of Tecumseh and another meeting will be held next Tuesday evening.

The reorganization meeting followed a general meeting of the Chamber's membership, last week Monday evening in the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian church. At that time, four new members of the board were chosen and reports of organizational progress was made.

Mr. Herrick was the principal speaker of the evening, discussing of the plans that his company has for the future.

Seitz Is Guilty

three small children were asleep in a near-by bedroom. Seitz said that his wife told him that she had found another man, that she intended to take the house and their children, and that he should get out. It was charged that he killed her with a deer rifle, which he later threw into the River Raisin.

Seitz at first denied the murder but later admitted it to police. In court he entered an insaniy plea and three psychiatrists were called, two by the prosecution and one by the defense. Seitz, a World War II soldier, according to his doctor, suffered from a "fatigue neurosis." Other doctors testified that he may have been affected by a war neurosis.

When Seitz will be sentenced, only the court knows. A probation report must first be obtained.

which school has a cracker box size floor—the Tecumseh boys might run into trouble.

The Beet Boys, too, have three dangerous opponents ahead. They must play Morenci, Hudson and Clinton and all of those teams are gunning for the Blissfield scalp. Should the Sugars drop a single contest, they would be counted out of the running.

The Indians found the small Blissfield court to a distinct disadvantage in play there, Friday. From almost the first whistle, the Beet Boys had command of the contest. The first quarter ended in a 7 to 15 score in favor of Blissfield and at half time the score was 18 to 28 with Blissfield on the long end. At the end of the third stanza, Tecumseh's score stood at 37 to Blissfield's 43. In the last quarter, the Indians made 12 points to the Beet Boys' 14.

A packed house of more than 800 saw the contest. The gymnasium was filled to capacity and about 15 minutes before the game-time it was necessary to lock the doors and deny further admission. Nearly 300 fans from Tecumseh accompanied the team to Blissfield.

Wanted: One First Class Crystal Ball!

Serving folks for almost a century now, we like to think we're pretty good at knowing just what they want and how to please 'em best. But experience and intuition can go just so far.

Sometimes we think we could use a "crystal ball" to find out if customers have "something on their mind" they're not telling us—that we don't know, but should—in order to serve them better.

Have you something on your mind that concerns us? We'd appreciate knowing it—then the crystal ball won't be necessary. Please write:

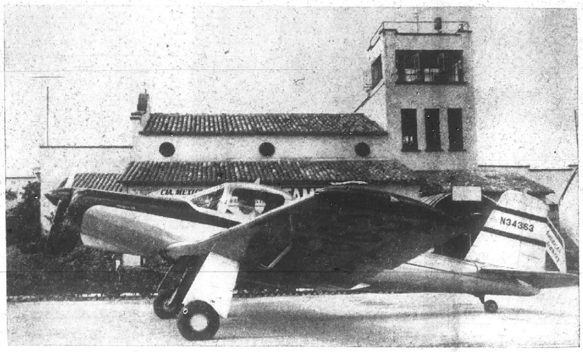
MEYERS AIRCRAFT COMPANY MAY DOUBLE ITS PAYROLL BY MID-SUMMER

New 4-Place Ship Seen As Answer To Need For Low-Cost Flying



Pictured above is the Meyers 145 airplane, which has made history for Meyers Aircraft Company here, the only remaining personal plane builder in Michigan. The Meyers 145 now is to have a big brother, the Meyers 185, a four-place ship which will have a cruising speed of 170 miles an hour at a cost of about 20-miles-to-the-gallon of gasoline. Photo above was taken at an airport in Mexico.

Michigan's only airplane manufacturing concern — Meyers Aircraft of Tecumseh—is developing a new 4-place ship that is expected to fulfill a long-felt need in the industry and, during 1952, double the employment roll of the company.

Meyers now is operating on a plane-a-month schedule. Within 30 days, this program will be stepped up to two planes a month and other departments at Meyers also will accelerate. These include the jeep top section of the plant and the metals fabricating department, where sub-contracts for defense are in production.

"We have great faith in our new 4-place ship," a spokesman for the Meyers company said. "Four-place planes today are much in demand, they are about as economical to operate as two-place ships; and they are far more functional."

The Meyers company is 11 years old and, strangely enough, it is the only remaining personal plane building concern in Michigan. Its ships have a world-wide reputation for speed, economy and operation and only last week one of its planes was delivered to Brazil.

The new 4-place job, the Meyers 185, will be ready for testing in about six weeks. Once it has received official government approval, line production will be started. There is still a steady call, of course, for the Meyers 145, the 2-place ship that has made the company's product so popular, but the emphasis in 1952 will be on the new model, it was pointed out.

"The busy executive is demanding faster transportation," it was said at Meyers. "He wants to get somewhere and back again in a hurry and, often he wants to take some of his personnel with him. Our new 4-place ship will make this possible. Heavier ships cost owners far more in investment, and, too, they are much more costly to operate and maintain. Our new 4-place ship will operate almost as cheaply as our present 2-place job."

The new Meyers will be powered with a 185 horsepower Continental motor. It will have a range of about 1,000 miles, a cruising speed of between 167 and 170 miles an hour, and will not be a great deal larger than the Meyers 145.

It will have a tricycle landing gear that is retractable and many other features that make it very attractive.

"Our correspondence shows," it was said at Meyers, "that more and more families are flying now than ever before. Air-minded husbands want a ship that will take their wives and families on week-end vacations. Daily we receive dozens and dozens of letters pointing out this need in aviation."

Since its inception, Meyers has

Baptists Seek To Swell Church's Building Fund

Members of the Baptist church are bending every effort to boost the church's building fund, established for the purpose of enlarging the present Sunday School rooms. During the past few months, Sunday School enrollment at the church has increased so rapidly that expansion is necessary.

One of the projects to raise funds is a paper drive, to be held on Saturday, February 23. Anyone having waste paper should contact phone 162M for pick-up.

Saturday, March 1, ladies of the church will unite for an all-church bake sale, to be held in the McConnell showrooms. On March 7, groups are cooperating for a rummage sale to be held at Weatherman's.

Members are asked to bring used clothing, shoes, dishes and other household discards to the church kitchen this week or early next week, so that they may be prepared for the sale. For donation pickup, calls should be made to 162M.

Herrick Memorial Hospital Has An Enviable Financial Position

Herrick Memorial Hospital, which now has a net worth of $163,139.47, has cost the taxpayers $31,500 in the 13½ years of its existance, has done more than $1,000,000 worth of business, has paid out more than half a million dollars in salaries and wages, and has operated during that entire period with a "book loss" of only $5,227.24, the Village Council was advised on Monday, in a summary of income and expenses.

Actually, the hospital has operated "in the black," so to speak, because in the life of the institution $32,926.46 has been charged off for depreciation. Not taking the depreciation figure into consideration, the hospital has made a profit of about $27,000.

The report shows that during the hospital's life it has cared for 34,042 patients, for a total of 145,600 patient days. A total of 3,790 babies were born in the institution.

Tecumseh Wins From Pittsford

ONLY TWO GAMES STILL REMAIN ON SCHEDULE; INDIANS LIKELY LCAA VICTORS

With the eleventh LCAA cage scalp dangling from their belts, the Tecumseh high school Indians were one step nearer to the League pennant today after last Friday's tilt with Pittsford which resulted in a 71 to 32 victory. The Indians still must play Addison and Summerfield, both on their home floors, before the season ends.

The Indians now have a definite preference for the LCAA title. With 11 victories and one defeat, all that they need do is to win one out of the two remaining contests to tie for first honors. Two wins would give them undisputed league supremacy.

Blissfield, the only other contender for the League title, was idle last Friday night, due to a cancellation of a game with Morenci. The contest, however, was played Tuesday evening. The

Sgt. Pike has spent five years in safety service for the police department, working in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana. His program, while driving home a punch for safety need, is highly entertaining. It includes considerable magic.

Pike was brought to Tecumseh through the efforts of the public schools and the police department. The expense was borne by the Tecumseh Products Co.

Robert Coffey, Aged 32, Buried In Brookside

Robert Ellis Coffey, aged 32 years, died at Herrick Memorial Hospital at 8:01 a.m., Sunday morning, where he had been a patient for the past eight weeks. He was born, September 4, 1919, in Detorit, and graduated from Tecumseh high school with the class of 1936. In 1944-45 he was in the Merchant Marine and for the past five years was employed by Nash Kelvinator in Detroit. He was preceded in death by his father, Elmer Coffey, 22 years ago.

Survivors are his wife, Christine Miller Coffey, and his mother, Mrs. Grace Coffey of Tecumseh; six sisters, Mrs. Vera White of Toledo, Mrs. Thelma Groening of Grosse Pointe Farms, Mrs. Vivian Liddell of Skokie, Ill., Mrs. Wenonah Price of Monroe, Mrs. Betty Spangler of Northville, and Mrs. Marrella Smith of Adrian; five brothers, Elmer, jr., of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, Jack of Dearborn, Lieut. Charles G. of the Navy Air Force in Korea, Lee P. of Orlando, Florida, and Jerry Wayne of Tecumseh. Several aunts, uncles and cousins also survive.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, February 20, at 2:30 at the Collins Funeral Home. The Fev. Alvin Brazee officiated. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Chamber Board Makes Plans For Coming Year

The full membership of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce met at the Council Building, Tuesday evening, to formulate plans for the organization during the year 1952. Robert H. Moore, president, presided.

William Wright is chairman of the membership drive, and he reported a steady increase in the member roster. An effort will be made to make every business and professional man or woman in Tecumseh a participant in the Chamber's program.

Special activities for 1952, including a Fourth of July program, were discussed. Mrs. Ruby Jones will act, temporarily, as recording secretary, in the offices in the Sage building.

The next meeting of the board will be a luncheon meeting at the Country Club on Thursday at 12:15, February 28.

FBI AGENT SPEAKS TO THE ROTARY CLUB

Marcus E. Sharpe of Hudson, special agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was the speaker at the regular dinner meeting of the Rotary Club, Tuesday evening at the Country Club. Mr. Sharpe was the guest of Herbert Dillon.

The special agent explained the work of the F.B.I., tracing its activities from the time of its inception under the direction of J. Edgar Hoover. The program was very interesting and educational.

Guests at the meeting included Lloyd Rhein and Vern Manwaring.

Water Rates Are Advanced

MINIMUM CHARGE PER QUARTER TO USERS IS INCREASED BY 25 CENTS

Users will find a slight advance in water rates here, effective with the next billing, as a result of action taken by the Council at its meeting, Monday evening.

On all bills, the minimum charge for water will be increased from $2.25 to $2.50, quarterly, an increase of $1 a year to consumers. The water meter rental, payable semi-annually, also will be advanced from 25 to 50 cents. A penalty of 10% will be added for delinquent payment.

It was pointed out that this is the first water rate increase that the village has made in more than 30 years, to average consumers. Operating costs have risen sharply, and it is hoped that the increase will compensate for a part of added expenses.

Council approved the leasing of a strip of ground immediately north of Butler Motor Sales on Pearl street, to Butler Motors. The strip has 75-foot frontage on Pearl, and is the width of the Butler building. C. O. Butler also leased to the village a section of land back of his building for parking purposes. The lease runs for six years.

A. W. Porter was named to the Recreation Council's committee for a term expiring July 1, and Charles Mensing to a term expiring in July, 1953. A board of election officials for the March 10 election also was named.

Council went on record as opposing two bills now before the legislature that would fix the hours of firemen and policemen, claiming that such a law would interfere with the village's home rule rights.

3-Family House Razed By Fire

APARTMENT AT 216 SOUTH UNION DAMAGED; SIX OTHER ALARMS ANSWERED

Fire, which is believed to have started from an overheated furnace, badly damaged a three-family apartment house at 216 South Union street, last Thursday at 9:45 p.m. Firemen battled the flames for nearly four hours before they were brought under control.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brooks and family occupied the upstairs apartment and they were visiting at a neighbor's home when the blaze occurred. Mr. and Mrs. Bart Aiuto and family, occupants of one of the other apartments, also were away. The third apartment was vacant.

The fire spread rapidly through the building, a two-story frame structure. Firemen and neighbors were unable to remove the furnishings and those not burned were badly damaged by water.

The house is owned by Mrs. W. C. Brooks. The amount of the loss has not been estimated but it was said to be partly covered by insurance.

Child Fatally Injured In Fall From Moving Car

Yvonne Syph, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Syph of Toledo, was fatally injured, late Sunday afternoon, when she fell from the car in which she was riding on US-112, a half mile east of Clinton. The child was removed to Herrick Memorial Hospital here, and died 20 minutes after being admitted. Coroner Ed Braun of Adrian ruled that the death was accidental, and that an inquest was not necessary.

Mr. Syph was driving the car in which the child was riding in the rear seat. Mr. and Mrs. Syph were in the front seat. He told state police that he heard a noise, looked around and the child was gone. He saw her lying on the highway behind the car. He rushed her to the hospital here. Examination showed death was due to head injuries.

The body was taken to a Toledo funeral home.

Garbage Pickup May Be Stopped

VILLAGE COUNCIL TABLES RESOLUTION PENDING FURTHER INVESTIGATION

The municipally-operated garbage pickup and disposal service in Tecumseh may be discontinued next month.

Such action was recommended by Joseph Rohweder, Council member, when he presented a motion at Council's meetisg, Monday evening, asking that the program be discontinued. Council tabled the motion until Monday, March 3, pending study and investigation.

The garbage collection service has been operated by the village for several years and, according to Council members, it is a definite headache. More complaints are received by the village, daily, regarding garbage service, than result from all other departments of the village combined.

Last year, Council was advised, the village lost $900 in the operation of the service, not incuding depreciation on the truck and administration costs.

The service was originally inaugurated by the village on what was hoped to be a self-sustaining basis. Residential users were charged a flat rate of $12 annually, and two pick-ups made during the summer months, one in the winter months. Pick-up service in the business district, daily, cost stores $5 monthly.

A short time ago, the village arrived at the conclusion that the downtown pick-up service was being operated at a loss. New rates were established, a charge of 15 cents a can was set up, with a minimum charge of 50 cents a collection. If garbage and trash was not in cans and had to be picked up or shoveled up, a charge of $6.50 an hour was made.

Council was advised—six mer-

The Power To Tax And To Destroy

John Marshall, a great American, once said that the power to tax is the power to destroy.

Karl Marx, the intellectual father of communism, devised a ten plank platform whereby, he believed, the capitalistic or free enterprise system, such as we believe in here in America, could be destroyed. Two of the Marx plans dealt with taxation and ran as follows: 1. A heavy progressive or graduated income tax. 2. Abolition of all right or inheritance — that is, a 100 per cent inheritance tax.

We have not yet reached the entire communist objective, but we have come a long way along the road. Today the tax on individual incomes runs to a high of 92 per cent — and its minimum is 22.2 per cent on incomes of not over $2,000. The corporation tax is 52 per cent, to which 30 per cent more is added for so-called "excess profits." And the inheritance taxes are very steep.

It is this situation which has stirred up so much support of a constitutional amendment to limit the taxing powers of Congress. The proposed amendment fixes the rate at 25 per cent, and provides that it can be raised to a higher level in the event of such an emergency as war. The whole idea is to force economy and efficiency on the government by constitutionally depriving it of excessive amounts of money. The cloth would have to be cut to fit.

Destruction of free enterprise and truly representative government can be accomplished by drying up the economic resources that maintain them. It seems to us that that is what our present fiscal policy is doing now.

We, who are paying the taxes, should remember the words of Mr. Marshall. The power to tax IS the power to destroy.

Watch The New Hampshire Primary

One of the smallest of the states may play a dominant role in deciding the big question of who is to be the Republican standard bearer in next November's national election. The state, of course, is New Hampshire, where the names of both Senator Taft and General Eisenhower will appear on the preferential primary ballot. Harold Stassen, who is an extremely dark horse, also will enter.

It is possible, but not yet definitely decided, that these three names along with that of Governor Warren will be placed on the Oregon primary ballot. Oregon, which is also on the small size so far as population is concerned, is considered by many to be something of a key state, on the theory that its residents are about as typical a cross-section of Americans as can be found in one place. Oregon, it will be remembered, played a big role in the 1948 elections when Stassen and Dewey campaigned the state with whistle-stop thoroughness. Climax of the race was a nationally-broadcast and nationally-publicized radio debate which, in the view of most listeners resulted in an overwhelming victory for the New York governor. Mr. Stassen's stock as a potential candidate went down fast thereafter and Mr. Dewey had it all his own way — until the following November.

Whether the New Hampshire vote will be an accurate measuring of any candidate's standing in the nation at large can and will be argued — with the backers of the loser, naturally, taking one side and the backers of the winner taking the opposite. But it will provide something that is purely in the realm of speculation right now — a formal verdict of many thousands of voters as to the respective merits of the General and the Senator. The head men in both the Taft and Eisenhower camps argue as long as there is anyone around to listen that their candidates are unbeatable, and can win anywhere against all comers. Obviously, one side is wrong. And both camps have shown a great wariness against taking a chance where the outcome is doubtful That's what makes the entry of Taft and Eisenhower in New Hampshire so important and significant.

Senator Taft will undoubtedly stump the state thoroughly. That's what he did in the last Ohio senatorial race, with enormous success, especially in the industrial areas where he was supposed to be weak, due to the Taft-Hartley law controversy. The Eisenhower people will be at a very definite disadvantage if their man stays abroad and says nothing. Some of the best observers think that it is essential for Eisenhower to do something tangible on behalf of his own candidacy before the primary if his couse is not to run the risk of irretrievable ruin. All of which remains to be seen.

In the meantime, a great many people seem to think that the only question is whether the GOP candidate will be Taft or Eisenhower — that one of the two is a cinch. That is not so. There is a definite possibility that the strength of one will offset the strength of the other — a case of the irresistible force meeting the immovable object — and that neither one can get the needed 601 convention votes as a result. Then a more or less dark horse would be tapped by the weary delegates. It has happened before, when two strong candidates cancelled each other out. Such hopefuls as Warren and Stassen are doubtless hoping it will happen again.

The Michigan Legislature now has under consideration a bill to prepare final plans, "the next logical step" for the ultimate construction of a bridge across the Straits of Mackinac(as pictured above by the designers. They are (l. to r.) David B. Steinman, Othmar H. Ammann and Glenn R. Woodruff, who have a hand in practically every long span bridge in the world since the early '20's. They are the Board of Consulting Engineers retained by the Mackinac Bridge Authority as ordered by the Legislature to determine the physical and economic feasibility of the Straits Bridge. The Authority has reported to the Legislature that such a bridge could be built for $87,000,000 (including finances) and would be paid for out of toll charges the same as now paid for ferry crossings. Public hearings on a bill to loan the Authority $2,000,000 will be held on February 19, in Lansing. Interested citizens are urged to attend and question the engineers who are expected to be present.

Buick even keeps the Sun in its Place

Wheel Crests standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

WITH all the new things we've had to talk about in 1952 Buicks, we're just getting around to this one.

It's called "Easy-Eye Glass"†—a new kind of glass with a cool, soft, blue-green tint, which filters the sun's rays entering your car—cuts down their glare and heat.

You'll appreciate the "glare control" at any time—and when you hit your first stretch of hot-weather driving you'll find that this glass does a great job of keeping the heat out of your lap.

We know—because thousands of happy Buick owners already have this new comfort feature. The rest of the automobile industry is just beginning to discover what Buick discovered a year ago. It's a great idea, which costs you very little extra if you order it when you're buying a new car.

But this still leaves the other folks with a lot of catching up to do.

You'll look a long way before you'll find anything that approaches a Buick's million dollar ride.

You'll look a long way before you'll find anything so completely satisfying as Dynaflow Drive.*

You'll find it hard to match the style and beauty and harmonious good taste of a 1952 Buick's interior trim and fabrics.

And when it comes to what you get for what you pay—we'll gladly match price tags with the field.

Have you had a good look at the '52 Buicks? That's something you ought to do soon.

1646 Killed In 1951 Accidents

YEAR JUST CLOSED WAS MOST DISASTROUS TRAFFIC PERIOD IN STATE'S HISTORY

A total of 19,892 traffic accidents during December, the highest ever recorded for a single month, climaxed the closing of the worst year in history on Michigan streets and highways, according to the State Police monthly statistical report.

Accidents, injuries, licensed drivers, motor vehicle registrations and mileage driven climbed to new all-time highs for the fourth consecutive year. Total casualties — deaths and injuries combined — also exceeded all previous records.

The toll for the year included 1,646 deaths, 47,856 injuries and 174,808 accidents. These figures will be increased by delayed reports. Based on available tabulations deaths were up 41, or three per cent, over the 1,605 fatalities occurring in 1950. Injuries increased 2,618, or six per cent, over 45,238 and accidents increased 14,542, or nine per cent, over 160,266.

The death rate of 7.1 per 100 million miles of travel, however, was a new low, being slightly under the previous low of 7.2 in 1949. Drivers rolled up a total of 23,000,000,000 miles traveled, an increase of one billion.

Licensed drivers increased from 2,859,000 to 3,065,000 and registered motor vehicles from 2,439,000 to 2,500,000.

Although accidents reached a new high in December, deaths and injuries were down as compared with the same month of the previous year. There were 135 persons killed, a decrease of 18, or 12 per cent, under 153 and injuries dropped 475, or 11 per cent, under 4,166.

On the other hand, accidents increased 1,363, or seven per cent, over the 18,529 in December of 1950, which was the previous high on record for a single month.

Bad driving conditions were considered a leading factor in the high number of accidents in December. But it is also believed that the same conditions prompted motorists to reduce driving speeds and influenced the reduction in deaths and injuries.

The group voted to purchase a past president's pin for the retiring president and a past chaplain's pin for Mrs. Carl Kempf, who has served as chaplain for three years. They also voted to send $75 to the V. F. W. National Home at Eaton Radips for the Health and Happiness Fund.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Jiggs Gets Four "Hot-Foots"

Cappy Miller's bought himself a new car. We won't be seeing his old jalopy bouncing over the back roads any more. I'm going to miss it, too.

Many a morning Cappy and I drove off in that rattletrap for a day's hunting or fishing. We'd pile rods or guns in back, and prop open the trunk compartment—so Jiggs, Cappy's pointer, could jump in and go along.

They say when Cappy brought the new car home he opened up the hood to show off the engine—and poor old Jiggs hopped right in! Figured it was the trunk. He hopped right out in a hurry, too. That cylinder head was mighty hot.

From where I sit, old habits are hard to shake, once they get a hold. Like, for instance, too many people are still in the habit of trying to run their neighbors' lives—telling them how to act, what to wear, whether or not to enjoy a refreshing glass of beer. I say that kind of thinking's outmoded . . . ought to be turned in for a new model!

Report Shows Decrease In Consumption of Meat

Washington — The American Meat Institute has reported that the average American ate three pounds less meat in 1951 than in either 1949 or 1950.

Board chairman, H. H. Corey, said "government restrictions and regulations were among the primary causes" of the decrease.

In a year-end report, Mr. Corey said per capita consumption was about 141 pounds, compared with 144 pounds in 1949 and 1950.

Total meat production dropped 1 per cent from 1950 levels, he said. Production of lamb and mutton was down 17 per cent to a 33-year low and beef production dropped 8 per cent. The sole increase of 10 per cent came in pork, he said.

Mr. Corey said consumer meat supplies can be expected to increase about three or four pounds a person during 1952 if the Office of Price Stabilization does "not curtail marketing and disrupt distribution too severely."

Garbage Pickup

chants were present at Monday's meeting—that the village's rate for pick-up in the business district was too high. The village countered by saying that it was not, considering the time of two men and a truck. Last year's operating loss was pointed out.

It now appears that the real "fly in the ointment" insofar as village operation of the service is concerned, is that it has competition in the collection business. Someone else is operating a pick-up service in both the business and residential areas. He is charging much less for his business district service than is the village. He is charging just as much for his residential service, and is givng only one pick-up weekly, the year around.

Nevertheless, it seems that the independent operator has taken about 200 of the village's customers over, and the loss of such a number is the difference between breaking even and losing money for the village.

The village claims that the independent operator cannot long function on his existing rates. Further, it was pointed out that he may discontinue his service at any time. The village, on the other hand, is more or less "stuck" with its program.

To get away from the headache. Mr. Rohweder suggested that the village get out of the garbage collection business entirely. That, he apparently believed, would bring the subject to a definite head. Something would have to happen.

And so, unless the Council hears complaints from residents and store owners regarding the proposed discontinuance, such action may be taken at the Council meeting on March 3. There is another alternative, the village may, if it can find someone to do the job, issue a franchise to have the work done.

But this much seems certain, the Council has made up its mind to solve the pick-up program at its next meeting. And, unless residents object too strenuously, Tecumseh may find itself without garbage disposal service sometime in March.

The department, since the Brooks fire, answered six other alarms:

Friday, at 10:15 a.m., they assisted the Adrian department in extinguishing a barn fire on the Harry Gruen farm, on M-52 south of Billington's Corners.

At 2 p.m., Friday and again at 4 p.m., grass fires caused alarms. The first one was in the vicinity of 729 N. Union street, the second near the Wm. Baird property on the Tecumseh-Clinton road.

Saturday, at 4:15 p.m., a grass fire was extinguished at Tipton near the Carlo Incanario property.

Sunday at 12:45 p.m., a grass fire near the Wm. Porter residence, W. Pottawatamie street, was put out.

Monday, at 6:20 p.m., a grass fire near the New York Central tracks at the West Brown street intersection, was extinguished.

Tecumseh Wins

Sugar Boys still must meet Hudson and Clinton before the tournament.

After suffering their only defeat, a week ago last Friday at the hands of the Sugar Boys, Tecumseh came back on Friday to maul the Pittsford quintet in one of the most lop-sided games of the year's schedule. At no time during the game was Pittsford even a threat The game was played at Pittsford.

In the first quarter of play, the Indians dropped 25 points into the net and during the second quarter they stacked up 13 more for a 38 to 12 lead at half-time. In the last two quarters, Tecumseh scored 23 more points to Pittsford's 20.

John Sisson and Jim Wilson were the top scoremen for the Indians, accounting for 35 points during the game. Wilson was high with 18 and Sisson had 17.

The Indians journey to Addison tomorrow night for the twelfth game of the schedule. Addison, insofar as Tecumseh is concerned, is a dangerous contender on its own floor. The gym is small cracker box size—and Coach Duvall's men find it difficult to play. However, scouts feel that the Redmen should not find it too difficult to bring home a victory.

The final game of the season will be played next week Friday at Summerfield. This contest is considered one of the easiest, and should present no difficulty.

as 3,000, the operating loss has cost each person about 12½ cents a year, it was pointed out, or about one-thousandth of a cent per patient day. Bad debts have amounted to about eight-tenths of one per cent of sales.

The hospital was built and equipped through public subscription in a campaign directed by R. W. Herrick. The only money that the village has put into the hospital has been a $25,000 bond issue, plus cash advances of $6,500 or a total of $31,500.

Donations, principally from Mr. Herrick, have amounted to $138,732.44. The next largest donation came from the Woman's Hospital Auxiliary in the form of equipment amounting to $7,762.95. Projects now under way will swell this amount to $10,000.

The hospital's size has been increased from 18 to 48 beds in 13½ years.

The report shows that the hospital has done $1,016,052.21 in business, with total expenses of $1,021,279.45. This includes an operating loss of $5,227.24 and a charge off for depreciation of $32,926.46. Bad debts amounted to about $8,000 and salaries and wages to $524,746.16.

The summary of income and expenses was submitted to the council by Frank K. Smith, a member of the hosipital board.

WE LIKE TO SELL
QUALITY FOODS .... WHY?

There's a reason why we like to sell quality foods ... and the reason is very simple. Because they SATISFY.

In the more than 100 years that we have been in business we have observed customers habits. We have found that folk enjoy quality ... they like to be able to serve and to eat ALL of the food that they buy.

In times such as these, when prices are high, it is important that there be little or no waste. And when you buy QUALITY, waste is held to a minimum.

That's what we mean when we say that quality foods are economical foods.

Miss Roberta J. Holmes Bride of Richard Roost

Tecumseh Friends church was the setting for a lovely wedding, Saturday evening at 7:30, when Miss Roberta Jane Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Holmes, 126 S. Ottawa street, became the bride of Richard James Roost, of Camden, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Roost of Frontier, Michigan. The Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with palms, lighted candelabra and baskets of white gladioli, snapdragons and mums. Large white satin bows marked the pews.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white slipper satin gown with a front insert of Chantilly lace. The long sleeves formed points over her hands and she wore an illusion fingertip veil, also trimmed with Chantilly lace, with seed-pearl crown. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations, stephanotis and ivy. Donald Baird, nephew of the bride, was train bearer.

The bride's attendants were the Misses Dola Lou Lanning, maid of honor, Mary Louise Dinse and Carol Jean Roost, bridesmaids, and Edith Holmes, niece of the bride, flower girl. They wore pastel orchid, green and yellow lace gowns over satin, with matching mits and hats. The maid-of-honor's flowers were yellow rose buds and violets and the bridesmaids carried arrangements of yellow rose buds. The flower girl wore a white slipper satin gown with a flower headdress and carried yellow rose petals. The ring bearers were Ted Malone, nephew of the groom, and Robert Holmes, brother of the bride.

During the ceremony Mrs. Amos Wilson, organist, played nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Naomi Sallows and Mrs. Robert Baird who sang, "Oh Promise Me," and "I Love You Truly." LaVern Nelson of Frontier, accompanied Mr. Roost as best man and the ushers were Pat Malone, uncle of the groom, Richard Close, brother-in-law of the bride and Sgt. Garland Holmes, brother of the bride, who had just arrived home from Korea.

Mrs. Holmes, the bride's mother, wore a royal blue gown with navy accessories and Mrs. Roost, the groom's mother, chose a navy blue dress with matching accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

A reception for 150 guests was held immediately following the ceremony, at the Tecumseh Grange Hall. Spring colors were used for decorating with an arrangement of yellow daffidols centering the guest tables. The bridal table was centered with the traditional wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The table was covered with a white linen cloth and ivy trim. Mrs. Pat Malone was in charge of the guest book. Mar- assisted by Mrs. Hazel Hathorne, aunt of the bride, vel Hockin, sister of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Richard Close and Mrs. Robert Baird, sisters of the bride, served the punch. Others assisting with the serving were the Misses Beulah Camburn, Claudia George and Vennita Withrow. Guests were registered from Coldwater, Camden, Frontier, Jackson, Tecumser, Clinton and Batavia.

For traveling the bride changed to a cinnamon brown suit with dark brown accessories and wore the carnation corsage from her her wedding bouquet. After a trip to Chicago, the couple will reside in their apartment at 210 W. Logan street. Mrs. Roost is a graduate of Tecumseh high school in 1949 and is employed at Tecumseh Products Company. Mr. Roost is a graduate of Camden high in 1950 and is employed at Tecumseh Products Company.

GARDEN CLUB ENJOYS GROWING FLOWER MOVIE

The Tecumseh Garden Club enjoyed a rare treat at its meeting last Friday at Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw's home, in seeing the John Ott film entitled, "Growing Things." Mr. Ott, of Chicago, specializes in photographing plants during their entire flowering period by means of complicated camera which takes pictures automatically every five minutes and at the same time enlarges the subject 10,000 times. The resulting film is an amazing revelation of the beautiful growing movement of a living flower. John Saling furnished the talking film projector and other equipment.

A Valentine tea was served following the business meeting by Miss Anne Carson, Mrs. Al Helzerman, and Mrs. Joe. O'Pravil. Mrs. George Wittrup poured. Several prospective members were present.

The bride wore the suit she was married in for traveling. After a week's visit in Traverse City they will reside in their newly furnished apartment, 6570 Clinton-Macon road. Mrs. Rhoades is a graduate of Dundee high school and is employed at the Tecumseh Products Company. Mr. Rhoades is a graduate of Clinton high school, spent four years in the armed services in World War II, part of the time overseas, and is employed at the Adrian Photo Lab.

Your Insurance, Is It Adequate?

SHARP INCREASE IN VALUES HAS MADE SOME COVERAGE FAR TOO LITTLE

If you are a homeowner, you had better check up on your fire insurance to see that you are adequately protected on the basis of current property values.

Virtually the only dwellings in these days that carry adequate insurance are the new ones having accurate assessments. If you live in a house that cost $10,000 before the last war, it is probably assessed for only about $10,000 today—if that.

And your fire insurance—is it still predicated upon 1940 property values? Your $10,000 property of 1940, assessed for about $10,000 today, would probably cost twice that amount to replace in case of fire.

The National Association of Mutual Insurance Companies have been campaigning for months to bring these facts to the attention of homeowners.

The companies are issuing a new form of extended coverage known as "all risk" insurance. This insurance is tailored to fit about anything that conceivably can happen to the house.

Some of the items to which this insurance applies, in addition to regular fire hazards, are: Vandalism, water damage from overflowing bathroom or kitchen fixtures, vehicle damage, structural failures, falling trees, or anything else that might fall on the house, including airplanes or lightning.

Macon Resident Thinks People Should Jar Congress Into Action

Macon, Michigan
February 14, 1952

Mr. Earl Wickwire
Editor, Tecumseh Herald
Tecumseh, Michigan
Dear Mr. Wickwire:

In writing this letter I am motivated purely by a patriotic sense of duty, and have no desire to be officious. I am a farmer and a school teacher, 52 years of age. I served with the U. S. Army in both the European and Pacific theatres of operations during World War II and was with the occupational force in Korea for almost a year.

I am not only confused but I am concerned about the future of our country. Probably the press and radio may prove to be the most effective weapons which could be employed against the evil forces of corruption, communism, waste and inflation; all of which are collectively working toward the destruction of this democratic form of government we presently enjoy.

When any branch or part of our federal government fails to function properly, especially when the security of our government, country and lives are threatened, Congress should be able to take over. This it has failed to do.

Corruption In Government:

Corruption in a small degree may be expected in any form of government where the human element is involved. But, organized corruption conducted on a large scale can in a short time destroy government. Do we have organized corruption? Let us look at the facts, and you may draw your own conclusions.

Senator Williams, referred to as the one-man FBI in the Senate, conducting investigations in the Internal Revenue Department, ran into all sorts of opposition. The sad part of the whole deal is that there is a powerful force opposing his "clean-up" campaign and this may be great enough to prevent his reelection. The public can only assume that any attempt to eliminate crooks from government service will be met with severe opposition.

Why do we have this opposition? That is the question the American people would like to have answered.

Could it be that corruption is so extensive in our government that the higher-ups are fearful of investigations? Could it be that there are individuals who have buried bones of their own and are fearful they might be dug up?

In spite of all opposition, Senator Williams proceeds quietly and slowly to accomplish the task of cleaning out the Internal Revenue Department.

Now my point is this: If one man can expose so much corruption existing in our Department of Internal Revenue what could the whole United States Congress reveal if it could, by some magic power, be forced to investigate corruption in all governmental departments.

Instances of corruption in our government are numerous which makes the situation alarming and critical. Corruption of great magnitude gives impetus to inflation. Just how many of our hard earned dollars paid into the federal government by tax payers have been siphoned off by these crooks, probably never will be known.

Some individuals whose honesty is questionable have been dismissed from government service. You kick them out the front door and they come right in the back door.

Willet, who was dismissed from the RFC, was given a top Navy job; another individual dismissed from CCC for accepting bribes, was found working for the Price Stabilization Board.

To be dismissed for being a poor risk or for a lack of honesty in one government job and to be hired back on another government job is an act the average American will not condone.

Congress can clean up corruption in government. That is its duty. The asinine and ridiculous procedure of appointing the Chief of Justice Department, McGrath, to conduct an investigation in the department he has so aptly mismanaged is like asking a man to investigate himself. The Administration, realizing the American people may not be inclined to fall for such illogical reasoning, selected a so-called Republican named Morris, but he is now charged with being identified with several communist-front organizations.

We, the people, cannot tolerate such blatant disregard of honesty and fairness as evidenced by the present Administration. Certain actions and failures to act leave the average reader confused and he asks himself this question: Does the Administration really want to clean out the crooks?

Whatever the case may be, the power to eliminate corruption in our government falls directly on the people of America, since the present Congress has failed to act as a body.

Now you may say, "All this I already know, but what can be done about it?" Here is what can be done! Remember, we are still living in a democracy and that magic force I mentioned rests in your hands. You and you only, the American people, have the power to jar our Congress out of its present state of lethargy into action. Congress can, if it desires, eliminate corruption in government almost completely over night by increasing the penalty for violations in offices of public trust. Tempted governmental employees entrusted with public funds will think more than once before they plan thefts, if they know the penalty for the crime is so severe they may not be free to use the stolen money.

Any individual absconding with public funds and contributing to the force of inflation is just as guilty of committing an act of treason as is an individual who plans the destruction of this government by other methods.

Therefore, if you demand that your congressman do his part in Congress to make corruption an act of treason against our country, you, the American people, will have succeeded in eliminating corruption almost completely.

Arthur P. Lopshire.

New 4-Place

built about 150 of the old-style training planes, so popular during World War II. It also has built some 15 or 20 of the Meyers 145, the two-place ship which it will continue in production.

Some folk think that a plane is expensive to operate, it was said. Not so with the Meyers. Its present 2-place ship is more economical than most motor cars. Twenty miles to a gallon of gasoline is average. And, believe it or not, the new 4-place, 185 horsepower, will give about the same mileage.

Meyers now is employing about 40 people. In the step-up in plane production, some 15 more will be added to that department. Two ships a month is what the company is shooting for by mid-summer.

Meyers also is building an all-aluminum top for jeeps. Present production is about 150 a month. The market for this product has only been scratched, it was said, and an up-swing in this field also is expected.

In the metals fabricating department, one of the busy sections of the plant, Meyers now is working on several defense sub-contracts. More work in this department is anticipated, it was said. All in all, doubling of the present employment by July is likely.

To accommodate its increased production, Meyers recently has completed an addition to his factory adding about 4,800 more square feet space. Other additions might become necessary as expansion continues.

The Meyers factory is located at the north village limit on Tecumseh Airport, where a new 2,600-foot asphalt runway was installed last fall. The Port, too, is showing increased activity, with several ships in and out every day.

Tecumseh Quits

Class B in size, is expected to fill a long-felt need for the schools participating. Tecumseh long has felt that its school was too large to be playing some of the teams now in the LCAA, and Hillsdale has been having similar trouble. Monroe Catholic Central in Monroe also has been anxious to get into a faster league, as has Bedford.

To round out play during the year, it was said that Tecumseh probably would continue to play Hudson, Blissfield, Clinton and Morenci, in non-conference games, and it was felt that at some future time one or more of these schools might enter the new league. Pittsford, Addison and Summerfield, other schools now in the LCAA, would be dropped from play by Tecumseh.

Local school officials feel that there is more to athletics than winning the contest. More closely matched teams should participate, and it is believed that the new conference will provide this material. In the past, some of the schools participating in the LCAA and playing against the Indians were too small, it was felt, to furnish genuine competition.

Soviet Population Is Climbing 3 Million Year

London—The population of the Soviet Union has increased by 3,000,000 a year since 1945, Tass, the official Russian news agency, reported here.

The agency took its facts, it said, from an article by Russian Professor Boyarski in the current issue of Moscow's English-language magazine, News.

Tass did not quote the professor as revealing the total population of the Soviet Union today.

But it did quote him as saying that the Soviet Union is not afraid of overpopulation. "It does not mean extra mouths to feed in the Soviet Union," Boyarski wrote, according to Tass.

Results of Russia's 1938-39 census were never made public, but in 1926 the official population figure was set at 147,027,900.

In 1946, Soviet Union authorities announced that there were 193,200,000 people living in the U.S.S.R. An annual increase of 3,000,000 for five years would bring the total to 208,000,000.

Garbage Pickup Decision, Monday

COUNCIL IS EXPECTED TO ACT ON 10-DAY OLD MOTION TO HALT COLLECTION HERE

The Village Council, in regular session next Monday evening in the Council Building, is expected to reach some decision on the much-discussed question of whether or not the Village will continue its garbage collection and disposal service. There is a motion before Council to abandon the service, tabled from a meeting 10 days ago.

When it became known last week that Council was considering abandoning its collection program, a number of residents discussed a proposal to meet with the official trustees next Monday. Whether a group of residents will protest ending the service remains to be seen.

Council contends that it has been operating the disposal service here at a loss. The debatable issue came to a focus a week ago when a group of merchants appeared before Council, protesting that rates charged for the collection service in the downtown area were prohibitive. Council countered by saythat they were not.

It also appears that the Village has lost more than $2,000 of its garbage collection income, due to the fact that about 200 customers have quit the town's collection service and have gone over to a service operated by a individual. Some residents charge that the Village's service in the past has been irregular and poor.

Whether the Village will drop the service entirely and force residents to depend upon an independently operated service, or whether a franchise may be issued to someone to do the work, may be decided Monday.

In either event, Council is understood to feel that the service should be self-supporting — something that it is not at the present time.

15 To 30 Years For Wife Killer

CHARLES SEITZ, JR., SENT TO SOUTHERN MICHIGAN PRISON FOR SLAYING

A term of from 15 to 30 years in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson was handed out to Charles A. Seitz, jr., by Circuit Judge G. Arthur Rathbun on Monday. Seitz was convicted by a jury on February 12 of shooting his wife, Donna Jeane, in their home here, Christmas night. A second degree murder verdict was returned.

Seitz was arrested immediately after the killing and confessed. During a 10-day trial he pleaded insanity. Psychiatrists, although declaring him sane, testified that he may have been suffering from some form of neurosis.

Seitz, 28-year-old local plumber, was calm during a conference that preceded his sentence and while sentence was pronounced. He will be taken to Jackson soon by members of the sheriff's department.

Boy, 8, Playing Cowboy, Prisoner In Oil Drum

The next time that Bradley Bruce, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bruce, 405 N. Union street, plays cowboy, he probably will see to it that oil drums do not enter into the setting.

Last Friday afternoon, Bradley was busy at play and he suddenly decided to hide from his friends—or "enemies." An empty oil drum was handy and he crawled into it. And then he tried to crawl out, and couldn't.

Police were summoned and Harold Wolf, a neighbor, gave assistance. So did Bradley's father. A hack saw was applied and finally the drum was cut and pried apart, so that the lad could get out. It took several minutes.

Aside from fright and a couple of bruised knees, the youngster is none the worse for the affair. However, it is understood that oil drums have held no particular attraction for him this week.

Cars driven by Francis Gruber, Rt. 1, Tecumseh, and D. F. Hawkins, also of Tecumseh, were damaged in the amount of $100 in a collision at South Union street and the railroad crossing, Saturday. A village truck, driven by Albert Routley, and a car driven by Donald Heath of Dundee, collided at Wyandotte and Pottawatamie streets, Friday. Damage, police said, amounted to $50.

Lenten Prayer Services Planned By Presbyterians

The Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church met in the Fellowship Center, last week, with 30 members in attendance. Mrs. Frank K. Smith presided at the business meeting and Mrs. Margaret Kidman gave the invocation. Mrs. John Saling announced that the first of the Lenten prayer services will be held Thursday morning, Feb. 28, at 9:30, at the home of Mrs. Kidman and the second one on Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Howard Truesdale. Announcement was made that the Presbyterial meeting will be held April 24, in Hillsdale.

Mrs. Ray Sluyter, program chairman, introduced Miss Edith Ingersoll and Mrs. James Barton who presented an impromptu quiz on missionaries. Mrs. Ronald Harris read Bible verses which were announced in a recent magazine as favorites of President Truman, Gen. Eeisenhower and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt. Miss Marie Koernig was in charge of devotions. After the program Mrs. John Saling and her committee served refreshments, in keeping with Washington's birthday.

Begin Work On Disposal Plant

ACTUAL LAUNCHING OF PROGRAM WILL BE MONDAY, MARCH 3, HEILMAN SAYS

The actual work on the construction of Tecumseh's new $285,000 sewage disposal plant will begin on Monday, March 3, E. C. Heilman, chairman of Council's sewer committee, said today. Although much will depend upon weather conditions of the summer, Mr. Heilman said that he is planning to have the project completed and in operation next fall.

The first of the construction work will begin just south of West Chicago Boulevard near the west village limit, with the building of a pumping station, Heilman said. It is there that the work will start on Monday morning. When that job is finished, the equipment will be moved to the site of the disposal plant and construction of the building and tanks will begin.

These two projects, Heilman said, are being built by the Village, with its own equipment and labor. Already the Council has awarded contracts for the purchase of more than $90,000 worth of equipment, and sub-contracts for the laying of interceptor sewers, totaling about $40,000, also have been awarded. The laying of the sewers also will begin next month.

The disposal plant will be located on a 23-acre site, purchased some time ago by the Village. It is located south of Chicago Boulevard and the old Ford Mill, (now the Universal Button Company's plant), near the River Raisin.

The Village decided to build the disposal plant without the aid of a general contractor when, after receiving half a dozen bids for construction, it was discovered that all of them exceeded by $50,000 or more the amount of the bond issue voted for the project. Heilman believes that the Village can supervise and do its own work and save taxpayers several thousands of dollars. A general superintendent and engineer, who has handled similar projects for other communities, has been hired to oversee the work locally.

Construction of the plant became necessary when the Stream Control Commission threatened to take Tecumseh into court unless the project was launched this year. The $285,000 bond issue to finance the program was approved by voters here, last October.

GEFMAN STUDENTS TO PARTICIPATE IN PROGRAM

The Ladies Union of the Baptist church will meet Thursday evening, March 6, at 7:30 in the church parlors. The program will be on "Christian Friendliness," with Mrs. Floyd Bryan in charge. Mrs. Robert Gillespie will be in charge of devotions.

The German exchange students from Tecumseh and Milan areas will be guests. A round table discussion directed by the Rev. B. O. Bashore will be held. The exchange students are members of a group of 73 from Germany, all of them in their senior year of high school, and brought here under the Youth For Understanding program sponsored by Rotarians. Special musical numbers have been arranged for the program.

Tecumseh Wins LCAA Pennant

DEFEAT OF ADDISON LAST FRIDAY GAVE INDIANS UNDISPUTED TITLE OWNERSHIP

With the LCAA cage pennant carefully tucked under their belts, Coach Elvon Duvall's Tecumseh high school Indians have one more game to play in the current schedule—Friday evening against Summerfield—before receiving their crown. However, the outcome of the Summerfield contest cannot possibly change the league standings and, win lose or draw, Tecumseh is the undisputed champion.

The Indians clinched their hold on the pennant last week Friday evening by defeating Addison high on the cracker-box floor there, by a score of 61 to 33. It was Tecumseh's twelfth win of the season, their only defeat being at the hands of Blissfield a few Fridays ago. Blissfield is in undisputed second place in the league with 10 wins and three losses. Morenci is third, Addison, fourth, Hudson, fifth, Pittsford, sixth, Summerfield, seventh and Clinton is in the cellar.

The victory at Addison on Friday gave the Indians their second consecutive cage crown in as many years. Last year, they won 13 of the 14 games played. The victory this year, however, will end their winning in the LCAA for Tecumseh has withdrawn from the league to enter next year into the newly formed Southeastern Michigan Conference.

It was a fast game at Addison, with Jim Wilson and Ronald Reitz tied for top scoring honors with 15 each. John Sisson and Bob Binns tied for runnerup positions with 10 points each.

Next Friday's game at Summerfield is not expected to give the Indians any trouble. However, stiff practice sessions are still being held in preparation for the contest. A large convoy of Tecumseh fans is expected to journey to Summerfield tomorrow to witness the final game—the last contest Tecumseh will play in the LCAA. cumseh will play in the LCAA circuit.

The degree of Doctor of Education was conferred upon Paul E. Johnson, curriculum coordinator in the Ferndale Public Schools, at graduation exercises held recently at Wayne University.

Dr. Johnson is a former resident of Tecumseh and a former member of the staff of the Tecumseh public schools. He went to Ferndale in September of 1950. He is a native of Wayne, O., and his undergraduate work was done at the University of Michigan and at Bowling Green State University of Ohio. He received his degree of Master of Science in Physics and Chemistry from the U. of M. in 1941. His Ph. D. degree includes a major in Administration and Supervision.

Magazine Turns Spot on Hayden's

NATIONAL PUBLICATION CARRIES ILLUSTRATED STORY ON LOCAL MILL

"Feeds Illustrated," a national magazine of the milling industry, in its December issue, made the Hayden Flour Mills, Tecumseh's oldest industry, the subject of a lengthy, well-illustrated story, and featured the mill in a full-page cover picture.

Bearing the title, "Tithing as a Feed-Trade Ingredient," the introduction draws upon the interest in the Mill's tithing demonstration of 1940-46 in an opening editorial comment. It explains how Feeds Illustrated sought out the article, and engaged A. C. Hamaker of Tecumseh to prepare the research and develope the article, and points out the "ten-fold increases in volume since 1940."

The body of the article dwells lightly upon the tithing demonstration, then leads up through the history of the Hayden Mill from founding in 1835 right up to the present. It brings out the efficiency of the organization, and the long record of service to the community. It commends the faithfulness of the hundreds of patrons, some customers for many years, and in support pictures Del Burleson and Fred Sheldon, both 60 year patrons, with Perry Hayden.

This accurate portrayal of Tecumseh in action by Mr. Hamaker, who prepares the material carefully and writes with unusual interest, is of value to the community. The article has been of enough national interest that thousands of extra copies have been printed. A small stock of these are on hand at The Herald office for readers who may want a copy.

COMMITTEE TO DIRECT MERCHANT PROMOTIONS NAMED AT MEETING ON MONDAY

Retail merchants of Tecumseh, between 30 and 40 of them, met at Legion Memorial Home, Monday afternoon, to listen to a canvassers' report of buying trends in this area, and elected a committee to direct trade promotions during the coming year. The meeting of the Retail Division of the Chamber of Commerce was called by Robert H. Moore, president, who presided.

In the election to select a committee to direct the trade promotions of the year, the group chose Glenn Kohler, George French and W. D. Hite. It will be the duty of this committee to promote and plan special events that the merchants of the village desire in the coming months. Another committee now operating the Appreciation Day program, which has been functioning here for nearly six months, will continue in office.

The first promotion, as discussed on Monday, probably will come sometime in April, followed by some kind of a summer trade program. A third event will be held in the fall.

WOMAN BADLY BEATEN; ASSAILANT IS SOUGHT

Sheriff's deputies are searching for a 55 to 60-year-old bald headed man as the clubber of Mrs. Dorothy Stevens, 42, of Marr Road, near Prospect Hill, who was beaten in her home, Tuesday afternoon, by an unknown assailant. She was removed to Bixby hospital, Adrian, and more than 50 stitches were needed to close head wounds.

Officers say that the man came to the Stevens home and inquired about some folk who formerly lived there. He visited with Mrs. Stevens for a few minutes and then, when her back was turned, struck her several times with some blunt instrument. Then he fled.

Deputies are puzzled over the crime. The Stevens have no known enemies, robbery was not attempted, and Mrs. Stevens was not attacked. The crime was discovered when Harold Stevens, the husband, and their daughter returned home in mid-afternoon.

Christian Service Women Will Be Morenci Guests

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Tecumseh Methodist church is invited to visit the Morenci Woman's Society in the parsonage there on Wednesday afternoon, March 5, at two o'clock. The Rev. Adolph Bergman, a displaced Methodist minister from Latvia, now serving the Methodist church at Carleton, Michigan, will be the guest speaker. The Rev. Mr. Bergman speaks several languages, having served in the Baltic and Slavic conferences and in Russia.

This visitation is in accordance with the society visitations being carried on in the Ann Arbor District of the Methodist church.

A snowstorm prevented the local society from accepting Morenci's invitation last fall. Mrs. Robert Bonner, president of the local society, is asking the women to meet at the Tecumseh Methodist church next Wednesday at one o'clock for transportation.

Red Cross Quota Is $1,500 Here

COMMITTEE DOES NOT PLAN HOUSE-TO-HOUSE CANVASS; COOPERATION URGED

The annual Red Cross drive for funds in Tecumseh will be launched on Monday, March 3, with Mrs. Vincent Haight and Mrs. L. W. Larsen as co-chairmen. They will be assisted by a group of local women.

This year, Tecumseh's quota in the county-wide campaign amounts to $1,500, a $300 increase over a year ago. The slight boost, it was explained, is due to a depleted national Red Cross treasury. The Red Cross was drawn upon heavily a year ago, for southern flood relief.

The committee here is not planning a house-to-house or commercial and industrial canvass in the local campaign. Rather, donations will be received at a desk in the lobby of the United Savings Bank. The booth will be in operation on Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

"We believe," Mrs. Haight said, "that the public will understand urgency of the drive, and that organizations, business and industry will up their contributions slightly this year, to take care of the increase in the quota."

Persons who do not find it convenient to make their contributions at the bank desk may send them to or notify either Mrs. Haight or Mrs. Larsen.

It was pointed out that the Red Cross did not participate in Tecumseh's Community Fund drive of last fall. The Red Cross prefers to stage a separate campaign, not only here but nation-wide.

Folk Past 50 Enjoy Luncheon at Church

Although the weather was bad. 31 men and women were in attendance at the luncheon at the Methodist church here, Thursday, for persons who admit they are more than 50 years of age.

Tables were centered with miniature penquins and mounds of snow holding the flags of Peary, Cooke and Byrd, in keeping with the "explorers" theme. Several members recalled interesting facts concerning pole explorations, and methods of communication of the past also were discussed.

After the luncheon, the Rev Ronald Brunger led in assembly singing. Miss Bel Plummer paid tribute to Mrs. James Foster through originial verses. Miss Ann Carson read a letter from Mrs. R S. Moore, telling about the activities of the half-century and the three-quarter century clubs in St Petersburg, Fla.

Mrs. T. Rentschler read the story, "New England Kitchens I Remember," and Miss Gertrude Van Vleet displayed an embroidered outdoor picture, which she had presented to a friend. Mrs. Lyman Curtiss and Mrs. Fred Rector were in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Geo. Wittrup and Mrs. Rentschler. Members of the Temple Dependable Circle were the hostesses.

The group is asked to bring food cooked according to very old receipes at the next meeting which will be a potluck luncheon on March 20. Mrs. Edna Codling and Mrs. Jeannie Satterlee will be in charge of arrangements.

TALKS TO EXCHANGE

Mrs. Heilman Quits Business

SENIOR MEMBER OF JEWELRY FIRM AND EXPRESS AGENT, RETIRES ON MONDAY

After more than 45 years of active business life, Mrs. E. C. Heilman, one of the senior members of the firm of Gaston & Son, jewelers, retired on Monday.

Mrs. Heilman has watched Tecumseh's "main street" grow up for more than half a century. It was her father, Wm. Gaston, who at the turn of the century purchased the jewelry store from the late E. J. Peters. Mr. Gaston operated the business until the time of his death, in 1922, when it became the property of Mrs. Heilman and her sister, Mrs. Charles Burridge, now of Downey, Calif. The Heilman purchased Mrs. Burridge's interest in the business and continued to operate under the Gaston name.

Mrs. Heilman, however, was introduced to Tecumseh's business world long before the time that she and her husband entered the jewelry business. Of course, she was around her father's store, and in 1905 she took over the agency for the Railway Express Company, and operated that business from an office in the store. And Mrs. Heilman has continued as the company's agent here ever since, except for that period from 1913 to 1932 when H. H. Hanna had the agency. The office, however, remained in the Gaston store. When Mr. Hanna was named as postmaster, 20 years ago, Mrs. Heilman again took over the operation

The new officers do not take their chairs until July 1.

The club did not receive a financial report on the Polio Dance, sponsored by Rotarians and Exchange, last Saturday evening at Legion Memorial Home. About 150 couples attended. Many ticket sales had not yet been reported, and the report will wait until Rotary meets, next week.

Baptist Father and Son Banquet Attended By 130

One hundred and thirty men and boys enjoyed the annual Father and Son Banquet at the Baptist church here, Friday evening. The crowd was so large that it overflowed the Sunday School rooms and it was necessary to set up two tables in the auditorium.

The Rev. B. O. Bashore gave the invocation and Kenneth Davidson was the toastmaster. Lawrence Holdridge gave the toast to the sons and his son, Rickey, responded with the toast to the fathers. Group singing was directed by Harold Black. Earl Bilby played an accordion solo. Corliss Jones entertained with a "Magic Hour," and a travelogue movie of a tour through Canada was shown by Frederick Bryan.

The dinner was served by the women of the church with Mrs. Mills Swick and Mrs. Floyd Barrett as chairmen. Mrs. George Green and Mrs. Carl Kempf were in charge of decorations, which were carried out in a patriotic theme with red and white table covers, blue programs and white napkins with small red hatchets. Favors for the children were red and white striped pencils and suckers.

Before the dinner, music was furnished by an orchestra composed of Harold Harper, Harold Black, Floyd Bryan and George Green with Mrs. E. H. McConnell at the piano.

Immediately following the banquet, trustees of the church met to discuss the Baptist's building program, which calls for additional Sunday School rooms.

Maybe We Should Eat Our Garbage

The Village Council has tabled until next Monday, March 3, a resolution that would end the collection and disposal of garbage in Tecumseh as a function of local government. Should the resolution win Council approval, householders here would be "out on a limb," so to speak, insofar as a method of taking care of household waste materials is concerned.

Council's consideration of the resolution came about when half a dozen merchants appeared before the heads of local government ten days ago, protesting that recently increased rates for collection of refuse in the downtown district were too high. The Council countered by saying that the service charge is warranted, that actually the Village is losing money in the operation of the collection, and that the disposal program must be put on a self-sustaining basis.

The fly in the ointment, however, seems to be this: The Village has competition in the collection business.

In the past, the Village has been charging $12 annually for the collection of garbage, tin cans and ashes from individual householders. A similar small charge, until recently had been made for stores in the business district. The Village checked up on its costs for the downtown collection and found that expenses exceeded income. It was then that the adjustment was made and rates were sharply advanced in the commercial area.

The Village's competition, however, has offered to do the collection work in the commercial area for about one-half or less the Village's price. It seems, too, that some householders have, in the past, become disgusted with what they say has been poor service on the part of the Village, and have switched over to the privately-operated collection service. Some sources say that the Village has lost, in the past months, about 200 of its customers, or a dollars and cents loss of about $2,400 annually.

It is not difficult to understand, then, why the Village went about $900 in the hole last year in the operation of its garbage service. And neither is it difficult to understand —if the Village did give poor service—why it lost its customers to the independent operator.

Viewing the town's entry into the collection business purely on a basis of dollars and cents, perhaps a government operated disposal program is not good business. Village books show that the plan cost $900 of taxpayers' money last year. Council apparanetly believes that the program should be self-supporting.

We disagree with such reasoning. We believe that the collection and disposal of garbage and other waste from the homes and stores in Tecumseh is just as important a village function as is the operation of the police department, the fire department, or the sewer and water departments. We do not expect our police department or our fire department to be self-supporting. We pay taxes to provide the service and that is as it should be.

If the Village halted its garbage collection service and forced householders and store owners to rely on a privately operated service, what assurance would residents have that the service would be adequate and dependable? Suppose the private operator decided some stormy morning that he did not desire to work, and didn't work? Suppose the private operator discovered that, he too, was losing money and suddenly quit operation? What would residents do then?

Years ago, before the Village entered into the collection business, residents were forced to depend upon a hit-and-miss service and they became disgusted with it. It was because of this inadequate service, under private operators, that the Village went into the business, when Tecumseh had far less population than it has today.

How, we ask, can a progressive, growing community, such as Tecumseh, get along without such a service? We do not believe that it can.

It seems to us that Council has two choices in the matter. First, to remain in the collection business itself, and operate its own trucks or; Second, to issue a franchise to some bonded individual to do the work. Both methods are practiced in other communities.

We'd hate to think what Tecumseh would smell like this summer without some adequate service for the disposal of waste. We doubt that the Council would enjoy the odor any more than the rest of Tecumseh's citizens. And we'd venture to say that should the Council permit the collection service to break down, it would not be long before it would be hearing from the voters.

The time for public action, however, is not after the service breaks down. The time for action is NOW. If the people here want government-operated or controlled collection service they should tell the Council NOW. They shouldn't wait until the service ends.

We don't believe that we should junk the service simply because it is costing us, as taxpayers, a few dollars a year. We'll spend far more than the loss amounts to on public health problems, if we do. And neither do we believe that the Council should abandon the service, simply because it is a headache from an administration standpoint.

Heaven knows, we don't envy any member of the Council his job. Every trustee gives long, hard hours of service to the Village, and for it he gets the magnificent sum of $60 a year. The present Council has discussed the garbage question for weeks on end—every member of the Council has spent more than $60 worth of his own time in considering a solution. Naturally, when folk complain, Council becomes irked. And so would we, if we sat in one of the Councilmen's chairs.

But becoming irked, throwing the problem back to the people for a solution, allowing garbage, ashes, tin cans and rubbish to collect and endanger the health of the community IS NOT THE ANSWER. Sure, a few folk will take care of their garbage, but what will the rest of the people do?

We'll have a mess—from a public health standpoint—should such a condition occur. And most of us are ready to admit that it has been enough of a mess as the program has been operated recently under government supervision. There is no doubt but that service has been irregular and that, in some instances, the policies of operation have been dictated by employees rather than by administration, itself. We wouldn't be surprised if it was this weakness in the program that cost the Village its $2,400 loss in revenue.

We dislike suggesting it—we know that taxes are high —but it seems to us that the only way to operate an adequate, satisfactory collection service here is for the Village to do it, give a pick up service to every house and store, and pay the cost out of the general tax fund. It might cost $10,000 a year for such a service, but individuals last year paid about $7,000—on a fee basis—for an inadequate service.

Why, then, is this not the solution: Let the Village REALLY get into the collection business. Give GOOD service. Administer the program from the office, where it belongs, and NOT from the truck. Make a pick-up at EVERY house. Rigidly ENFORCE health and sanitation laws. Give residents the SERVICE they want, and PAY THE BILL out of the general tax fund.

Suppose the service did cost $10,000 a year. There are more than 1,000 houses and stores in Tecumseh. The cost per house, and store, then, would be less than $10 a year and that is less than the $12 we have been paying in the past.

When everybody shares alike in a worthwhile public program—and everybody benefits, alike, as a result of such sharing—nobody gets hurt, financially.

Moved and supported that the Special report from the Board of Trustees of Herrick Memorial Hospital as presented be accepted as follows:

February 18, 1952

Board of Trustees
Herrick Memorial Hospital
Tecumseh, Michigan.

Gentlemen:

Attached is a Summary of operating revenues and total expenses of the Herrick Memorial Hospital from June 1938 thru December 31, 1951. Depreciation, Bad Debts, Salaries and Wages as shown are included in the total expense figures.

During this 13½ year period the hospital has cared for 34,042 patients for a total of 145,600 patient days. Also a total of 3,790 babies were born in the hospital.

Following are a few comparisons of interest.

Taking an average population of 3,000 people in the Village of Tecumseh over the past 13½ years, the operating loss of $5,227.24 has cost each person approximately 12½ cents a year.

For the past 13½ years it has cost the people of Tecumseh, as a whole, $.0359 for patient day of care in the hospital. This amounts to $.00001197 a person for the 13½ year period, or since the hospital has been in operation it cost each person of Tecumseh approximately one thousandth of a cent per patient days of care furnished by the hospital.

Bad Debts have amounted to less than 8/10 of 1% of sales.

The Village $25,000.00 bond issue, plus cash advanced in 1938 of $3,000.00 and in 1944 of $3,500.00, makes a total of $31,500.00 that the Village has contributed to the hospital. For this $31,500.00 spent, the Village now owns a hospital that has a net worth, as of December 31, 1951, of $163,139.47.

Donations to the hospital have amounted to $138,732.44 which have come principally from Mr. Herrick. The next largest donations have come from the Women's Hospital Auxiliary who have donated capital equipment amounting to $7,762.95 as at December 31, 1951. This amount, together with projects this organization now have underway, will make their donations approximately $10,000.00 to date.

In 13½ years the hospital has grown from a 18 bed to 48 bed hospital.

Yours very truly,
/s/ Kenneth Davison

RESOLVED:

Whereas, it has been called to the attention of the Village of Tecumseh that certain organizations representing Policeman and Firemen are again appealing to our State Legislature for legislation to control by law, certain rights and privileges as defined in House Bill No. 199 which would make it mandatory for every City and Village over 5,000 population to place patrolmen on a forty hour week, and House Bill No. 201 which would make it mandatory for every City and Village maintaining an organized paid or part time fire department to give employees an additional twenty-four hours off duty in every eight day period (the second Kelly Day), thereby giving them a 63 hour "duty week." These hours including the time the firemen are permitted to sleep, and

Whereas, the Village of Tecumseh does not oppose the right of any municipal employee to press for increased compensation and better working conditions, it is felt that such problems would best be solved with full consideration to the needs and to the particular problems confronting and existing in each City or Village and because it is felt that such legislation would further invade the rights now enjoyed and deemed necessary to the continued operation of all "Home Rule" cities. We as a Village of a population of 4,000 and approaching that of 5,000 do hereby earnestly object to the adoption of the two proposed bills as above referred to and the Village Clerk is hereby directed to furnish a copy of this resolution to Senator Porter and Representative Conlin at Lansing.

Adopted:

Ayes: Mensing, Rohweder, Heilman, Fosbender, Porter, Truesdale

On motion Council adjourned.

Miss Delight Steuwe Weds Orville G. Sieler

The North Blissfield Lutheran church was the scene of a lovely wedding, Saturday evening, when the marriage vows of Miss Delight Gertrude Steuwe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Steuwe of Britton, and Orville George Sieler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Sieler of Riga, were spoken. The Rev. William Weinlander performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30, before an altar lighted with candelabra and decorated with palms and baskets of flowers.

Miss Sally Prielipp played organ nuptial music while the guests were being seated by Raymond and Herman Steuwe, jr., brothers of the bride, Walter Sieler, brother of the bridegroom, Merlan Young, Marvin Fink and Lavern Moll. Gene Mackey of Deerfield sang, "Always," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin with tiny buttons down to waiste. The peplum was trimmed with imported French lace and the collar was Queen Ann style. Her veil was of three-quarter length with a satin cap of pearls and lace. Her only jewelry was a cross with a five-diamond center, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. William Ferow, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress was aqua and of ballerina length. Miss Beverly Brown was maid of honor and she wore a pink ballerina dress. Other attendants were Mrs. Harlan Preston of Detroit and Mrs. Lavern Moll, sisters of the bride, Mrs. Merlan Young, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Raymond Steuwe, a sister-in-law of the bride, and the Misses Bernice Moll of Tipton, and Nancy Schott of Manchester. They wore orchid, yellow and green gowns. All wore crosses, similar to that of the bride's, a gift of the bride. Each carried colonial bouquets of carnations matching their gowns.

The flower girls were Linda Jean Preston, niece of the bride, and Jo Ann Sieler. Each wore pink net over satin designed the same as the bride's, with pink veils, and carried baskets of rose petals. Larry Preston, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer and carried the rings on a white satin pillow. Norman Sieler, served as his brother's best man, and William Ferow as attendant.

Mrs. Setuwe chose for her daughter's wedding a floor-length gown of old rose and lace, navy accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Sieler chose a biege dress with lavender accessories and a white orchid corsage.

A reception was held in the Tecumseh Products Union Hall in Tecumseh for 400 guests. A buffet luncheon was served with the bridal table centered with a four-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Ralph Sieler served the cake. Miss Beatrice Logan was at the guest book. Art Smith and his orchastra furnished music for dancing.

Mrs. Sieler is a graduate of Britton high school and is now employed at the Tecumseh Products Co., and Mr. Sieler is also employed at Products.

For traveling Mrs. Sieler changed to a three-piece green and navy suit with navy accessories and wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet. After a trip through the south they will reside near Tecumseh.

Miss Jeanette De Clercq Weds Harold E. Brady

Miss Jeanette Bertha DeClercq, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeClercq of 209 E. Kilbuck street, and Harold Eugene Brady, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Brady, jr., 315 W. Logan street, all of Tecumseh, were united in marriage at the St. Elizabeth Catholic church rectory, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Father Michael Collins performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a royal blue suit with pink accessories and a pink carnation corsage. Her sister, Shirley DeClercq, chose a pink and grey checked suit with pink accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Gerald DeClercq, brother of the bride, was Mr. Brady's best man.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. Only the immediate families attended the ceremony. In the evening a reception for 100 guests was held in the K. of P. Hall. Miss Helen Adams was in charge of the guest book. The bridal table was centered with the traditional wedding cake. Mrs. Milton Righter and Mrs. Horace Phillips were in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. Brady is a graduate of Tecumseh high school and is employed in the office of Hayden Flour Mills. Mr. Brady was recently discharged from army service with three years overseas duty, and is now employed at Tecumseh Products Company. The newlyweds are making their home at 7020 Occidental Road.

Retail Group

Tecumseh Products Co., spoke to he merchants, urging them to "follow through" with the promotions in an effort to capture a greater portion of Products' $12,000,000 payroll, sixty per cent of which is now going outside Tecumseh.

At the outset of the meeting, Mr. Moore read a summary of a trading trend survey, conducted here last summer by a special group of canvassers. The survey showed buying trends of residents in some 22 different lines, and gave the merchants an opportunity to study any weaknesses in the many departments.

William Wright, chairman of the Chamber's membership campaign reported that the drive is functioning successfully, with an ever-growing list of paid-up memberships. It is the Chamber's objective, Mr. Wright said, to make every business and professional man and woman in Tecumseh a member of the organization.

Moore told the group that the Chamber board now is meeting weekly until a more definite program for the organiaztion can be outlined. He pointed out that the Chamber functions for the benefit of everybody in Tecumseh, and he urged greater cooperation.

The Chamber president also declared that one of the early objectives of the organization is to change Tecumseh's government from village to city form.

Communism In Top Government Discussed, By Resident Of Macon

(Editor's Note—This is the second installment of a communication received by The Herald a week ago from Mr. Arthur Lopshire of Macon, in which he discusses some of the national problems. The first installment was printed a week ago, and the communication is concluded in this issue. The communication was purposely divided into two installments by the editor, because of its length).

Communisim In Government

It seems that when one party in a Democratic form of government perpetuates itself in power, communists seek out and manage to get themselves located in key positions in all branches of government. You would be most likely to find them in the State Department and the Intelligence Branch of the United States Army.

The American people have been repeatedly assured that there are no communists in our State Department and in fact it would be quite ridiculous to assume that they could ever be found in such a sensitive place as our Army Intelligence. Further, we have loyalty-checking boards to guard against such conditions.

In spite of all these assurances to the American people, Senator McCarthy pointed out a whole list of pro-communists employed in our State Department. Those named are now in jail, fired or still on the job.

Remember this important fact: Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, who is entrusted with the tremendous responsibility of guiding the Ship of State over the turbulent sea of International Diplomacy to a harbor of peace or war, in substance, "I cannot turn my back on my friend, Alger Hiss." Today Hiss is in jail, convicted of perjury and charged with passing secret documents to Soviet agents.

John Service, a career diplomat for the State Department, and a specialist on the Far East, was just recently fired by Dean Acheson. He was permitted to remain on his job for two years afer being charged by Senator McCarthy of being a pro-communist. Service has been investigated eight times. Service was cleared six times by the State Department's Loyalty Security Board and one time by the majority on the Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee. The investigation was prompted by Senator McCarthy's charges.

Finally the Loyalty Review Board decided that there was a reasonable doubt as to the loyalty of John Service and he was finally dismissed by Acheson as a "poor risk."

But Philip Jeasup, Ambassador-at-large now occupying a job on the UN, was named by McCarthy also. Although thirty-seven U. S. Senators have demanded his recall, he is still permitted to remain on the job.

When the American people read about such incidents in the press, they begin to wonder just to what extent the Reds have gained a foothold in our State Department. What effect they have had in the formulation of our Far Eastern foreign policy, should be thoroughly investigated. In my opinion our Far Eastern foreign policy has been bungled and we have gotten ourselves into a treacherous and costly war. The American people are wondering, and have a right to know, if communist influence has been effective in working out our foreign policy. The policy followed for the past several years certainly appears from all angles, to be expressly planned for the benefit of the Soviet Union to the detriment of the United States. We made our first mistake in agreeing to divide Korea at the 38th parallel, separating it into two separate countries. Our next mistake was withdrawal of the U. S. troops leaving the South Koreans inadequately trained and inadepuately armed to fight even a defensive war against the North Korean Reds. When I was there in 1946, the fact that the North Koreans were building up a large army estimated at 300,000 then, was almost common knowledge to the South Koreans. It was also known that schools of sabotage, schools of indocrination into communism, schools in the art of subterfuge were in existence North of 38th parallel. Our next mistake was acquiescing in the Argarian Reform Movement in China. This movement was sanctioned by the IPR, a communist-front organization.

Now let me ask you, are these all mistakes, or have they been cleverly planned by communists, and by men who have by their actions and deeds displayed an affinity for the communistic idealogy?

It appears that we have been cleverly maneuvered into a war by the Communist plan and as a direct result of our bungled foreign policy in the Far East.

There are two more would-be mistakes that could yet be made and they are, turning Formosa over to the Reds which would liquidate Chiang Kai Shek and his forces, and the recognition and admission of Red China to the UN. But General MacArthur's recall and his subsequent revelations, precluded such action. Public opinion finally enters into the picture for the first time. Now, how do we know that the State Department did not intend to make these next two mistakes? In the Administration vs MacArthur hearing Senator Knowland insisted, over the objections of Acheson, that a document be read into the record. The document showed that the State Department tried to explain away the expected loss of Formosa by claiming it had "no special military significance."

Our U. S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas apparently is stumping for recognition of Red China in the U.N.

Now if the two mistakes could have been executed by our State Department, the Communist conquest would have been completed. They will never be executed now, because public opinion has changed the policy of the Department of State in the Far East. The State Department now stands for retaining Formosa and against the admission of Red China to the U.N. Let me ask you, "Who engineered all these mistakes we have made in formulating the Far Eastern foreign policy over the past several years?" Now don't think that Congress was totally in the dark on the Korean situation. Congressman Paul W. Shafer of the third congressional district of Michigan warned Congress of the dangerous Korean situation as early as March, 1947.

Let us see what happened in the Army Signal Corps Intelligence Agency, a most sensitive spot in our Army. It is a center for receiving intelligence reports from all over the world and many of these reports are vital to our national defense.

Fifty-seven highly classified security documents have disappeared from the Army Intelligence files.

Since the unit is composed of only 90 civilians and 21 military personnel, it should not have been a difficult task to keep the agency free of subversive activities with itself. Our G-2 revealed that seven civilians have been under investigations for more than a year. When TOP SECRET documents disappeared completely from Army G-2 files, the American people have a right to become concerned about the future security of their country.

Ten of the above employees, including three commissioned officers petitioned Congress to investigate alleged subversive activities within the agency.

The question arising in the minds of the American people now is why didn't Lt. Col. Allen, the ranking officer of the petition movement, report to his superior?

He chose to petition Congress. Why?

The American people are also wondering what happened to the highly classified report of the Polish Massacre, executed by Col. Van Vleit on May 22, 1945. It disappeared.

The average citizen of this country, I believe, is cognizant of the danger to our country's security, created by the activities of this subversive element in our government. We Americans who cherish our form of government can still preserve it, if we as a nation decide to act as individuals. You are represented in Washington by Congressmen. Some Congressmen act on their own initiative. Others have to be reminded and forced into action by their constituents. Now if your Congressmen should not happen to know how to proceed in the task of eliminating this dangerous Red element from your government, then you might suggest to them just how they can go about doing the job. American citizenship is a privilege bestowed upon most of us at birth and guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States.

If any individual, in or out of Government, seeks to destroy the Constitution by subversive actions of any nature, is there any reason why he should not be deprived of this sacred privilege?

Invariably when subversives are cornered or caught they immediately seek protection under the very Constitution they are planning to destroy. As an individual you can do a lot for your Country by demanding that your Congressmen support legislation denying or depriving citizenship to individuals who are trying to liquidate America.

Arthur P. Lopshire.

Chances are 1 out of 4 you will face hospital bills in the next 12 months!

Here's a wonderful way to protect your hard-earned savings against hospital and medical bills, and to afford the best medical care.

THERE IS NO ESCAPE from hospital-confining accident or sickness for one out of four families in Michigan during 1952. It is estimated that about 425,000 Michigan families will suffer this experience in the next 12 months.

But there is a way to escape the hospital and medical bills that follow accident and sickness. At little cost, you can get health-care protection sponsored by Michigan hospitals and doctors.

Blue Cross - Blue Shield provides big benefits . . . and a lot of them!

In the 12 years since Michigan hospitals and doctors started BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD, these plans have paid out over 220 million dollars in benefits for subscribers. They have provided hospital and surgical benefits totalling as much as $8,054 for one person in a single case.

BLUE CROSS Comprehensive Group Hospital Plan provides up to 120 days care in ward or semi-private room, according to the service for which you enroll, in any of the 192 participating hospitals in Michigan. There's no cash limit on the certificate benefits covered, no matter how high the total bill!

BLUE SHIELD Medical-Surgical Plan pays generous amounts for specific procedures and provides substantial payments towards your doctor's visits to the hospital in non-surgical cases.

"Blue Cross is more than worth the little it costs just to know that if anything does happen to you, all the hospital care needed is yours without worrying about how to pay the bill. This year alone, Blue Cross has paid over $1,000.00 in hospital benefits for Mrs. Ludwig and me. Without Blue Cross, I would have had to go into debt to meet this expense.

"Believe me, anybody who is working, should have Blue Cross - Blue Shield."

Mr. Joseph A. Ludwig

Blue Cross - Blue Shield benefits you can't measure in dollars and cents!

Your health-care benefits are taken care of automatically, without red tape . . . with no embarrassing questions asked . . . with no complicated claim forms to fill out. BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD pays hospitals and doctors directly.

The best possible protection at the lowest possible cost!

Several BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD plans are available. The average cost is about 9 cents per person per day.

Wholly non-profit operation makes these low costs possible. Every penny received above nominal expense, is earmarked for benefits that go back to the members. BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD plans are a public service and a public trust conducted truly and purely "for the people" of Michigan by the hospitals and doctors themselves.

"Blue Cross has been wonderful. It was a great relief to know I was receiving the care needed to get well without worrying about the cost. When I saw the bill for $2,400 which Blue Cross paid, I realized just how fine Blue Cross service 'benefits' really are. Why, without Blue Cross, we would have had to sell our home to pay that kind of a bill!"

Mrs. Irene Matousek

Who is eligible for Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection? If your firm employs 5 or more people, it may be eligible for BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD Comprehensive Group health-care protection.

Agricultural workers can join through Farm Bureau Discussion Groups or Grange Groups.

COUNCIL RESCINDS MOVE TO END PROGRAM; MAY GIVE FRANCHISE TO PRIVATE OPERATOR

The Village Council, in session Monday evening, rescinded a tabled motion of two weeks ago, calling for an end to the government-operated garbage collection business in Tecumseh and, instead took under consideration a plan to turn the program over to a private operator on a franchise basis. If this cannot be accomplished, then some other plan will be discussed. However, until a suitable arrangement can be worked out, the public was assured that the Village would remain in the collection and disposal business, as has been its practice in the past.

The threat to end the Village-operated pick-up business here came two weeks ago after a group of downtown merchants had visited the Council and advised that group that charges made for business area rubbish and trash collections were too high and prohibitive. The Council countered by saying that it had been losing money on the downtown collection, prior to rate increases, and that the over-all garbage collection program, last year, cost the village about $900. Council felt that the plan should be self-supporting and, after discussion, a motion was made to end the village-wide program. The motion was tabled until Monday evening.

Members of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce were present at the Council meeting Monday night, and expressed the opinion that the collection service should not be ended, even though it became necessary for the village to perform the work and charge the cost in taxes. The board remained at the meeting and discussed the garbage program with the council. Board members present were R. W. Herrick, Robert H. Moore, C. O. Butler, Donald Nixon, and Ed Boss. Hal Kelso also attended.

As the collection-disposal program now stands, the Village will continue, for a time at least, the service as in the past. Most subscribers to the program are paid up for the Village collection until April 1. Between now and the first of next month, the Council hopes to come up with a plan that will be workable. It already has two parties interested in taking over the operation of the business, on a franchise basis. To make such a program operative, it would be necessary to enact a new ordinance, governing the work, and this may be done. However, first the village must reach an agree-

Work Is Started On New Sewage Disposal Plant

W. I. Bulson, of Detroit, general construction superintendent of Tecumseh's new $285,000 sewage disposal plant, arrived on the job Monday and work on that project was immediately launched.

It had originally been planned to start the work with the building of a pumping station on West Chicago boulevard, near the city limits. However, the program was changed, and work will be started immediately on the construction of the plant itself, on the site south of M-50 across from the Universal Button Company's plant.

Allocations have been received from all critical materials, and it is expected that work will progress steadily throughout the spring and summer. It is planned to have the plant in operation in the fall, E. C. Heilman, chairman of the Council's sewer committee, said today.

INFANT DAUGHTER DIES

Baby Sue Lynne Keas, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Keas of Tecumseh, died at birth Sunday morning in Herrick Memorial Hospital. Surviving besides the parents, William and Annie Maude Wilson Keas, are one sister, Paula Conrey, and one brother, William Keas, III; the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Keas of Hillsdale, and Mrs. Annie Wilson of Unaston, Alabama. A prayer service was held at Brookside cemetery Monday afternoon at 1:30.

FUND BOARD TO MEET

The Community Fund Board will meet Monday evening, March 10 at 7 p.m. in the United Savings Bank. The meetings are open to the public and anyone interested is invited to attend.

Photo above shows members of the Cleveland Bible College Choir who will present a program here on Sunday, March 9, at 8 p.m., in the Friends Church. The choir, which has presented concerts in many states, is made up of 28 men and women, four of whom are from Tecumseh. They are Norma and Marian Comfort, Josephine Powell and Joyce Kopka.

$1,500 Red Cross Quota Is Sought

CONTRIBUTIONS WILL BE RECEIVED BY COMMITTEE OR AT DESK IN BANK HERE

Tecumseh this week launched its campaign to raise $1,500 as its share of the county's Red Cross quota. Mrs. Vincent Haight and Mrs. L. W. Larsen are co-chairmen of the campaign, and they will be assisted by a group of local women

There is no plan this year to make a house-to-house solicitation for funds and neither will a drive be made in the business or industrial districts. All contributions will be received by workers at a desk in the lobby of the United Savings Bank, or by members of the committee. The bank booth will be in operation on Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.

This year's quota locally is about $200 more than it was a year ago and the reason for this was explained as due to the heavy demands made upon the Red Cross treasury, nationally, for flood and disaster relief.

"We believe that once the public understands the need for funds—and that it is urgent, that Tecumseh will have no difficulty in meeting its quota," Mrs. Haight said. "We urge cooperation in this worthwhile program."

It was pointed out that the Red Cross did not participate in the Community Fund drive here last fall. The Red Cross does not participate in any campaign, but prefers to stage its own. That is the policy not only here but nationally, it was explained.

School District No. 5 Now Part of District 7

School District No. 5 has turned over its assets to Tecumseh School District No. 7, and is now a part of the Tecumseh district, it was announced today by James McDowell, superintendent, following a meeting of the board of education. The board of District 5 has been dissolved, and the board of District 7 is now the ruling body. District 5 voted some weeks ago to become a part of District 7.

At the board's meeting, Tuesday evening, plans for the expansion of the district's buildings was discussed, and ways and means of financing the program were studied It is expected that the board will have a program to submit to electors later in the month.

Teachers' contracts were sent out this week, as approved by the board. A survey of the staff shows that there are only three teachers with less than two years experience; 12 with from two to five years, seven with five to 10, and seven with from 10 to 15. Four teachers have 15 to 20 years, seven, 20 to 25 years, three with 25 to 30 years, one 30 to 35 years, and one 40 to 45 years.

The board also approved the school's entrance into the new Southeastern Michigan Conference, and its withdrawal from the Lenawee County Athletic Association.

DISTRICT GOVERNOR

Leon Williamson, a member of the Tecumseh Exchange Club, has been appointed district governor, which area includes Lenawee, Washtenaw and Monroe counties. Mr. Williamson is a past president of the Tecumseh Exchange and received the appointment from the National Exchange. Mr. and Mrs. Williamson are vacationing in Florida and plan to return about April 1.

Indians Downed By Summerfield

TECUMSEH CAGERS LOSE SECOND TILT OF SEASON BUT HOLD ONTO LCAA TITLE

In their second upset of the season, the Tecumseh high school Indians lost to Summerfield high last Friday evening by a score of 34 to 28. The loss did not affect Tecumseh's hold on the LCAA crown, however, and Coach Duvall's men will play in the tournament at Adrian at 9 p.m., next Friday evening against Lambertville. The Class B tourney gets under way tonight at the Adrian high gym with Adrian playing Blissfield.

The Summerfield upset, there, came as a surprise to local fans, and the victory earned them a fifth place tie berth in the final league standings. The Bulldogs clutched onto the lead in the opening minutes of play and they retained a slight margin until the final whistle.

The Indians had a 2-0 lead during the first minutes but the first quarter ended 11 to 6 in favor of Summerfield. At half-time, the score was 10 to 16 and at the close of the third stanza Summerfield was leading 23 to 20. The Bulldogs picked up 11 more markers in the last frame to Tecumseh's 8.

The loss only put a dent into Tecumseh's league standings, chalking up a two game loss to 12 victories in 14 starts. Blissfield wound up in second place in the LCAA with 11 wins and three defeats. Morenci was fourth, 10 wins and four losses, and Pittsford, fifth, with five wins and nine losses. Summerfield, as a result of the victory over the Indians, placed fifth with five wins and nine losses, to tie with Pittsford, and Hudson came in next with four wins and ten losses. Clinton wound up in the cellar with two wins and 12 defeats.

When the Indians finish the tournament in Adrian they will wind up play in the LCAA. The school is withdrawing from the league at the close of this season and next fall will join the new Southeastern Michigan Conference.

All-County Basketball Teams were chosen Monday evening at the LCAA meeting held at the Adrain College. Members chosen on the first team were: Mallory, Lippens and Beirty, all of Blissfield, Solmonson of Morenci, and Sisson, of Tecumseh; the second team was Reitz of Tecumseh, Strickler of Summerfield, Hutchins of Hudson, Stevenson of Pittsford, and Tibbs of Addison.

The choir is now on its annual spring tour which will take it through several of the eastern and southern states as well as the engagement in the local Friends church.

The choir is composed of twenty-eight mixed voices. It has been organized since 1940 and its tours of the past years have taken it throughout almost all sections of the eastern United States.

The members of the group, representing five different states and one foreign country, are planning to enter full-time Christian work as ministers, missionaries, Christian educators, and song evangelists. Norma and Marian Comfort, Josephine Powell, and Joyce Kopka, all of Tecumseh, are members of the choir.

The public is invited to hear this sacred concert which includes famous hymns of the church, gospel songs, and semi-classic hymns and anthems; trumpet trio and girls trio. There will be no admission charge but an offering will be received.

New Parking Lot On S. Pearl St.

COUNCIL FORMALLY VOTES TO TAKE OVER GOVERNMENT PLOT; WILL BE GRADED

The Village Council, in regular session, Monday evening, considered a variety of matters and listened to reports of committee and department heads.

Frank K. Smith, vice-chairman of the Herrick Memorial Hospital board of trustees, presented a board-discussed plan for further enlargement of the hospital, and his report was accepted. The plan calls for the expansion of the building over a five-year period, but is still in a formative stage.

The need for a new police car, to replace the present vehicle, was discussed. The finance committee was authorized to act, either in the purchase of a car or to obtain one on a rental basis.

The audit of the books of the Cemetery Association was presented and accepted.

The Village accepted from the federal government the use of a lot on South Pearl street, owned by the postoffice department, as a site for a new parking lot. The lot will be graded and ready for parking purposes in a few weeks. The lot was bought several years ago by the government as a site for a new postoffice, but when, if ever, such a building is built is problematical.

Purchase of materials for the new sewage disposal plant was authorized, as was partial payment for excavation work already done.

The taxicab franchise to Sam Sines for local operation was rescinded and a franchise for six months granted to Lyle T. Letts.

A narrow strip of ground, immediately south of M-50 near the old Hayden Mill, and adjoining property owned by the village as a site for the new sewage disposal plant, was purchased from Perry Satterthwaite at a cost of $50.

Reports of committee and department heads were read and placed on file and current bills were audited and ordered paid.

The American Legion Auxiliary met at Legion Memorial Home, Monday evening, for the regular meeting. The annual magazine subscription drive, sponsored by the Auxiliary the past three weeks, was a success and the president, Mrs. Charles Osburn, thanked everyone who helped in any way.

The Auxiliary has purchased, thus far, for community use, eight hospital beds, one fracture bed and one wheel chair. Since having the hospital beds they have been used in 145 homes. Jan. 1, 1951, to Dec. 31, 1951, the hospital beds were used in 34 homes; Jan. 1, 1951, to Dec. 31, 1951, the wheel chair was in 34 homes. At the present time the equipment is all in use and several calls were received for euipment this week. Some needed equipment for community use, will be purchased with the proceeds from the recent magazine drive. The Auxiliary also voted $15 to the Polio Fund.

A communication was read from the membership chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Herrick, stating that the unit has reached its quota of 150 members. It was decided to purchase eight awnings for the new hospital addition. This has been a project the Auxiliary started when the hospital was first built. The rehabilitation chairman, Mrs. Richard Eggleston, reported the purchase of five hankies and Mother's Day cards which will be sent to the Veterans hospital in Dearborn as a part of a project to enable each Veteran in the hospital to remember his mother. It was voted to give $10 to the Red Cross drive. Mrs. Robert Smith was appointed general chairman of the Dance Revue, which the Auxiliary will sponsor on May 23 and May 24.

The accident, according to police, happened at 6:30 p.m., Sunday, at Chicago boulevard and Democrat street. The child was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital for treatment and released. Later, at his home, he became ill and was returned to the hospital. He lapsed into unconsciousness and was removed to the U. of M. Hospital, Ann Arbor.

German Student Speaks To Rotary Club Tuesday

Alfred Born of Freiburg, Germany, senior high school student in Tecumseh as a member of the Rotary Club's Youth for Understanding student exchange, was one of the speakers at Tuesday's meeting of the Rotary club here, following dinner at the Country Club. He chose as his subject, "Looking Inside Present Germany." According to Mr. Born, Germany's greatest problem today is communism. He likened his country to Korea, which is divided into two sections, and declared that Western Germany lives in constant fear of the Red advance.

"Believe me," he said, "when I tell you that Germany today is interested in peace, democracy and freedom, but she is a misunderstood nation. She has economic, social and political problems, the same as any other country." He declared that Western Germany would not surrender its hold on democracy to consolidate its country.

Mary Lou Dibble of Tipton, a high school junior, interested in 4-H Club work and several times a state winner in competitive contests, spoke on the subject, "American Objective—Democracy."

Both students were guests of Delmar Crisp, high school instructor.

Voters Will Go To Polls, Monday

ONLY ONE TICKET IN FIELD AND PEOPLES' CANDIDATES GOOD AS ELECTED

With only one ticket in the field, the Peoples' Party candidates seemed certain of election today as Tecumseh voters prepared to go to the polls next Monday, March 10, to choose a president, three members of the council and other village officers. As has been customary in the past, voting will be done in the Council Building on South Evans street, and the polls will be open from 7 a.m., until 8 p.m.

A very light vote is expected, due to a lack of interest in the election.

"It wouldn't surprise me," one person close to village government said today, "if it cost well over $1 in election expense, for every vote cast here Monday." The spokesman believed that less than 100 voters would be polled.

J. Floyd Elliott, veteran president of the village and council member for several terms, is seeking reelection as head of the village. Incumbent members of the council who are seeking return engagements are E. C. Heilman, J. H. Rohweder and Howard Truesdale.

Other officers seeking reelection are: Robert Kroner, clerk, T. J. Wagner, assessor, and Mrs. Myrna Tingley, treasurer.

The three members of the council whose terms do not expire are Charles Mensing, Carl Fosbender and Archie Porter.

The Peoples' Party candidates were nominated at a caucus, held in the Council Building on Tuesday, February 18, and attended by less than 40 persons. The Progressive Party, which placed another ticket in the field here for several years, was inactive this year, as was the case in 1951.

OPS Cannot Establish Prices

Try as it will, the Office of Price Stabilization cannot permanently fix prices. It may try, but that is all that it can do. And after government effort has been exhausted the law of supply and demand still will remain the rule that will ultimately establish values.

As everybody knows, a great many commodities — especially those of a perishable nature — cost more at certain seasons of the year than at others. And many consumers undoubtedly wonder why this should be so.

Actually, there is no mystery to it at all. The basic reason for it is a law which is as old as civilization itself, and which was made by natural forces, not by man — the law of supply and demand.

Take pork as a typical example. More than half of the pigs first come into the world in the spring. All summer and a part of the fall they spend eating and growing. During this period, the supply of pork in the consumer markets is naturally less than it will be later on, while demand remains fairly constant. As a consequence, pork prices reach their annual peak along about September.

Then, during the late fall and winter the new crop of pigs is marketed. The supply rises swiftly and the relationship between it and the demand changes accordingly. So pork prices slide downward, reaching their low — if a free market exists — during December.

There is nothing theoretical about this. Government charts and figures show it to be an established fact, that occurs year after year as a matter of economic routine.

Presently, the pork market is off, prices in the past few days have dropped sharply. It would appear this year that we are reaching our low in February or March. Why? There has been meddling with the prices — a man made effort to control them. But prices have hit a low, nevertheless.

No human being or combination of human beings can long control prices. In the final analysis, the law of supply and demand will become operative. It is nature's way of controlling the things we grow and the things we make. When there is an abundance, prices are down, when there is a shortage, prices are up.

OPS not withstanding, the only real "fixer" of prices is the good old law of supply and demand — the soundest economic law that ever existed or ever will.

Faith Is Our Greatest Need

Defensive action alone ultimately winds up in defeat. This is common knowledge, yet our present political philosophy has been defensive. For example, our people are against Communism but most of us fail to realize that merely being against it is meaningless. To win, you have got to be for something.

More people who know what they are for rather than what they are against is the greatest need of the moment — people who do not weigh the value of personal liberty in terms of television sets, price indexes, so-called social gains and the animal comforts politicians love to harp on as vote-getting devices.

The bitter truth is that we are losing our personal liberty at home just as we have been losing the contest with world communism because we haven't the fortitude to be for something. We have been losing because we have not had the faith in the founding principle of our own government — independence. We have tolerated the development of a bureaucracy which has grown into a collossus that takes a third of all paychecks. We have accepted lying down the mouthings of power-hungry politicians who are spending our depreciated currency at the rate of $85,000,000,000 annually. We have been taught to be cynical toward productive industry and thrift and the property rights of private citizens. From this point it can be but a short step to political and religious oppression.

The current budget of the Federal Government — over $85,000,000,000 — recently inspired a blistering editorial by Life Magazine: " . . . Congress had dam well better pass some self-reforming acts . . . Otherwise the Federal budget will remain the incomprehensible sign of America's creeping retreat from political self-control to tyranny through ignorance."

Only an exhibition of faith in independence and a hatred of government oppression and excessive taxation can stem the growth of internal bureaucracy and the soul destroying march of world communism, and perpetuate the United States we have known.

The old and wise saying that the power to tax is the power to destroy still remains true. The power to tax, at the present time, is unlimited, insofar as Washington politicians are concerned.

Remember! Once our economy is destroyed, it would be a simple thing for Communism to take over. Perhaps that is the thinking today in Moscow. Perhaps we are doing, internally and through taxation, the very thing that Russia wishes us to accomplish.

Consumers Asks Gas Rate Boost

PETITIONS STATE FOR INCREASE ON GROUNDS THAT PANHANDLE PRICE HAS ADVANCED

Consumers Power Company has petitioned the Michigan Public Service Commission for permission to raise its natural gas rates to permit an adequate return on the fair value of its gas service facilities in the face of rising costs.

The company states in the petition that the price of natural gas to its subsidiary and supplier, the Michigan Gas Storage Company, was raised approximately ten cents a thousand cubic feet, effective February 20, by the Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Company—from an average of 19 cents paid during the last five years to 29 cents per thousand cubic feet—and this raise will remain in effect until the Federal Power Commission makes a final determination of Panhandle's rates.

The present increase will mean an added cost of gas to Consumers Power Company of more than $4,000,000 a year, according to D. E. Karn, president. Mr. Karn said at the time of filing the petition that the company was unable to state the total amount of rate increase that would be necessary.

The petition states that the increased cost of gas to the Storage Company will be reflected in higher charges to Consumers Power Company, which is thus placed in a "confused and perilous situation for an unknown future period. with the final increase in cost undetermined."

The petition said that the gas cost increase is only one of many cost increases experienced by Consumers Power Company recently. Since the present gas rates were approved in 1949, the petition states, all costs including taxes, wages, equipment, materials and supplies have increased substantially and are continuing upward.

The Panhandle rate increase was first filed with the FPC August 17, 1951, and provided for an approximate ten-cent increase per thousand cubic feet to the Storage Company. In September the FPC suspended the new rate schedule until February 20.

In its petition to the State Commission, Consumers states that it does not believe that the increase in the cost of gas to the Storage Company is just and reasonable, and that Consumers "is advised that the Storage Company will contest it, but a substantial increase in the cost of gas appears to be unavoidable."

Consumers serves more than 300,000 natural gas customers in 265 communities in Outstate Michigan, including the cities of Lansing, Flint, Royal Oak, East Detroit, Pontiac, Saginaw, Bay City, Jackson, Kalamazoo and Ferndale.

The company pointed out that the demand for natural gas service is almost insatiable and has been accentuated by the fact that natural gas is a premium fuel selling for less than the cost of competing fuels, and that continuing company efforts to extend service have called for wide capital outlays.

Call out the Reserves with a touch of your toe!

Most cars lead a double life.

A good part of the time, they're running errands, taking children to school, taking women to stores, taking men to work, taking family and friends to clubs and social functions.

It doesn't call for a very great output of horsepower for duties like these.

But there are times when you want a car that can do vastly more, and these are the times when you'll want what this year's ROADMASTER has to offer.

Beneath its proud hood, there's a Fireball 8 Engine—a valve-in-head that can let loose 170 lively horsepower when needed.

And—alongside this engine—there's also an Airpower carburetor which thriftily feeds fuel and air through two smaller-than-usual barrels for normal driving—which means that you now use less gas at 40 than you'd formerly use at 30.

But there are two barrels in reserve—waiting for you to call them into action—and they let loose a soaring rush of power that sinks your shoulders back into the seat cushion, swoops you past a truck—out of a tight spot—up a hill—sets your speedometer needle to registering added miles more than twice as fast as your watch can tick off the seconds.

This is an experience you certainly should know firsthand.

You should also know how Buick's Power Steering* provides a helping hand in slow-motion maneuvers—lets you keep the "feel" of the car in straightaway driving.

And just for good measure, this '52 ROADMASTER also has the biggest brakes of any postwar Buick—the greatest trunk space since spare tires moved off the front fenders—a warning light that glows when the parking brake is set—and to top it all, the smartest interior fabrics that Buick has ever offered.

When are you coming in to look this distinguished performer over? We urge you to make it soon.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.
Optional at extra cost on ROADMASTER only.*

INSIDE THE CAPITOL

By Lee M. Thurston
Superintendent of Public Instruction

Local Control of Schools is an issue that is discussed many times each year in every community of the State. It is a subject discussed by all political parties. It is considered in all state educational legisation. It undoubtedly will be discussed in the current session of the Legislature.

At a time when state support for local schools is being increased, it is natural that attention should be directed to the question of control. In public as in private affairs, it is generally the rule that power follows the purse. This rulel has not hitherto been followed in Michigan's state-local school system. The state's contribution to its locals schools has risen from $41,000,000 in 1941 to $161,000,000 in 1951. Nevertheless the Legislature has refrained during this 10-year period from diminishing local educational control. Michigan's school boards have as much power today in the administration of their schools as they had in 1941. This is a remarkable fact.

It is my belief that the American educational system, under strong local control has made itself one of the best, if not the very best, school system in the world. Its vitality derives from its very close affiliation with the people who govern the schools through their own elected representatives. It is the most popular public institution we have. It would be easy to change its character by passing laws that would lesson the authority of the people and their school boards, and put greater power in the hands of the State authorities. But such a change would profoundly alter the character of our schools, and might impair their health and vigor. These perils should be very carefully weighed by the Legislature before such a step is taken. The assertion of greater State control over education, a has been demonstrated in other States and countries, would have far reaching consequences.

The safer course is to press forward as we are doing in achieving better cooperative working relationships among citizens, their local school boards, State school officials and colleges and universities.

ment with a proposed franchise operator on price, policy, etc. It is possible that bids will be sought, but in any event, the Council will attempt to protect the public on prices to be charged by the operator, and on other phases of the program.

It is understood that the Council is not, at this time, interested in continuing the program on a basis whereby the Village would do the work, make a general pickup, and charge the cost back into taxes. The budget for this year already has been set up, and such a project was not anticipated. However, should the franchise plan fail to meet with general approval, a tax-paid program could be the answer at a later time.

Council hopes, before its next meeting in two weeks, to have definite costs and bids on a pickup, disposal plan. It is possible, if satisfactory arrangements can be made, that the business will be handed over to a franchised-operator on April 1. Council also decided not to bill garbage customers on April first—the regular billing date—pending the working out of the project.

"We should be able to work out a satisfactory collection service on a franchise basis," a spokesman for the Council said, Tuesday. "We can try it for a time, anyway, and see how it goes. It does work in other places but, if we can't make it function here, then the Village can really enter the business, buy suitable equipment, and, if necessary, charge the cost back in taxes."

AMERICANS AWARE OF THEIR FREEDOMS

"Communism may have unwittingly performed a real service by making Americans increasingly aware of their own rich heritage of freedom," said Lewis Paul Todd, editor of Social Education (National Council of Social Studies). "The emergence of the United States as a world leader is one of the most significant developments of the twentieth century. What American people do with their new responsibility may well determine the destiny of the world for centuries to come. Children and adults alike must understand that democracy is a hard taskmaster."

Miss Ardis C. Moore Bride of John J. Shiels

Miss Ardis Claudia Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, and James John Shiels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Shiels, all of Britton, spoke their marriage vows Thursday evening, February 28, at 7:30 in the Methodist church at Ridgeway. The Rev. Lorne Carter, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony. Tall white baskets of gladioli were on either side of the altar.

Mrs. Dewey Sturtevant played organ music and accompanied Gene Mackey of Deerfield, soloist, who sang "Because," and "I Love You Truly."

The bride, given in marriage by her step-father, wore a fitted suit of black and white flaked gabardine, with a corsage of American beauty roses. Phyllis Frost, her attendant, wore a fitted pink grey checked wool suit and a corsage of pink carnations.

Tom Judkins attended Mr. Shiels as best man. Bill Shiels, brother of the groom, and Dorman Mobley, were ushers.

The bride's mother chose a light royal blue and black print dress with navy accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Shiels, the groom's mother, a black floral print with black accessories. Both wore corsages of pink and white carnations.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony for 100 guests. Miss Mary Forgacs was in charge of the guest book. The traditional wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom encircled with silver bells and leaves. The W. S. C. S. was in charge of the reception. Mrs. Willis Palmer and Mrs. Tom Birdsall poured and the Misses Ardis Purple, Shirley Court, Ruth Stuart and Donna Spencer assisted with the serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Shiels spent the week-end in Detroit and are residing in their trailer home at the home of the groom's parents near Britton for the present. The bride is a graduate of the Britton high school with the class of 1951 and is employed as a telephone operator in Tecumseh. Mr. Shiels is also a graduate of the '51 class at Britton and is employed at Revco in Deerfield.

Germans Work For Education

STUDENTS IN COLLEGES, UNIVERSITIES TELL STORIES OF HARDSHIPS

Bonn, Germany—Most of West Germany's university students have to work their way through school.

Despite part-time jobs, more than two-thirds of them are living on monthly budgets about equal to those of the unemployed.

Povery was never greater among German students than it is today, owing to the impoverishment of the middle class which has always provided the bulk of the students, the influx of dispossessed refugees, and the steadily rising cost of living.

A survey conducted recently among 108,000 of the 116,000 students crowding West Germany's 16 universities, and 24 other institutes of university standing, has disclosed an appalling picture of struggle.

About 22,500, or 21 per cent, have no more than 50 marks (about $11.20) a month — half of what an unemployed man gets — for food, living expenses, and text books after university fees have been paid. Another 50,000, or 47 per cent, have to live on from 50 to 100 marks. By comparison, the average wage earner gets from 300 to 400 marks a month.

These low allowances have made the once gay life of German students one of dreary grind and toil.

More than half the students have not enough textbooks and 18 per cent have none at all. Some 24,000 students live in constant apprehension of having to abandon their studies for lack of means.

Only 34.22 per cent of the male students get all their money from their parents—the girls are better off with 54 per cent. A few live on pensions for disabled war veterans. The others work to fill the gaps in their budget.

Studies naturally suffer. Young philosophers and physicians, future clergymen and teachers beat carpets, run arrands, watch babies, or carry heavy bags in the docks of Hamburg. Before and after that work, they settle down to study.

The authorities do not know what to do about this situation. There is not enough money for scholarships.

In West Germany's richest state, North - Rhine - Westphalia, free meals are available for students. As a result, the number of boys eager to study at Bonn and Cologne Universities or the Technical University of Aachen has risen considerably.

Hesse also has an attraction — tuition is free.

Teachers agree that the number of university students should be restricted, but they cannot find a suitable way to do it. The "arbitur," the examination passed at the end of secondary school, gives everyone the right to attend a university.

Mail Order Concerns In Chicago Slash Prices

Chicago—Mail order houses in Chicago have announced price cuts on a wide variety of items.

Sears Roebuck & Co., Alden's and Spiegel's revealed the slashes right after Christmas.

Sears announced it had cut prices on more than 6,000 items, including 800 pieces of open-stock dinnerware. Sears knocked down by $50 the price of an 11-cubic-foot refrigerator and cut some men's jackets from $6.10 to $5.29.

The company reduced wool sharkskin slacks from $13.75 to $11.75 and women's shoes from $3.49 to $2.98.

Alden's reduced sheets 30 per cent, and blankets and curtains 10 per cent. Spiegel's reduced sheets from $2.39 to $2.12 and diapers from $2.59 to $2.19 a dozen.

Harry Stentifold, vice-president in charge of merchandising for Alden's, said the cuts reflected decreases in the textile market.

Alden's also reduced chambray work shirts from $1.49 to $1.21, nylon hose from 93 to 73 cents, and women's saddle shoes from $5.49 to $4.98.

These price cuts were announced in new catalogs.

Montgomery Ward also was reported to be planning some "sharp markdowns."

But a company spokesman declined to announce specific price changes because the new catalog has not been released.

They Do "Give A Hoot" For Easy

Easy Roberts finally got rid of the noisy pigeons that used to whoop it up under his eaves.

He must have tried a dozen ways to scare them off. But no matter what he did, they would be right back cooing by his window the next morning.

Then Easy thought of an old stuffed owl he had in his attic. He propped it on the roof so's all the pigeons could see it. They left . . . and three hoot owls have taken their place. Easy swears the hooting is even worse than the cooing of the pigeons.

From where I sit, quite often a "bright idea" will turn out to be "not so bright" after all. That's why we should never be too cocksure of our ideas and opinions—but always try to keep an open mind. I believe a refreshing glass of beer is the best thirst-quencher—you may believe differently. But who's to say one's right and the other is wrong? Let's just practice tolerance. It'll save a lot of hootin' and hollerin'.

Declares Inflation And Waste May Prove Democracy's Downfall

Inflation and waste result in higher taxes. The current question in the minds of most thinking Americans is, just how long can our Government continue spending billions and billions of dollars more than it takes in? Will our Government spend itself out of existence?

In reading the press I have come across such statistical expressions as the following: One dollar out of every four you earn goes for taxes, while one out of every ten is wasted. One individual out of every five receives some sort of payment from the Government. There are 2,500,000 Federal employees now, and that number is being increased at the rate of approximately 7,000 new employees each month. The present Administration spent 184 billions of dollars from July 1, 1945 to June 30, 1949. This is 30 billions more than was spent by our government in 147 years from the time of Washington to the end of Roosevelt's first term. The present budget is set at 85 billions. We, the American taxpayers, are sharing our wealth with 1500 millions of other people who are economically retarded.

Every time taxes are increased down comes the American standard of living. It would not be impossible for our Government to tax the people into a state of destitution which would destroy the spirit of American free enterprise and the will or desire to work.

Our American dollar has lost more than one-half its value since the beginning of World War II. In ten short years it has depreciated 50 per cent. Now wouldn't it be just common sense to assume that if the rate of depreciation were to go unabated for the next ten years we would be dangerously close to national bankruptcy? But since the rate of depreciation of the dollar has attained such momentum an economic crisis could occur much sooner.

To prevent a total economic collapse and to regain a sound governmental economy in this country, the rise in taxes will have to be stopped. This can be accomplished by the elimination of waste, by cutting out completely non-essential expenditures, by exercising rigid economic controls and by stopping at once our foreign aid to countries in which we are unable to maintain a constant and continual check on how this foreign aid is used. When we consider that within the last decade our foreign aid has been in excess of 100 billions of dollars, and since it has been quite a factor in raising our taxes, we should become concerned with how it is used.

We are supplying aid to England; she will not discontinue her trade with the Chinese Reds! Hundreds of millions of dollars have been poured into foreign shipping. Thousands of tons of steel plate have been shipped to ECA countries. What assurance do the American people have that this steel plate and their money have not been used in ships or vessels built for Russia?

Denmark, Belgium, Italy and the Netherlands have already built or now have under construction a total of 57 vessels which either have already been or will be delivered to Russia. Are we, the American tax-payers, building up a merchant marine for our potential enemy? That is something Congress should investigate.

Let us demand that there be no more foreign aid given to any Country where it may be ultimately used against us.

Inflation can be controlled, waste, corruption and graft can be eliminated, if we, the American people, elect a Congress which will be willing, capable and ready to preserve the American way of life.

No loyal American would complain about spending money to provide an adequate National Defense to protect and preserve his Country, but that which vitally concerns him most is that he likes to have the assurance that there is no waste, no corruption, no graft and that his money is being spent wisely.

It is reasonable to conclude that if the spending mania which has infected our National Government continues unchecked, national bankruptcy is inevitable and closer than we realize. This spending mania must be stopped before it plunges this country into a complete economic collapse.

Now, suppose national bankruptcy does occur. What will happen? The Communists will reappear with the pinks and the planners for a Socialistic State and be on hand to take an active part in establishing a Socialistic form of government. They will say, "You see, the old Capitalistic, Democratic Constitutional Government just didn't work, so now if we may secure the cooperation of the American people, we will have our liberal minded economists develop a governmental economy which will insure everybody everything." That, fellow Americans, will be the beginning of our Socialistic State! That will be the Government which will replace the Democracy for the preservation of which so many American have died.

If we stop to reflect, we will find that England failed to make Socialism work, even with the aid of American money.

In order to maintain Socialized Governmental economy, very strict and rigid economic controls will have to be enforced. These controls will become more and more complex and rigid as the Socialistic State progresses in its development until we find that we no longer have Socialism, but Communism instead!

Now Communism didn't work in Russia where all the past-masters at subterfuge and intrigue were available to make it work; there Communism has developed into a very distinct totalitarian form of Government. To maintain totalitarism in Russia, that country has been obliged to govern by intimidation of her oppressed subjects, thereby creating a reign of terror. It is estimated at the present time that there are approximately twelve million of her native Russians in slave labor camps. They are there because they have disagreed with the so-called communist form of life.

I am sure that no loyal American is ready and willing to replace our good old Capitalistic, Democratic Constitutional form of Government, with the so-called Communist Russian type which is in reality totalitarian. It isn't too late to save this Country if we, the American people will wake up and jar that Congress of ours into action.

Regardless of what our political affiliations might be, it is your duty to get out and vote at the coming election. If we fail to vote next time, it may be too late.

The Boy Scouts of America are planning to canvass every home to make sure that Americans vote. If they do this, then they will have rendered a service to their country equal to that being rendered by our boys in Korea, fighting Communism.

May God save America!

Sincerely,
Arthur P. Lopshire.

Herrick Hospital Gets $250,000 Gift

Enlarged Institution Planned; Building Will Start In August

Anonymous contribution will expand institution to largest in Lenawee county

A quart r of a million dollar addition to Herrick Memorial Hosp more than doubling its size, and making it the larges hospital in Lenawee county, was announced today by Frank K. Smith, vice-president of the institution.

The addition will be built without expense to the taxpayers, Mr. Smith said.

"The expansion program is made possible," Smith declared, "by an anonymous gift. We are not permitted to divulge the name of Tecumseh's benefactor. The only thing that I can say is that the person making the contribution is vitally interested in Tecumseh and in Tecumseh's future. The donor sincerely believes that good health is important to happiness, and that happiness is essential to progress. Therefore, through the contribution our benefactor, in an anonymous way, is saying 'good health and progress' to Tecumseh, and to the community."

Engineers and architects will begin immediately formulating plans for the expansion program. The gift of $250,000 will come to Tecumseh over a four to five year period, and, in all probability, the addition will be built in three sections, all of them completed by 1957.

"We have a wonderful hospital here now," Smith said, "but we realize that it is daily growing too small to meet the needs of the community. We have, since 1938, built two additions to the hospital, the last one opened less than a year ago. Already we have outgrown the latest addition.

"The hospital board has studied the situation locally, and it has been advised by some of the most competent hospital administrators in the country. We are told that an institution double the present size is not too large and, in all probability, even that will be too small in another 10 years.

"Today, folk think in terms of preventative medicine. We believe that illness should be recognized before it strikes down its victim. More and more people are providing themselves and their families with health insurance, and more and more people are taking advantage of the medical and hospital benefits afforded under such insurance. This idea is growing and the progressive community must prepare itself to serve the community in which it is located."

The long-range planning of the board would ultimately develop the hospital into a community medical center. It might be possible, at some future time, for doctors' and dentists' offices to be located there.

The immediate program of enlargement, Smith said, calls for the addition of maternity and surgical sections to the hospital. Present facilities in both divisions are too small. In all probability, a two or three story addition may be built, with the surgical section on the top floor.

Plans also are being considered for enlarging the nurses' and doctors' quarters, and for more spacious quarters for persons who find it necessary to be near at hand when relatives or friends are in the hospital.

The program also includes additions to the X-ray department, and an expanded laboratory. Per-

101 Votes Cast Here On Monday

PEOPLES PARTY CANDIDATES, UNOPPOSED, TO RETURN TO OFFICE ON APRIL 1

One hundred and one votes were cast in Tecumseh's village election on Monday and, as a result of a lack of contest, the Peoples Party candidates were returned to office by practically unanimous vote. Four scattered ballots were cast in the election.

J. Floyd Elliott, veteran member of the village council and half a dozen times president of the village, was returned to office. Others on the ticket were Robert Kroner, clerk, Myrna Tingley, treasurer, J. H. Rohweder, E. C. Heilman and Howard Truesdale, trustees, and T. J. Wagner, assessor. The trustees were named for two-year terms. All other offices were for terms of one year.

The council will meet this evening to canvass the vote and to declare the election. Officers named will officially take their jobs on April 1.

As a result of the election, there will be no change in Tecumseh's official family during the coming year. Members of the council whose terms did not expire with the election are Carl Fosbender, Charles Mensing and Archie Porter.

Tecumseh Polio Gifts Are Increased To $1,915

Mrs. George Quick announces that through an oversight the Tecumseh Child Study Club was not listed among the contributors to the polio fund. This organization gave $5.

More contributions have come in since Mrs. Quick made her report. Among these was an additional $3 from the Rotary and Exchange sponsored dance making its total $301, and $15 also was given by the American Legion Auxiliary increasing the total local contribution from Tecumseh to $1,915.

MYSTERY OF TELEVISION EXPLAINED BY TECHNICIAN

The mystery of television—what makes a picture and the sound—was explained to members of the Rotary Club, Tuesday evening, by Forest Abner of Tecumseh Electric Supply, and J. A. Dolis, one of his technicians. The program followed dinner at the Country Club.

With the aid of a television set and other technical equipment, Mr. Dolis traced the course of the electronic picture from the time that it hits the set's aerial until it is seen on the face of the screen. The talk was very intersting and very much enjoyed.

Find Human Bones Under Old Church

EXCAVATION PROJECT AT TIPTON REVEALS APPARENT SITE OF OLD CEMETERY

Bones from what are believed to have been four human bodies were unearthed last week by workmen excavating for a basement room under the Tipton Community church. The project is only partly completed and there is a possibility that still more bones may be discovered. They probably will be examined by scientists, perhaps from the University of Michigan, and then reburied.

The discovery was made when a heavy steam shovel scooped up a bucket of earth and bared the bones. Parts of four skulls were found, as well as leg, rib and jaw bones. Several pearly-white teeth still remained in their sockets but tumbled out at a slight jar. The size of the bones indicated that perhaps all were from the bodies of children.

The theory that the bones were from Indians is discounted, due to the age of the church. It was built, some say, 90 years ago. Others think 100 years ago. Persons close to the history of Tipton and Franklin township believe that the spot was perhaps a private burying ground for some early settlers.

Tipton traces its church history back to 1836, a year before Michigan was admitted to statehood. The site of the first log church was north of the present building on what some folk now term "Wall Street," and near Center or No. 1 school. A second church was built later, a frame structure, near the log edifice. The present church is located a few hundred feet north of the Tipton fourcorners, on the west side of the street.

Mrs. Hoyt Whelan, a student of Lenawee history and who has made a study of early Franklin township, discounts the theory that

HAYDEN FLOUR MILLS PLANS "OPEN HOUSE" PROGRAM ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON

It will be open house at the Hayden Flour Mills in Tecumseh Sunday afternoon, March 16, from 1 until 5 o'clock. Charles Figy, Michigan Director of Agriculture since 1943, will be the principal speaker at a dedication ceremony for new plant facilities at 2:30 p.m.

Charles Figy

The ceremony Sunday will be the eighth of its kind, covering additions to plant and equipment of the Tecumseh firm, since 1938. The service will be held to dedicate a series of large bulk storage bins, a new pneumatic system for unloading grain and cereal proteins in bulk, and an automatic packing and conveying system that will deliver to trucks or railway cars.

Perry Hayden, the firm's president, will preside at the dedication ceremony. The Rev. Show Is Staged At Percy Jones

PRODUCTS MINSTREL PRESENTED ALONG WITH $800 GIFT TO FURNISH LOUNGE

Tecumseh said, "Hello," to veterans at Percy Jones Hospital, Battle Creek, on Saturday when represenatives of the United Products Workers Union and the cast of the Products Players visited the hospital and, in the afternoon, staged a minstrel show for the entertainment of the GI's.

Best of all, however, was a gift of $800 which the local group presented to the hospital, the fund to be used to equip a lounge for the veterans' comfort. Of the total amount, $200 came from Tresco, $150 from Tecumseh Products Co., $150 from the Foreman's Club, $150 from Otttawa Machine Products, and $150 from the United Products Workers. Officials of the Union making the trip were Herbert Morden, president, Sam Shervino, vice-president, and Elmer Harper, secretary.

Twenty-six members of the Products Players, including a chorus of nine girls, made the trip on a chartered bus. The show, a repeat performance of the one staged at Union Hall here a few weeks ago, was presented at 2 p.m. After the entertainment the group visited at the hospital for a short time before returning home.

A few weeks ago, GI's at Percy Jones let it be known that televisions were badly needed at the hospital and it was the first intent of the Products "family" to present several sets to the veterans. However, in weeks past several sets have been given and the hospital advised that the furnishing of the lounge now was the number one need. The local group immediately approved the plan and, in addition, took the show to the hospital as an additional gift for the boys.

Junior Play Will Be Staged Here, April 3-4

"Footloose," a three-act comedy, will be presented by the Junior Class of Tecumseh high school, April 3 and 4, in the Central building auditorium at 8 o'clock.

The play is about an average American family. The fun begins when the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Early, played by Nancy Kinietz and Earnie Kohler, start on a world cruise and leave an older sister, Margaret Touborg, and the maid, Gretta Porter, in charge of two teen-age children, played by Diane Dillon and Jerry Barron.

The rest of the cast consists of Florine Schultz, Shirley VanHook, Tom Naser, Kay Morden, Bob Binns, Wayne Patton and Bill Beardsley.

Community Fund Board May Be Increased

The Tecumseh Community Fund board met Monday evening, March 10, in the offices of the United Savings Bank. Routine reports were read and accepted. Correspondence from the Salvation Army, Wolverine Council Boy Scouts, and the local unit of American Cancer Society were read and placed on file.

The board decided to hold its annual meeting, September 8. At that meeting the subject of changing the name of the organization and the posibility of increasing the number of board members from seven to nine or eleven will be discussed. The meeting place will be announced at a later date.

The board meeting will be Monday, May 12, at 8 o'clock at the United Savings Bank.

Outline C. of C. Program For '52

140 BUSINESS MEN AND WOMEN AT BANQUET-MEETING AT COUNTRY CLUB

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce has an active, busy program of events scheduled for the coming year—a program that will require the cooperation of the community, Robert H. Moore, president of the organization, told 140 business men and women at the March dinner-meeting of the Chamber, Thursday evening at the Country Club. It was by far the largest group assembly of the organization in more than two years.

"Your board of directors has spent many long hours, planning a program which he hopes meets with the approval of Tecumseh," Mr. Moore said in his opening remarks. "However, it cannot be accomplished without your cooperation. I am speaking not only of your financial support, but of moral support and the giving of your time and your abilities to help to carry out our plan during the year."

Earl L. Wickwire, a member of the board, outlined briefly the projects already on the schedule for the coming months. The first event, to be held in April, will be a Community Day, with business men from neighboring towns meeting with the business men of Tecumseh. Towns to be included are Clinton, Ridgeway, Macon, Britton, Holloway, Tipton and Onsted. A program will follow the dinner at the Country Club.

A bang-up Fourth of July program is in the making, with $1,200 worth of fireworks, a balloon ascension, carnival and other attractions. This even is expected to bring more than 10,000 people to Tecumseh.

The first fall event will be the annual Band Festival, to be held at Recreation Center. At least 10 bands will participate. In the past, the Band Festival has attracted thousands to Tecumseh, and this year's program is expected to be more attractive than ever.

Subsequent events include the annual Hallowe'en party for the children and a pre-Christmas party with Santa Claus and his reindeer.

Your Taxes Are Inflated, Too

Today, everybody, it seems, is talking about high prices and inflation. All of us, at the dinner table and in our living rooms, discuss how various articles have doubled or trebled in price over a period of years. But when it comes to inflation, one thing has all of the others backed off the board — and that thing is taxes.

According to U. S. News & World Report, the tax rate of the Federal Government alone in the next fiscal year will amount to $472 for every man, woman and child in the country. Many of us take that figure lightly, but let's analyze it at the local level. Tecumseh has approximately 5,000 population. Using the $472 figure as a base, Tecumseh, in the coming year, will pay $2,360,000 in FEDERAL TAXES ALONE, to say nothing about hidden state taxes and additional local taxes.

The $472 figure is 120 times as much as was the tax take in 1900. The $472 figure represents about the size of the average per capita income in 1931. In spite of this incredible burden of taxation, the government, according to official estimates, will still be more than $14,000,000,000 short of meeting its costs, and that money must be borrowed.

To quote the U. S. News directly, "Altogether, the people are expected to provide $76,000,000,000 for the government in the year beginning next July 1. That is half again as much money as the people were asked to contribute to government at the peak of World War II. It is eight times as much as the government spent in the most lavish years of the New Deal and more than 13 times as much as the government collected in those years."

Just read those figures and facts over again and let them sink into your mind. Just remember that we, who live in Tecumseh, must send to the federal treasury in the 12 months beginning on July 1, nearly $2,500,000. That amount, roughly, is nearly one-half the assessed valuation of the Village of Tecumseh. And remember this, too! That figure does not include the money you pay out in Michigan State Sales Tax, the amount you pay in local property taxes, or the amount you pay in school taxes.

Remember, too, that the Administration — Mr. Truman's administration — is not satisfied with the present intolerable situation, and wants still another tax increase.

Finally, answer a simple question: "How long can this nation remain strong and progressive when the government takes, spends and wastes more and more of the wealth, resources and labor of the people?"

Obviously, it is time to curb government spending with drastic economies if we are to save our nation from bankruptcy. And in our opinion, there is more to it than that. Russia, to be sure, would be only too happy to see us go broke. And once our economy is gone, Communism would move in and take over. Perhaps Moscow would welcome such a move but we, in America, know that Communism means the loss of democracy and freedom — the end of constitutional government.

We will have an opportunity in November to make a choice. We pray that it will be a wise one, and that we will have not acted too late.

Farmers Oppose Compulsory Medicine

The American farmer has been a potent factor in preventing the blight of compulsory government health insurance from covering this country. That is the substance of a recent Christian Science Monitor editorial.

"Opposition to the introduction of government health insurance in the United States is intensifying in agriculture," the Monitor said. "The biggest of the farm organizations, the Amercan Farm Bureau, with a membership of 1,452,000 families, recently reiterated its hostility. The Farm Bureau's annual convention adopted a resolution declaring: 'We oppose any form of compulsory health insurance.'

"Similarly, the National Grange, oldest and second largest of the farm bodies, at its convention a short time previously, voiced again its stand against any plan to national compulsory health insurance or socialized medicine.

"Rural rejection of government health insurance has been little recognized in larger cities, which usually hear much more of labor's viewpoint. But though labor's call for compulsory health insurance has been better publicized, it remains the demand of a minority . . . Meantime agriculture provides a balance against labor on this issue and a formidable safeguard."

In agriculture, which deals daily with such eternal matters as soil and weather, the old virtues of independence and self-reliance are still in vogue. That is one of the finest protections we have against unlimited growth of the welfare state — which is a pleasant synonym for socialism. Agriculture's stand on compulsory health insurance is perfectly in accord with American tradition.

You're off in a Swirl of Power!

WE'RE willing to wager that not one person in a hundred knows what really goes on inside an automobile engine—so let's take this by easy stages.

The instant you nudge Buick's Fireball 8 Engine into action—a whole string of things starts to happen.

Eight sparks begin to crackle in well-timed sequence. Eight pistons start gliding up and down with rhythmic precision. Eight pairs of valves dance open and closed—to let fuel charges in, exhaust gases out of cylinder after cylinder.

All right, you say, what's so complex about that? Can't anyone build an engine that does this to perfection?

Well, we'd better add, these things happen at the rate of more than 10,000 times per mile—and that's 100 times per second at 35 miles an hour!

So—it's important to know that Buick uses a deep-breathing valve-in-head design that shoots a fuel charge in—cleans exhaust gases out—in a hurry.

It's important to know that all the power released by the fuel concentrates its driving force right on the head of each Buick piston. (Everyone who has recently built "new" high-compression engines copied this "Buick first.")

But most important of all—Buick adds one more twist which others still haven't copied.

Every charge of fuel rushing into a Buick engine becomes a twisting, swirling, high-compressed ball that flashes with sudden, consuming completeness the instant the spark sets it afire.

And to add this all up: clean, complete combustion—10,000 times per mile—is the secret of getting more power—more miles—from each gallon of gasoline.

So we're not simply using picture words when we tell you that Buick—and only Buick—has a FIREBALL ENGINE—or that you're off in a swirl of power with one of these high-powered performers under the hood.

1952 has brought a lot of sparkling new improvements which you'll want to see and admire when you come to our showrooms.

But the thrill of thrills is still what you and a Buick—and a Fireball 8 Engine—can do out on the road. When do you want to try a sample?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Sure is true for '52

When better automobiles are built BUICK will build them

Glenn Kohler, chairman of the retail merchants' committee, spoke, telling of some of the plans he considered essential to better business in Tecumseh. Mr. Kohler urged more promotion work to stimulate sales.

Charles O. Butler, vice-president of the club, urged cooperation of the membership in a brief talk. Mr. Butler pointed out that the success of a community depends upon the attitude of its residents—particularly its business and professional folk.

"The board is working hard to furnish the kind of program it believes Tecumseh wants," Mr. Butler said, "but we welcome suggestions and constructive criticism."

James McDowell, superintendent of schools, briefly reviewed Tecumseh's school situation, telling of the crowded conditions of existing buildings and the need for expansion.

"We know, when school reopens next September, that we will be forced to use the public library for some classes, and we also know that a church or some other building must be used to house still other students. This condition will continue to grow more acute until such time as we provide more school rooms for our children — even though not another child is added to our present population."

Fourteen more elementary classrooms will be needed here, McDowell said, within the next seven years, to say nothing about the enlargement of the high school. Such a project is now on the board of education's drafting board and will be submitted to voters within a few weeks.

Mr. Wickwire also spoke briefly on the Chamber's proposal to effect a change in Tecumseh's form of government from a village to a city. He told what steps must be taken to effect the change, and how the legal mechanics of the program operate. Expanding the boundaries of the Village also is being considered at the time of the change in government, and procedure also was outlined.

In all probability the board will check its plans on this program within the month, and will then submit it to the people for consideration. Neighborhood meetings, to acquaint residents with facts concerning such a change, probably will be held.

Ralph Comfort, treasurer of the Chamber, gave a financial report showing that the organization now has in excess of $2,000 in its treasury. William Wright, chairman of the membership campaign, reported more than 60 paid-up memberships at this time. He said that the Chamber is anticipating a membership of 125.

Find Human Bones

the bones were from the bodies of Indians. Rather, Mrs. Whelan is of the opinion that the church, built either in 1852 or '62, was constructed on the site of a private burying ground of some early settlers.

The bones were in a shallow grave, scarcely three feet under the ground. There was no evidence of caskets having been buried there, or of metallic items, such as buttons, buckles, etc.

The bones were carefully collected and taken in a box to the garage-workshop of the Rev. A. F. Jervis, pastor of the church, next door. They will be reburied at a later time.

The Community church's expansion program calls for an overall expenditure of about $16,000 to permit the building of a Sunday School and meeting room under the church, and a one-story extension at the rear of the church, to be used as a utility room. The auditorium of the church also is to be remodeled and redecorated, and a new Hammond organ installed.

Dr. Jervis said today that all of the funds to complete the project had been subscribed and the work would proceed as rapidly as possible with the hope of dedicating the enlarged edifice in about five months.

The Tipton church is one of the oldest in Lenawee county, the society having been organized about 1836, three years after the location of Franklin township. Early history says that the area was abundant with wild game, including deer, wolf, turkey and bear. Early worshippers were in constant fear of their lives,, according to diary accounts, as they made their way to and from Sunday worship.

Taste The Difference !

Have you ever eaten one of our delicious cakes? Ever tasted the difference?

If your answer to these questions is no, then you're in for a surprise because our cakes do not taste like "bakery cakes," — they're different.

What makes them different? We use old-fashioned receipes, the kind Mother used. They call for plenty of eggs, milk, sugar and shortening.

Herrick Hospital

haps a full-time, resident pathologist will be necessary.

"We don't know, as yet, just what our final plans will call for. We will consult with the architects, who will be specialists in the field, and with local doctors and nurses regarding how we should build and what we should include in the program. We want the new hospital to be completely functional, and we want to build it in such a manner that further additions may be added without destroying its appearance or use. In other words, we want to satisfy, insofar as we can, the patients, the doctors and the nurses, and give them what they believe a hospital should have if it is to serve completely," the speaker said.

Present plans call for construction work on the first addition to begin in August. The program will probably continue without much interruption for the next four years. It will in no way hamper the normal operations of the present hospital, it was said.

"We are very happy to be able to announce a $250,000 addition to Herrick hospital, and we are indeed grateful, as a board of trustees and as a community, to our benefactor," Smith said. "All too often, communities resognize the need for hospital expansion, but tax problems make growth impossible. The gift of a quarter of a million dollars takes the burden off the taxpayers, and will, when the hospital is finished, give Tecumseh and surrounding area one of the finest institutions of its kind in Southern Michigan."

Herrick Memorial Hospital is the brain child of Ray W. Herrick, president of Tecumseh Products Co. About 14 years ago, Mr. Herrick called together a group of Tecumseh business and professional men and told them of his plans to build such an institution. A drive for funds was immediately launched, Mr. Herrick contributed a large initial sum, and, in less than two years, Tecumseh hospital was built and equipped and turned over to the village free of debt.

The hospital continued operation for a few years and it was found to be too small to serve the community. A bond issue of $25,000 was voted by the residents and an addition was built. A year and a half ago, the hospital had again outgrown its quarters and Mr. and Mrs. Herrick and the Herrick Foundation announced a gift of more than $80,000 for the second addition. This was completed last year and occupied during the late winter. In recognition of the gift, the Village Council changed the name of the hospital to Herrick Memorial Hospital, honoring the memory of Mr. Herrick's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Herrick in Holland.

And even with the second addition in use, the board of trustees now has found that the hospital again is too small, and that it must be enlarged if it is to keep pace with the ever-increasing demand for service.

The hospital today has a net value of $163,139.47. In the 13½ years that it has been in operation it has cost the taxpayers $31,500. Of that amount, $25,000 was for the construction of the first addition and $6,500 a "nest egg," for operating expenses when the project was launched.

During its life it has served 34,042 patients for a total of 145,600 patient days of care, and 3,790 babies have been born there.

It is one of the few hospitals in the nation that are self-supporting, records showing that during the 13½ years it has cost residents of the village an average of 12½ cents a year per capita, to keep the hospital operating.

During its life, the hospital has received many donations, principally from Mr. Herrick. Records show that total contributions to the institution, prior to the $250,000 announced today, amounted to more than $138,000. The second largest contributor was the Woman's Auxiliary of the hospital.

Records show that the hospital has done $1,016,052.21 in business, with a total expense of $1,021,279.45. This includes an operating loss of $5,227.24 and a charge off for depreciation of $32,926.46. Bad debts amounted to only $8,000 and salaries and wages to $524,746.16.

Announcement of the anonymous gift was made at a dinner meeting at the Tecumseh Country Club, last week. Mr. Smith presided at the meeting which was attended by members of the hospital board, the Village Council, local doctors and dentists, Mr. Herrick and a few other citizens.

"As I see our acceptance of this gift," Smith told the group, "we, as a community, are accepting a challenge. As hospitals grow, services grow and the scope of service expands. We may, at some future time, find it necessary as a community, to share in the operation of our hospital, through a tax program. However, when we recognize the value of such an institution to our community, we should be only too happy to share."

Smith pointed out that as the hospital grows so will the number of doctors, dentists and other professional men in the community. He said he felt that at the present time, there are too few doctors to serve the area.

J. Floyd Elliott, president of the Council, spoke briefly in appreciation for the gift. Doctors, members of the Hospital Auxiliary, and Robert H. Moore, president of the Chamber of Commerce, also spoke briefly.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB

The Friendship Club of the Grace Lutheran church held its March meeting recently at the home of Mrs. Paul Maves. Fifteen members and guests attended the demonstration and meeting. Mrs. Rhae Henkel presided at the business meeting. Reports were given on the recent bake sale. For the April meeting members are requested to bring their favorite receipe. Mrs. Bert Filter and Mrs. Oscar Bryan were in charge of refreshments.

Over $222,000,000 paid out in 13 years for the benefit of Michigan people by Blue Cross - Blue Shield

The record of growth of Blue Cross - Blue Shield is an amazing one. Every year since these Plans were started has seen substantial increases both in membership and in dollar value of benefits paid. In thirteen years, for example, $222,067,156 has been paid out by the Plans in health-care benefits.

The Michigan Blue Cross Plan was started by a group of hospital officials, doctors and businessmen in 1939. Realizing the need for a prepayment health-care plan in this state, they obtained the adoption of special legislation so that Blue Cross (Michigan Hospital Service) could function as a non-profit corporation.

The Michigan Blue Shield Plan (Michigan Medical Service) was organized in 1939 by the Michigan State Medical Society as a non-profit plan designed to offer protection to the people of Michigan against the cost of surgical and medical bills. This plan was a pioneer in its field, and is credited with laying the foundation for most of the Blue Shield Plans now operating throughout the rest of the United States.

"Blue Cross has been wonderful. It was a great relief to know I was receiving the care needed to get well without worrying about the cost. When I saw the bill for $2,400 which Blue Cross paid, I realized just how fine Blue Cross service 'benefits' really are. Without Blue Cross, we would have had to sell our home to pay that kind of a bill!"—Mrs. Irene Matousek

"A fellow's unwise if he doesn't have Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection for the whole family. We're both young and getting started buying a home. When my wife went to the hospital recently, she got all the care needed and Blue Cross paid the bill without any red tape. It's protection every family should have!"—Mr. H. O. Newberry

HOW TO GET BLUE CROSS-BLUE SHIELD PROTECTION

1. Ask your employer. Firms employing 5 or more may be eligible.
2. Check your Farm Bureau or Grange . . . many groups are eligible.
3. Write or call your nearest Blue Cross office (see phone book) . . . or the home office shown at the right.

CENTERPOISE POWER
Vibration and power impulses are "screened out" as engine is centered and rubber-cushioned between new high-side mountings.

LARGEST BRAKES
Big 11-inch brake drums apply more leverage for more stopping power. Stops are smoother, safer, with less effort.

WIDEST COLOR CHOICE

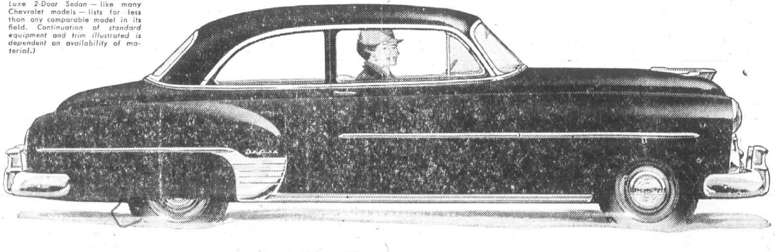
BODY BY FISHER
Fisher Body sets the standard—for styling, for craftsmanship, for comfort! Fisher Unisteel construction is extra strong.

UNITIZED KNEE-ACTION RIDE
Chevrolet's famous Knee-Action ride is now even softer, smoother. New shock absorbers give even finer ride control.

WIDEST TREAD
Chevrolet measures 58¾ inches between centers of rear wheels—a broader base to give you more stability, less sway!

Only the New Chevrolet brings these fine features to the low-price field!

Lowest priced in its field!
This beautiful new Styleline De Luxe 2-Door Sedan—like many Chevrolet models—lists for less than any comparable model in its field. Continuation of standard equipment and trim illustrated is dependent on availability of material.)



4-WAY ENGINE LUBRICATION
Chevrolet's exclusive engine lubricating system supplies exactly the right kind and amount of lubrication to each moving part.

CAST IRON ALLOY PISTONS
The same material as the cylinder block, pistons expand and contract at same rate. This reduces wear, lowers oil consumption.

SAFETY PLATE GLASS ALL AROUND
Chevrolet alone in its field gives you safety plate glass in windshield and all windows, for a clearer, truer all-round view.

POWERGLIDE AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSION
Simpler with fewer parts to wear. Smoother—no complicated intermediate gears. Optional, on De Luxe models at extra cost.

MOST POWERFUL VALVE-IN-HEAD ENGINE
Teamed with Powerglide is the most powerful valve-in-head engine in its field and an outstanding performer in any field!

No other car in Chevrolet's field offers you a single one of these features. Yet you'll find many of them in America's most costly cars. Here's proof that you're value ahead with Chevrolet . . . again in 1952 the lowest-priced line in its field! Come in and look it over.

Township To Use Voting Machines

SIX AUTOMATIC UNITS ARRIVE; WILL BE INTRODUCED AT SEPTEMBER PRIMARY

Voters in Tecumseh and Tecumseh township will cast their ballots in the September primary election on voting machines.

Announcement that the township is considering the purchase of voting machines was made today by LeRoy Titley, supervisor, when he let it be known that six of the units had arrived here, and would be used for the first time in the fall election.

"Tecumseh township has grown so rapidly in the past few years that it would be necessary for us to set up a third precinct next fall to speed up the voting. Additional precincts cost the taxpayers money, and the board was of the opinion that the machines would not only speed up the voting but, in the long run, would pay for themselves in reduced election overhead."

Mr. Titley estimated that the machines would save about $300 or more on the average election, plus additional savings in printing costs. When the election is over, the vote can be counted in a matter of minutes. In state and national elections, counting boards sometimes work throughout the night counting the ballots.

The use of voting machines is becoming more and more general throughout the state and the nation. The City of Adrian recently installed machines.

The machines cost about $1,200 each, and Tecumseh is considering the purchase of six of them. They will be rented at first at a cost of $150 a machine but, should the township decide, by December 15, to purchase them, the rental fee will be applied against the purchase price. A time payment program also is available to the township.

The machines arrived here this week and within a few days an instructor from the company will come to Tecumseh to instruct officials in their operation.

The machines operate very simply, and they should not confuse any voter. Of course, prior to the election, a machine will be on display so that electors may familiarize themselves with their operation," the supervisor said.

Ms. Harris presided at the meeting and introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Helen M. Tewes from the University of Michigan Extension Department, who spoke on "Rebuilding the American Home and Family Life." After the talk many questions were answered.

The question of organizing separate P.T.A.'s for the various schools in the village was discussed and it was decided to continue under one association but to arrange programs of particular interest to certain age groups and to hold other general meetings. After the program and meeting refreshments were served by the fifth and sixth grade room mothers with Mrs. Ralph Helzerman and Mrs. George Elliott as co-chairmen. They were assisted by Mrs. Earl Roe, Mrs. James Rice, Mrs. Lawrence Packard, Mrs. Claire Rozelle, Mrs. Don Parrett, Mrs. Carlyle Mason, Mrs. James Perrin and Mrs. Warren Beck.

Figy Speaks At Dedication

CEREMONY AT HAYDEN MILLS, SUNDAY AFTERNOON, IS LARGELY ATTENDED

"The United States is lagging in its overall food production program," Charles Figy, director of Michigan's Agriculture Commission, declared at the eighth dedication ceremony held at the Hayden Flour Mills in Tecumseh, Sunday afternoon. "Naturally, I am happy to see such progress as you are making here at this century old Tecumseh mill, — and especially because Tecumseh is located in Lenawee, my home county," the speaker said.

Mr. Figy also praised the management of the Tecumseh mill for "sticking by the guns" over such a long period when there would have been so many opportunities to "throw up the sponge." The original Hayden Mill, known as the Globe Mills, was founded by Stillman Blanchard in 1835, two years before Michigan became a state After changing hands four times it was purchased by William Hayden at sheriff's sale in 1858, and has remained in the control of the Hayden family since that date. The original mill burned to the ground in March 1898 and was rebuilt the same year. It was vacated in 192[illegible] when the mill machinery was moved to its present location in the village proper—along railway siding. Henry Ford acquired the vacated plant n 1933, tore it down and rebuilt a replica of the original mill. This is now owned by the Universal Button Corporation, on East Chicago Boulevard. Many will recall the centennial of the mill in 1935, in which Chief Kiutus Tecumseh, great, great grandson of the famous Shawnee Indian chief, and the late Henry Ford, participated. Others will recall the first dedication program in 1938 when R. G. LeTourneau, well known Christian industrialist, spoke.

IF THE WEATHER IS BAD, YOU CAN ALWAYS BLAME LEAP YEAR

Today's First Day of Spring-Come Rain, Snow, Sleet

Regardless of what the weatherman may dish up in the way of sunshine, rain, sleet or snow, Spring is only a few hours away.

It is due to arrive at 11:14 this morning.

This is nearly three-fourths of a day earlier than in 1951 when Spring arrived at 5:26 a.m. on March 21. The earlier date is due to the insertion of the extra leap year day in February, explains Hazel M. Losh, assistant professor of astronomy at the University of Michigan.

"Days and nights will be equal on March 20 since the sun crosses the equator on that date and will rise and set at the exact east and west points," she declares. "After March 20, the sun will be moving north on the horizon and our days of daylight will increase until late in June."

The effect of more daylight will be more noticeable in the evening rather than in the early morning This is because our clocks are on Eastern Standard Time and are actually ahead of the daily motion of the sun across the sky. At twelve noon on our clocks, the sun hasn't actually reached the meridian. This gives us longer afternoons than would be true if our clocks were more in tune with the sun, Professor Losh says.

Along with Spring, March will feature three bright planets, as well as an early evening opportunity to check up on two stars, Arcturus and Spica.

Mercury will be in its most favorable position for observation by the middle of the month, she reports, but will still remain quite low in the western sky. It will reach its highest point on the evening of March 18, just after sunset, when it should be visible about 16 degrees above the true west point.

Almost directly opposite in the eastern sky, Saturn will be rising after sunset and will remain visible all night. A little to the north and left of Saturn, but rising almost at the same hour, is the bright orange star, Arcturus. Rising a little later than Saturn, but directly below it, will be the bright white star, Spica. Midnight will bring with it the planet Mars, red in color, and brighter than any of the other objects in the March skies. Mars will rise a bit south of the east point.

Mrs. Frances Edwards Dies After Long Illness

Mrs. Frances Edwards, age 60 years, wife of Harry W. Edwards of southeast of Tecumseh on the Pocklington Road, died at Herrick Memorial Hospital, Friday evening at 7 o'clock, where she had been a patient for six months. Mrs. Edwards was born September 2, 1891, in Helena, Ohio, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis and Mary Maurer Ake. She was a member of the Trinity Methodist church in Columbia City, Ind. The Edwards lived in Toledo for 27 yeas before moving to Columbia, from which town they moved to their farm four miles southeast of Tecumseh in 1946.

Survivors besides her husband, Harry, are one son, Wilson E. of Toledo; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Kopka of Holloway, and Mrs. Alvena McElhiney of Tipton; six grandsons and one granddaughter; one brother, Alton Ake of Toledo, and one sister, Mrs. Vivian Houston of Coldwater. Several nieces, nephews and cousins also survive.

The bearers were Kenneth Kopke, Walter German, Ned Lanning, Harvey Lewis, Roy Cadmus and Gene Kossey. Burial was in Holloway cemetery. Friends and relatives attended from Cleveland and Rising Sun, Ohio, Columbia City, Ind., Pontiac, Gibsonburg and Toledo, Ohio, Detroit, Adrian, Holloway, Coldwater, Monroe, Tecumseh and Tipton.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the Collins Funeral Home with Dr. Thomas Rogers of Adrian, officiating.

Garbage Pickup Rate Increased

VILLAGE TURNS BUSINESS OVER TO PRIVATE OPERATOR, EFFECTIVE APRIL 1

Effective April 1, the Village of Tecumseh will go out of the garbage collection business and the job of collecting and disposing of garbage and refuse, formerly accomplished by local government will be turned over to a private individual.

This was decided when the Council met in regular session, Monday evening. Friday evening of this week, Council expects to sign a contract with L. R. Maynard, 408 E. Kilbuck street, to do the work, and a franchise permitting him to function will be issued. In return, Mr. Maynard will furnish the Village with a $5,000 surety bond, guaranteeing performance of contract.

The actual signing of the contract was postponed until Friday to permit the Village to complete an ordinance under which the new collection contractor will function. This will stipulate his duties, regulate price and specify what will and will not be collected under the terms of the contract.

Briefy, here is what is expected to be included in the contract:

The new operator will collect garbage and refuse only from houses and stores and other places of business where his services are requested.

The charge for the collection from residences will be increased from $1 a month to $1.25 a month.

The charge for the collection from stores and other places in the commercial district must be agreed upon by the collector and his customer.

One collection of garbage and refuse will be made weekly in the residential district until May 1. After that date, two collections will be made weekly throughout the summer months.

Tecumseh Is A Fortunate Community

Residents of Tecumseh—in fact residents of all of Lenawee county—should be thrilled and grateful as a result of the anonymous gift, announced last week, making possible the enlargement of Herrick Memorial Hospital. In a few short months, construction work on the new addition will be started and, over a five-year period, continue almost uninterrupted until, by 1957, it will be the largest institution of its kind in Lenawee.

The anonymous gift of $250,000 was made known a week ago by Frank K. Smith, vice-president of the Hospital Board. In making the announcement, Mr. Smith said that it was impossible for him to divulge the name of Tecumseh's benefactor, but, he declared, the donor is vitally interested in Tecumseh and in its future, and the gift is the benefactor's way of saying, "good health and progress" to the entire community.

A quarter of a million dollars is a lot of money. It will enable the Board of Trustees of the hospital to more than double the bed-space of the present institution and, in addition, provide better surgical, X-ray and laboratory facilities for both in and out patients. In the 13½ years that the hospital has been in existance, nearly 4,000 babies have been born there. The maternity section of the hospital is and has been for some time, much too small. In the expansion program, the Board plans to double the size of the maternity section, and equip it with ultra-modern facilities.

The Board has been studying the possibility of an expansion program at the hospital for some time. Two additions have been built at the hospital since it was initially opened in 1938. The latest addition, opened less than a year ago, already has been outgrown. During the hospital's life, more than 34,000 patients have been cared for, and, as the institution's popularity for service and facilities continues to grow, so does the number of persons who daily are knocking at its doors for services. The Board has been advised that within 10 years, a hospital in Tecumseh of 150-bed capacity would not be too large.

The Board also is visualizing in the future, a complete medical center at Herrick Memorial. Doctors' and dentists' offices might be located there, and complete in and out patient service could become available at the institution. That is the thinking of qualified hospital administrators of national reputation. It is the pattern that is followed in many communities at the present time.

As we see it, Tecumseh is indeed a fortunate community in having a benefactor as generous and as thoughtful as "Anonymous." Few towns and cities, large and small, are lucky enough to have within their borders men and women who are sufficiently civic minded to give outright, with no strings attached, $250,000 in cold cash. Every up and coming community dreams of a modern hospital and a few of them realize their dreams but, as a general thing, the cost of such an institution is paid for through taxation. In Tecumseh's instance, however, the taxpayers are not asked to contribute a single dime.

We can think of no better place for a quarter of a million dollar gift than in a hospital. Such a gift serves everybody—and it serves them alike. Herrick Memorial Hospital is open to the public, not only to residents of Tecumseh but to those from the area miles around. The fact that it has operated successfully for 13½ years, and that it is one of the very, very few hospitals in the United States that is self-supporting, speaks well for its management and service.

Originally, the hospital was built by public subscription and turned over to the Village of Tecumseh free of debt. In its lifetime, residents here have contributed, through taxation, $31,500 to the hospital. Of this amount, $25,000 was for the building of the first addition and $6,500 was for the initial cash with which to operate.

Credit for the building of the hospital must be given to Ray W. Herrick, president of Tecumseh Products Co. It was Mr. Herrick who organized the drive to raise funds to build the first hospital, and he gave generously at that time. Since then the hospital has received gifts totaling more than $138,000, coming principally from Mr. Herrick and the Hospital Auxiliary. Herrick Memorial Hospital today has a book value of more than $160,000, it has done more than $1,000,000 worth of business, and its payroll has amounted to more than $500,000.

And so, from a small beginning back in 1938, when many local residents were dubious about the institution's success, has grown an enterprise of mercy that has served a patient roster numbering more than half the population of the entire county. And this fine record, it seems, is only the beginning. What the future holds, what the next 13½ years hold, may be still more amazing. Prior to 1938 Tecumseh "got along" without a hospital. Today, Tecumseh agrees that it could not "get along" without a hospital. And as Tecumseh continues to grow, so will Herrick Memorial Hospital.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Smith could not divulge the name of Tecumseh's benefactor. He should be thanked by name, and personally. However, since this cannot be done, we join with the 5,000 other residents of the Village in saying thank you to "Anonymous."

We are proud and happy to have in our community folk who are kind and generous and thoughtful of others. If more communities had more of these folk there would be less strife, less struggle and less greed in the nation and in the world.

It Makes Your Dollars Feel Important too

THE Buick pictured here can match price tags with a lot of cars smaller in size and horsepower and win.

But that only gives you a hint as to what a whale of a buy it is.

Like costlier Buicks, it has the wide-open view of a one-piece windshield.

Like costlier Buicks, it has the gleaming distinction of sweepspear styling.

Like costlier Buicks, it has smart new fabrics and door trim.

Like all other Buicks, it has the extra safety of new, long-lasting Wide-Band brakes.

Like all other Buicks, it has the sure-footed, road-hugging, even-keeled steadiness of the Million Dollar Ride—a combination of 15 engineering features including a husky X-braced frame, end-sway and side-roll stabilizers, Hi-Poised engine mountings, Permi-Firm steering and soft coil springs for every wheel.

And like all other Buicks, it has a power-packed Fireball 8 Engine—a high-compression valve-in-head that gets extra wallop, extra mileage from every gallon of gasoline.

So we think that you'll feel mighty important bossing around this smart-stepping smoothie.

And when you check the price we're asking against the field — we think your dollars are going to feel mighty important in buying power too.

GIVE YOUR CHICKS A CHANCE TO PRODUCE .

That first twelve weeks is the most important time of a chick's life. Hundreds who have fed Hayden's Starter & Grower Krumbles during this period verify that these chickens keep right on producing long after others have failed.

Start day old chicks on Hayden's Starter & Grower Krumbles — feed it until birds are 10 to 12 weeks old. Continuous high production in the year that follows has been the reward of hundreds using this plan.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

It Isn't the Heat— It's the Hide!

Big discussion after the Grange meeting Friday night. Tik Anderson was arguing that hogs were lots more affected by the hot weather than cattle. Skeeter Morgan declared that it wasn't so—that he never saw any hogs bothered by the hot sun like his cows were.

I was glad when Rusty Robinson stepped in.

"Boys," he says, "don't get so riled up. It all depends on what color the livestock are. Hogs or cattle, the ones with light-colored coats absorb less heat from the sun's rays than animals with dark coats. So you're both right!"

From where I sit, so many useless arguments could be avoided if a person would remember he doesn't have all the right on his side. Reminds me of folks who insist that coffee, for instance, is the only drink, forgetting that other people have a right to a glass of beer now and then. If we wouldn't get so "het up" about our prejudices—we'd all be better off!

Collection frequency in the commercial area must be agreed upon.

In the residential area, garbage and ashes and other refuse will be disposed of, but everything must be in suitable containers.

The Village will turn its present list of customers over to the new operator and he will carry on and service will not be interrupted. He will bill his customers and make his own collections. The village will have nothing to do with the operation of the service, and will be in no way involved in financing it. Likewise, all complaints regarding service must be made directly to the operator.

The Village decided to go out of the garbage collection business several weeks ago when a survey of its books showed that the service was being operated at a loss. The Village has been charging residential customers $1 monthly for the service, and for commercial area collections rates recently hiked sharply. It was the complaints from merchants and others in the business district, to the affect that the new rates were too high, that brought the Village's decision to quit. Also involved was the fact that private collectors were cutting into the Village business, and that about 200 customers had been dropped from the village list.

Council is granting the franchise to the new operator for six months. In that time it is believed that the Village will have an opportunity to determine whether or not such a service may be operated successfully by a private contractor.

The Council also decided to ask the Michigan Stream Control Commission for an extension until December 31 for the completion of a new $285,000 sewage disposal system here. The building of the plant is now under way, but the state order calls for its completion by June 1.

Residents of North Union street petitioned for curb and gutter and the resurfacing of the street, and the petition was referred to the engineering department. Residents of East Pottawatamie street objected to the installation of curb and gutter on that street.

Council decided to close the Sheridan Fund, which contained $68, and the amount was placed in the general fund. The Sheridan Fund originally was set up for the operation of a rest room in the council building. The room has been closed for several years.

Unpaid water bills, curb and gutter assessments and sidewalk assessments were ordered spread on general tax rolls. Current bills were audited and ordered paid and reports of department and committee heads were read and placed on file.

Do You Know Why It Is Leap Year?

THERE'S A VERY GOOD REASON WHY FEBRUARY HAD ONLY 29 DAYS

This is the year our calendar gets adjusted to fit the time required for the earth to revolve around the sun.

This is Leap Year and February had 29 days. Why all this is necessary is explained by Hazel M Losh, assistant professor of astronomy at the University of Michigan.

"Making up a calendar is difficult because the natural divisions of time refuse to come out evenly," she points out. "The earth does not revolve around the sun in an even number of days and the moon's revolutions around the earth also come out unevenly."

Actually it takes 365.24219 days for the earth to make its revolution around the sun, Professor Losh says. Because the sun refused to go around in exactly 365.25 days, a calendar devised by Julius Caesar back in Roman days went wrong.

Caesar's calendar provided for a year of 365 days for three years and then one of 366 during the fourth year. Since he had overlooked the tiny fraction's difference between his calendar and the true length of a year, the Julius Caesar version of the calendar was off about eight-thousandths of a day per year—an error that accumulated to about three days every four hundred years.

So when Pope Gregory XIII brought about calendar reform in 1582, the difference between the sun's position and the calendar amounted to several days, so many, in fact, that the day following Oct. 4, 1582 became the 15th of that month in order to correct the accumulated difference.

"The Gregorian calendar continued the habit of inserting an extra day every four years but had a very important modification — the first year in each new century is not a leap year unless it is divisible exactly by 400," Professor Losh reports. "Thus the year 2000 will be a Leap Year but 1700, 1800 and 1900 were not. In that way three days are saved every four hundred years and the error of Caesar's calendar is practically wiped out."

The average error now amounts to only twenty-six seconds per year and it will be 4600 before this error will have amounted to a full day, she says. Present talk of calendar reform is not concerned with the length of the year but with readjusting the lengths of the various months.

Along with Leap Year, February brings a partial eclipse of the moon, Professor Losh says. On Sunday evening, Feb. 10, the extreme southwest corner of the moon was darkened starting at 7:03 P.M., E.S.T., and lasting until 7:39 P.M.

RECEIVES FATHER'S MEDAL . . . Held by his mother, Elizabeth, Flip Sebille, 17-months, accepts father's medal of honor from General Hoyt Vandenberg, air force chief of staff, at March Field, Calif. Major Sebille aimed his disabled Mustang into a group of enemy armored vehicles in Korea. Flip is too young to realize his loss or the importance of the ceremony as some 4,000 airmen paraded in his father's honor. It was the air force's first medal of honor in the Korean war.

Washington's Teeth Upset British Army

George Washington's famous false teeth caused the British Army great concern at a time during the American Revolution when the General was preparing his sharpest military bite.

The letter which caused a stir throughout the Red Coat's general staff is now in the Clements Library at the University of Michigan. It was written at New Windsor, Conn., on May 29, 1781, and is addressed to Dr. Baker in Philadelphia.

"Sir,

A day or two ago I requested Col. Harrison to apply to you for a pair of Pincers to fasten the wire of my teeth. I hope you furnished him with them. I now wish you would send me one of your scrapers, as my teeth stand in need of cleaning, and I have little prospect of being in Philadelphia soon. It will come very safe by the Post & in return the money shall be sent so soon as I know the cost of it.

I am Sir
y r Very hble Servt.
G. Washington."

The General was mistaken about its coming "very safe by the Post" for this letter was captured by the British before it got to Dr. Baker. Puzzled by a Commander in Chief who would be having trouble with his false teeth and take the time to write his dentist, the English were suspicious.

Copies of the letter were sent to London and to other British army units in America, apparently in an effort to break this new secret code of the Colonists. Some of these letters are also in the Clements Library collections.

Of course there was no code, and there is no indication whether or not General Washington received the scrapper for his teeth. But history does show that at the conference which Washington had just attended at Wethersfield, Connecticut, before writing the letter to Dr. Baker, the final phases of the American Revolution were planned. These resulted in the Battle of Yorktown in the fall of 1781 and the British surrender by Lord Cornwallis.

It has been the policy of the firm to hold public ceremonies and dedicate major additions to plant and equipment. The first addition was dedicated in 1938, followed by three grain tanks, in 1943, 1944, and 1945. In 1947 a feed warehouse was dedicated, followed by pelleting equipment, a molasses outfit and bulk handling process in 1949 and in 1951. The latest addition to mill equipment has been part of the firm's plans for years. It consists of a series of steel storage bins for storing feed in bulk, and automatic packaging and conveying equipment.

William Beardsley, company vice president and manager, stated at the ceremonies Sunday that to his knowledge it was the only bulk feed storage plant in Michigan, and that in his opinion it was the most efficient feed manufacturing plant he had seen.

The Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the Tecumseh Friends church gave the dedicatory prayer, following an injunction to "put more Christianity into business and more business into Christianity."

Miss Martha Hayden and Frederick Dickinson sang a duet, "The Lord My Pasture Shall Prepare," accompanied by Mrs. Dickinson.

Russell McAfee, of Adrian, one of the firm's directors, congratulated the management upon completing a program which has been contemplated since 1944.

Mrs. Perry Hayden was introduced and publicly expressed her appreciation for the work done by William Beardsley firm manager.

Perry Hayden, as master of ceremonies, stated that the dedication of the new equipment was just another way of publicly "expressing gratitude to our Heavenly Father for the blessings that he has so abundantly showered upon this o company and those who have operated it for the past 117 years."

Among thoe present were guests from Wauseon, Ohio, Jasper, Jackson, Ypsilanti, Hudson, Adrian, Dundee, Hillsdale, Riga, Parma, Willis, Hanover, Manchester, Ann Arbor and Chelsea.

The Seeds of Good Health

The seeds of good health are often planted in the minds of the younger generation by the pharmacist. Because their parents rely upon the pharmacist, coming to him for aid and advice, the children learn to regard the man behind the counter as their friend. We are pleased to have the trust and confidence of the younger generation and are proud of the share of knowledge we plant in their minds. Next time you have a prescription to be filled, bring along the children. The wisdom of good health habits they will acquire may serve them well.

Protect Your Battery!

Your Buick or Chevrolet car is equipped with a fine battery, but, nevertheless, it needs attention.

Batteries cost money. Protect your investment by having it charged when it needs it; have your generator checked, see that it is in good condition.

Cars, like people, need periodic check-ups. If yours is a Buick or Chevrolet, bring it to us. Our mechanics are carefully trained.

Garbage Pickup Rule Explained

EXCLUSIVE FRANCHISE GRANTED BY VILLAGE; OTHER OPERATORS ARE BANNED

After April 1, there will be two ways to have your garbage disposed of if you live within the limits of the Village of Tecumseh.

1. You may hire L. R. Maynard, who has an exclusive franchise to do this work, or

2. You may dispose of it yourself by hauling it to the public dump.

You can not, however, hire someone else to do the work for you, unless that someone is Mr. Maynard.

It was explained at the Village offices today that Mr. Maynard has an exclusive franchise to pick up and dispose of garbage within the Village of Tecumseh. He has posted a $5,000 bond to assure performance, and anyone attempting to do the work other than Maynard would be considered as infringing upon his rights.

The Maynard franchise continues for six months.

Under the terms of the Maynard franchise with the village, he may charge $1.25 per month for the collection and disposal of garbage, in the residential area. It is understood that along with the service he also will dispose of tin cans and ashes, if they are in containers. He will give two collections weekly the summer months, starting May 1. In the winter months, a once-a-week collection.

For the collection and disposal of garbage and refuse from stores and other places of business in the commercial district, no fixed price has been established. For this work, Maynard much reach an agreement with his customers. It was explained that the Village only attempted to fix the charge to be made to residential customers.

It further was explained by the Village that the Maynard franchise has no bearing on private operators who pick up and dispose of ashes, and general refuse from homes and places of business. Private operators may continue to do this work, so long as they do not attempt to haul garbage. It is over the picking up and disposal of garbage that the franchise becomes operative.

Hi-Nabor Day Planned By Chamber of Commerce

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce met in special session on Tuesday evening to formulate plans for a Hi-Nabor Day on Tuesday evening, April 22, at the Country Club.

Tentative plans call for invitations to be extended to business and professional men from Onsted, Tipton, Clinton, Macon, Ridgeway, Britton, Holloway and Deerfield, and members of Tecumseh Grange, to attend the dinner-meeting. There will be industrial exhibits of interest, and an interesting program.

Robert H. Moore, president of the Chamber, will probably announce his committees within a week, and invitations will immediately go forward to the other communities.

Plans Nearly Ready For School Expansion

The board of education of the Tecumseh school district met in special session, Tuesday evening, to further canvass plans for the building of an addition to the new high school, and the construction of an elementary school on property acquired on North Union street.

The board plans to have the building program in readiness to announce to the public, probably within a week or 10 days. It will call for a bond issue which will require a special election.

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR ROTARY CLUB SPEAKER

Russell Hussey, professor of geology at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, was the guest speaker at the dinner-meeting of the Rotary Club, Tuesday evening at the Country Club. Prof. Hussey used as his subject, "Two Million Years of Michigan History." His talk was both interesting and educational. He was accompanied to Tecumseh by Ira Smith, University registrar.

Roy Dodd of the Detroit Rotary Club, spoke briefly, inviting members of Tecumseh Rotary to attend the district convention of the organization in Detroit, next Sunday and Monday.

NEW LITTLE AMERICAN . . . In New York City, Hans Meissnest and his wife, Irene, are enjoying a book of child's stories with Irene, a little German girl whom they are adopting. The pretty child, who came from Waiblingen, Germany, arrived at New York's Idlewild airport recently. She was obtained by the Meissnests through some of their relatives in Germany and an adoption agency. The new little American's new home from now on will be in Queens, New York.

Explorers Will Receive Charter

PRESENTATION CEREMONY TO BE HELD AT V.F.W. HALL, APRIL 2ND

An executive of Wolverine Council, Boy Scouts of America, is expected to be present here on Wednesday, April 2, to present the charter of the Explorers group to the sponsoring organization, the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The presentation will be preceded by a Court of Honor, to be held in the V.F.W. Hall. Explorers and their parents will be present.

Explorer Scouts in Tecumseh have been unusually busy during the past week. Yesterday, at a meeting in the Scout Cabin in Elliott park, plans were made for entertaining Explorers from Dundee, sometime in April. Also discussed was further work in Emergency Service Training.

The target shoot, an event scheduled for Saturday, March 29, will be held instead on Sunday, March 30, because the advisor and assistants will be at a leaders' training program at Camp Kanesatake, Saturday.

Sunday, March 23, after church services, a group of 11 Explorers, one Boy Scout and the Explorers advisor went on a hike and "cooked out." Some passed tests in fire building, cooking without utensils, and compass course work.

Thursday, March 20, an Explorers Leaders' Council board of review was held at the Packard residence here and the following passed their tests: Eugene Damon, Troop 4, Boy Scouts, second class; Charles Foreman, Troop 4, second class; Harry Packard, Troop 4, second class; Bruce Packard, Post 47, Explorers, physical fitness rating, bronze award; Louis Vargo, Post 47, physical fitness rating, vocational explorations rating, bronze award. The bronze award in Explorers is equal to a star for Boy Scouts.

It is planned to hold a board of review on the third Thursday of each month so that all advancement ratings may be kept up to date.

Saturday, March 15, eighteen Explorers accompanied by their advisor, Francis Packard, and Har-

M-52 Bridge To Cost $93,000

CONTRACT FOR NEW STRUCTURE OVER EVANS CREEK AWARDED BY STATE

The contract for the building of a new bridge over Evans Creek on M-52 in the Village of Tecumseh has been awarded to Ruckman-Hanson, Inc., of Fort Wayne, Ind., by the State Highway Department. The cost of the project is $93,340.20.

The project will consist of the construction of a reinforced concrete and steel structure, removal of the existing bridge, and the relocation of a water main, as well as grading and concrete surfacing the approaches. All steel pile shells and pile points and all steel reinforcements required for the project will be furnished by the state. Most of the steel already has arrived in Tecumseh.

The contract calls for the completion of the bridge by May 15, 1953.

Red Cross Quota Is Lagging Here

MORE THAN $500 NEEDED TO PUT DRIVE OVER THE TOP BY MARCH 31ST

Tecumseh is lagging in its giving to the American Red Cross with the result that with only five days remaining before the campaign closes, the Village is more than $500 behind in its quota.

Both Mrs. Haight and Mrs. Larsen made an urgent appeal to local residents to help to put Tecumseh over the top in the campaign. Many folk, it was said, have thus far not contributed.

The local Red Cross workers are maintaining a subscription desk in the lobby at the United Savings Bank. Should donors find it inconvenient to make their contributions there, they may do so by telephoning either Mrs. Haight or Mrs. Larsen for a personal solicitation or, should they prefer, checks may be mailed to either of the co-chairmen.

The general committee in charge of the celebration is composed of members of the church committee appointed for 1952. They are Paul Clauda, general chairman, with C. F. Sage, co-chairman; Dean Briggs, church ceremony; Wallace Whiting, public testimonial banquet; Walter Mueller, parking and transportation; Mrs. Paul Breitenwischer, invitations.

Peddlers Need Sales License

VILLAGE ORDINANCE PROVIDES PENALTY FOR TRANSIENTS WHO VIOLATE LAW

Spring has arrived and with it, according to reports, the usual number of ininerant salesmen who go from door-to-door, selling their wares.

The Chamber of Commerce warned today that such salesmen must have licenses to operate, and that the license must be issued by the clerk of the Village. Also, it was pointed out, the ordinance provides that a fee shall be paid by the salesman for the privilege to operate. Unless the salesmen comply with the ordinance they are liable to arrest and prosecution.

The Chamber has, from time to time, warned residents not to buy from inınerant vendors unless they (the residents) first contacted the Chamber office or the office of the clerk of the village to determine wheather a license for operation had been granted.

"This is just good business," a spokesman for the Chamber said today. "Every year, itinerant sales folk visit community after community and sell their wares. Sometimes they are legitimate sales folk, and on other occasions the buyer, at a later date, finds that he has been taken in by a clever salesman. To protect the buyer, the Chamber urges that they first check up to determine whether the itinerant has been screened and has paid his license fee."

Recently, it was said, sales people have been at work here, selling almost everything from rugs to jewelry. It appears that in not a single instance has a license to operate been granted by the village.

Residents who have itinerant salesmen at their doors should ask to see the license granted by the village. If no license can be shown, they should call either the village clerk, the police or the Chamber offices. This will permit an investigation to learn whether the salesmen are legitimate and, if they are, they will be invited to comply with the license law.

Will History Repeat Itself?

More than 20 years ago, Franklin D. Roosevelt opposed Herbert Hoover in a national election for the presidency of the United States. Franklin D. Roosevelt won the election.

Looking back on that election—hindsight is always better than foresight—it appears that the electors of the nation voted for Mr. Roosevelt, not because they particularly wanted him for president but because they wanted a CHANGE. Subsequent reelections of Mr. Roosevelt occurred for a similar reason. Folk remembered the depression days under Mr. Hoover, and the hard times under the first year or two of Mr. Roosevelt. But Roosevelt promised to change these conditions, to give the country a "New Deal," and the people were for it. The President started to spend the people's money, to put cash into circulation. The voters wanted that, too. What happened?

The New Deal pump priming continued, money began to loosen up, wages and prices started to increase, folk once again had money to spend and all seemed well. In short, a majority of the voters were quite satisfied, in fact they were so satisfied that it behooved members of both branches of the Congress to "get on the band wagon" if they desired to continue in office. The result, more and more deficit spending was approved, more and more pump priming continued and more and more folk switched to the New Deal thinking.

Then came World War II, an emergency. We needed more cash and the only way to get it was to increase our deficit spending. The Administration knew that the people would not object, and the easy money spree continued.

We had a war to win and it was right and proper to win it at all cost. To that we agree. But the war ended, and we won it, but since the end of World War II spending has not stopped. Instead, it has skyrocketed.

The result of the pre-war and post-war spending now is catching up with us. We have "prosperity" in the form of inflation. The dollar today is worth little more than half of what we consider to be a "normal" dollar. And we are still doing deficit spending, and prices still are advancing.

Undoubtedly a vast majority of the people would never have awakened to the fact that we were doing deficit spending—attempting to spend ourselves into prosperity—had it not been for the fact that taxes skyrocketed along with prices. The Administration had to maintain some semblance of balance in the budget if our economy was to be kept right side up. And the only way to maintain this semblance of balance was through taxation.

Suddenly, the people began to realize that the only source of income for any government is through taxation or confiscation. In the last couple of years, average folk have been feeling the pinch of taxes. More and more they have become conscious that the "easy money" that has been floating around since the end of World War II was not "everybody's money" but some of "their money." And as they continued to pay more taxes, and as prices continued to increase, folk, it seems, started to think.

Today, the federal tax bill across the nation is 120 times as great as it was in 1900. The tax bill for every man, woman and child in the United States for the fiscal year starting July 1 will be $472. That is twice again as much money as the people were asked to contribute to government at the peak of World War II. And even with this terrific tax, the government says that it will go some 14 billion dollars in the hole during the next fiscal year.

The Administration says that taxes must go up, that we must come closer to balancing the budget. And, it seems, for the first time in nearly 20 years, the average American is starting to think—to wonder just how much money he can be forced to pay in taxes.

The New Hampshire primary earlier this month indicated a definite trend in the American voter's thinking. Mr. Kefauver polled a definite lead over Mr. Truman, and Gen. Eisenhower was the popular choice of the Republicans as the next occupant of the White House. And the General polled a much heavier vote than did his Democratic opponents.

It seems, therefore, that it is possible that history may repeat itself in this election year of 1952. It is quite likely that regardless of the Republican nominee, he will win over his Democratic opponent. Voters are again becoming dissatisfied. They are again ready to vote against a condition they do not like.

It is unlikely that Mr. Truman will be a candidate for reelection. But regardless of the Democrats' choice, it appears to be a safe bet that a change will be made, and that the next occupant of the White House will not be a Democrat.

mag-nif-i-cent (mag-nif'ə-sənt), adj. (A) Identified with sensuous splendor or sumptuous adornment (B) a thing of grandeur or majestic beauty (C) grand, stately.

Wheel Crests standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

What's Your Notion of Magnificent Motion ?

WE'LL admit that we're taking in a lot of territory when we use a word with the definition shown above.

But no lesser term can do justice to all the things that make a Buick such a joy to drive and to own.

Splendor and sumptuous adornment you'll certainly find in its rich interior – grandeur you'll certainly find in the mighty flow of its power.

But this is only background for what is justly termed its Million Dollar Ride.

Yes, sir, magnificent is the word for this majestic beauty in motion.

There's such an earth-hugging, mile-skimming feel to it, as it bullets along the highway.

It holds a straight course without weave or wander–seems to snug down to the road on curves.

A massive X-braced frame gives it solidity. A torque-tube firms its keel. End-sway and side-roll are neutralized. The engine is Hi-Poised mounted on rubber pillows–and big, soft-acting coil springs on all four wheels soak up the jars and jolts, float you over road-ripples, "washboard gravel" or weather-pocked macadam as if they weren't there.

Even its Dynaflow Drive* contributes to the smoothness of its forward motion by cushioning the transmission of its power.

How about taking one of this year's Buicks–SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER–on a cruise of discovery all your own?

Touch off its Fireball 8 Engine that's a gas-saving high-compression valve-in-head–head it out for the roads you know by past experience–and let it speak for itself. Even the price tag is eloquent proof that this is the car for you.

*Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Sure is true for '52

Fewer Traffic Deaths, But Accidents Increase

The Michigan traffic toll for the first month of 1952 went from one extreme to the other, compared to previous records for January, the State Police monthly statistical report shows.

The 83 traffic deaths were the lowest number of January fatalities since 1948. On the other hand, injuries and accidents were the highest with the exception of January of last year.

The number of fatalities dropped 48, or 37 per cent, under the 131 for the same month in 1951. There were 3,282 persons injured, a decrease of 239, or seven per cent, under 3,521 and accidents totaled 14,969, a decrease of 676, or four percent, under 15,645.

Rural areas showed the sharpest percentage of reduction in deaths, injuries and accidents.

The reduction in fatalities followed the national trend in the snow belt states and was generally attributed to the heavy snow which restricted highway travel.

Estimated travel for December of 1951, the latest month available, was three per cent under the same month of the previous year, 1.67 billion miles compared with 1.73 billion.

HERE'S A PROPOSAL

We know that doing the baking and the cooking, along with all of the other jobs that fall to the average Mother and Housewife, make for long, tiresome days.

WE HAVE A PROPOSAL. In brief it is this: Why don't you let us do your baking for you? Let us remove that work and worry from your home.

You'll like all of our baked goods, too. We use old-fashioned receipes—just like Mother's—that call for plenty of eggs, milk, sugar and shortening.

Dr. F.G. Hodge

the Bronze Star Medal and five letters of commendation for his work in this important field. Next was the development of the Air-Sea Rescue Kit, officially known as the type D, Mark II, ASRK-H-3. This a complete survival kit which can be dropped to a pilot downed at sea. One of the unusual features of this kit is that it can be dropped from the bomb rack of any carrier type aircraft. Once the kit is dropped to the downed pilot, all he must do is to pull the rip cord to open it. He is then completely outfitted with an eight foot pneumatic life boat, food rations, radar reflector screen, dye markers, water purifying gear, and all other necessites for his survival until rescued. For perfection of this great life-saving development, Commander Hodge received a letter of commendation from the Chief of Naval Operations.

As a collateral duty in addition to his many other duties, Commander Hodge was the ship's Special Services Officer. His organizing ability gave the Leyte the finest overall recreational program afloat. This organization conducted amusement of every sort for the welfare and enjoyment of all hands aboard. A few of the accomplishments were SIXTH FLEET championships in athletics, hobby shops and stage shows aboard ship, smokers, dances, and parties ashore as well as conducted tours to all historic sites about the Mediterranean. Commander Hodge was also editor-in-chief of the ship's 208 page Mediterranean Cruise Book which is the final word in pictoral presentation of an extended foreign cruise.

"Outstanding" has been the rating given ot the Leyte Dental Clinic, under the direction of Commander Hodge, on every formal administrative inspection. This is the highest rating awarded by the Navy for evaluation of a functional unit.

The Commander makes his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Hodge of Morenci, Michigan. He graduated from the University of Michigan with the degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery in 1932.

He will be detached from the "Leading Leyte," as she is known throughout the fleet, upon her arrival at Norfolk, Virginia. The Leyte is currently operating off the coast of Florida qualifying pilots for carrier operations.

The Leyte is commanded by Captain Ford N. Taylor, USN, of Memphis, Tennessee.

DANGER AND TRAGEDY AT PARA-MANEUVERS . . . Tragedy struck at Camp Drum, N.Y., as the army's parachute maneuvers, "Operation Snowdrop," got underway. Paratrooper Clayton Whitner, Missouri, lies in the snow after he was injured in a jump. Two buddies try to make the injured trooper as comfortable as possible as first aid is awaited. At the time this happened two paratroopers had been killed in jumps and a cargo plane loaded with paratroopers had crashed on takeoff, killing three persons. The army is testing the stamina and skill of the jumpers under winter conditions and under situations simulating actual war at the front.

disposal of refuse, other than garbage, may contact with anyone they desire to do the work.

The Village, it was explained, did not feel that it was fair to Maynard to issue him a franchise to do the work and then to permit other operators to compete with him. For that reason the franchise was made exclusive. It was explained that Maynard must go to considerable expense to prepare himself to make the collection and is, therefore, entitled to protection.

The Village will turn over all of the garbage collection work to Maynard on April 1, next Tuesday. After that time the Village will be out of the collection business—and all of the work, including the bookkeeping, will be Maynard's job.

The Village has been in the garbage collection business here for several years, charging residential customers $1 monthly and commercial customers a higher rate. A few weeks ago, commercial customers complained that the rate in that area was too high and the Village countered by saying that it was losing money on the pickup. A survey followed, and it was decided that the Village should get out of the business and permit a private operator to do the work on a franchise basis. This was done at last week's council meeting.

Some folk feel that the new rate of $1.25 monthly to residential customers is too high, inasmuch as they were previously having the work done by the village or a private operator for $1 a month. However, the Village explained that it was no longer possible for a private operator to do the work for $1 a month, and that the $1.25 rate was considered justified.

Residents now being served by the village on the disposal service will continue to be served by the new private operator. All lists will be turned over to him by the Village. In the future, however, Maynard will bill and collect from his customers—not the Village.

Persons desiring the service of the new operator may contact him at his home at 408 E. Kilbuck street.

Hazel P. Dunlap, of the J. L. Hudson Company, Detroit, will be the guest, speaking on "The Romance of Old Silver."

Members are asked to bring pieces of old silver for a display. The Department of the American Home is in charge of the program with Mrs. Clarence Beach as leader. Careless.

The self - reliant yound lady maneuvered her shiny new sedan between two parked trucks, timed the changing light to a nicety, jumped ahead of the slow-starting line of cars, and was the first to reach the outskirts of the town.

"That's what I call driving!" the cop directing traffic called over to a friend.

But two minutes later, the same young lady reached her street, made a sharp turn and ripped one of her garage doors completely off its hinges.

State Traffic Toll Increases

ACCIDENTS AND DEATHS IN 1951 SET ALL-TIME STATE RECORD

The record number of 176,587 accidents that occurred on Michigan streets and highways last year resulted in more than 50,000 casualties — 1,640 deaths and 48,418 injuries. It was the worst toll in the history of the state, according to the 1951 traffic experience report released by State Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard.

The death total was the highest since 1941 and the sixth highest recorded. Injuries and accidents climbed to new peaks, accompanying the sharp upward trend in the number of licensed drivers, motor vehicle registrations and miles of travel which began at the close of World War II.

Deaths increased 35, or two per cent, over the 1,605 fatalities in 1950. Injuries increased 2,684, or six per cent, over 45,734 and accidents went up 14,837, or nine per cent, over 161,750.

There were 3,065,447 licensed drivers, 2,560,652 motor vehicle registrations and an estimated 23 and one-half billion miles of travel in 1951. These totals represented increases of 198,000 drivers, 121,059 registrations and nearly one and one-half billion miles of travel over the previous year.

Although the death toll was one of the highest on record, the death rate was at an all-time low, or 6.98 per 100 million miles of travel. The previous low was 7.17 in 1949. In 1950 the rate was 7.23.

The average daily traffic toll for 1951 was 4.5 persons killed and 133 injured in 484 accidents. Daily travel exceeded 64,000,000 miles.

The number of fatal accidents, 1,405, was exactly the same in both 1951 and 1950, but three or more persons were killed in each of 40 accidents last year.

Rural areas accounted for 68 per cent of all deaths, but only 39 per cent of the injuries and 17 per cent of the accidents. Increased accident severity in rural areas is attributed largely to the higher speeds traveled on the open highway.

During the last 10 years, 1942 through 1951, 13,616 persons were killed and 351,476 injured in 1,196,604 accidents throughout the state.

Positive Proof.

Gladstone used to tell his friends about a neighbor's little girl who really believed in prayer. Her brother had made a trap that caught little sparrows, and she prayed that it might fail.

Suddenly her face became radiant and for three days she prayed hard, and her faith was so absolute, that her mother asked one morning, "Julia, why are you so sure your prayer will be answered?"

Julia smiled. "I know that my prayer will be answered, because I went out there three days ago and kicked the trap to pieces!"

o

Hope Not.

A woman motorist was driving along a country lane when she noticed a couple of repair men climbing a telephone pole.

"What are they doing that for?" she said, turning to her companion. "Surely my driving isn't as bad as that!"

DRIVE FOR SAFETY

The drive for greater traffic safety among Michigan's teen-age drivers will gain momentum with the beginning of the high school spring term.

For that's when the 40 high school teachers recently trained at the University of Michigan's 18th institute of teacher preparation for driver education will begin teaching their students.

Conclusion of the institute brings to approximately 390 the number of persons teaching or qualified to teach driving at the secondary school level in Michigan. Almost everyone of them was trained at these institutes.

Child Hits Car Condition Good

HAROLD ACKER, 6, HOSPITALIZED AFTER MISHAP; NAOMI CARPENTER INJURED

Harold Acker, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Acker of Paul's Trailer Court, suffered a concussion and possible internal injuries, Sunday at 1:10 p.m., when he ran into a car that was backing up in the court. He was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital where his condition is reported as good.

According to state police from Clinton, the child was playing near a driveway. A car was being backed by William G. Shavalier, 28, of Tecumseh, and the lad ran into the rear bumper.

Naomi Carpenter, 33, of Rt. 3, Adrian, suffered bruises and cuts and shoulder injuries when her car collided with another on Russell Road at Green Highway, southwest of Tecumseh. The accident happened at 3 p.m., Saturday. The injured woman was removed by ambulance to Herrick Memorial Hospital where her condition is reported as fair.

Clinton state police said that the Carpenter car was being driven north on Green Highway and came to the intersection of Russell Road at the same time as a car driven by Lenville P. Lisenbee, 26, of 316 S. Ottawa street, Tecumseh. The Lisenbee car hit the left rear of the Carpenter car and the latter vehicle overturned.

Evie M. Randall, 46, Detroit, received a summons from Clinton state police at 7:10 p.m., Sunday, when she lost control of her car and it hit another on US-112, east of Clinton. Officers charged her with excessive speed. They said her car ran off the highway and then veered back and struck the rear of a car driven by J. R. Puffer, 22, of Rt. 2, Britton. No one was hurt.

James B. Moore, 22, Clinton, suffered injuries Saturday night when his car left the M-50 highway near Jackson and ran into the ditch. Moore was removed to Mercy Hospital, Jackson. Moore, according to officers, was traveling toward Jackson when the accident happened on a curve at a side-road intersection. His car caught fire but was extinguished. Damage was extensive.

Young GOP's Meet Tonight

FIRST MEETING OF GROUP FORMED IN TECUMSEH WILL BE HELD AT THE LIBRARY

The first meeting of the Young Republican's Club of Tecumseh will be held at 7:30 this evening in the basement of the public library. The organization was formed a few weeks ago, and it is hoped that at tonight's meeting, officers may be chosen and a program arranged.

"This is at present a small but determined group," a spokesman for the organization said today. "It is dedicated to a reversal of the give-away tactics of the government—national, state and local. Among the objectives of its platform are an end to Social Security on self-employed persons, a ceiling on personal income taxes and to discourage, or return to a local level, such programs as old age assistance, aid to dependent children, public welfare, etc."

It was pointed out that although the group is designated as being "Young Republicans," there is no age limit on membership. Also on the agenda of the group is a strict scrutiny of all candidates and encumbents, from local to a national level, and a complete rejection of those candidates who refuse to commit themselves to the group's platform.

"All persons interested in getting belligerant about the 'new deal' are urged to attend," it was said. "The group is not interested in lukewarm adherents."

Red Cross Drive Extended Here

TECUMSEH LAGGING BEHIND ITS QUOTA; CAMPAIGN TO CLOSE ON APRIL 5

Recent floods and windstorms in the south and western parts of the United States have placed another drain on the treasury of the American Red Cross, and has caused a brief extension in the Lenawee country drive for funds for that organization, Mrs. Vincent Haight, co-chairman of the local campaign, said today.

"The Red Cross has been hit this year for funds," Mrs. Haight said, "and we have received an urgent appeal to obtain all of the contributions possible for the organization. For that reason we are extending the drive locally until next Saturday, April 5. After that time we will send our report to the county office at Adrian."

Tecumseh's quota this year is $1,500 and to date $1,253 have been subscribed.

"We are hopeful that we will make our quota," Mrs. Haight said. "We understand that there are a few gifts still coming in, and for that reason we feel that we will hit the $1,500 figure. However, there are many here who have not subscribed and in all probability they desire to give. If they will notify me or Mrs. L. W. Larsen, also co-chairman, we will call for the subscription."

Mrs. Haight said that the subscription desk in the United Savings bank, which has been operated during the earlier days of the drive, would not be in use during the remaining days of the campaign.

NO EVIDENCE LOCALLY OF USE OR PRESENCE OF DRUG, OFFICIALS DECLARE

A week-long investigation into the presence and use of dope in Tecumseh ended over the week-end. Officials declared that the inquiry had proved that there was no evidence of either the use or the sale of drugs in Tecumseh, despite earlier rumors ot the contrary.

The statement by local and state police and school authorities came following the jailing of three men in Adrian for investigation. The three detained are Jose Lopes, 24, of Toledo; Helario Garcia, 22, and Charles Hallenbeck, 25, both of Adrian. All of the men were arrested over the week-end as officers continued their inquiry into the narcotic rumors.

Lopes was taken into custody in Toledo, Sunday morning, and returned to Adrian. He is believed to have been with Garcia and Hallenbeck, Saturday night. The two Adrian men were arrested early Sunday morning in a business place there.

Adrian officers entered the investigation as a result of a tip from the Tecumseh police. Commissioner Robert Stites said that the men detained would be quizzed as to the possible source of drugs.

Michigan State Police and local police, cooperating with Tecumseh school authorities, spent the greater part of last week running down a rumor that narcotics and been sold and used in Tecumseh. A group of local young men were questioned, as well as several junior high school students.

Sgt. Claude Bartell of the Michigan State Police and Police Chief M. E. Clark said that the investigation showed that there was no evidence of the use or the presence of drugs in the Tecumseh group.

"Rumor of the use and sale of drugs here was investigated by police as soon as we heard it," Chief Clark said. "We wanted to get to the bottom of the story as quickly as possible. I am happy to say that the inquiry disclosed that there had been no use of narcotics here, and neither had there been any sales."
